

Wells of Water.

In the wilderness and valleys From the rocks and mountains crest, Wells of water ever springeth Where the weary are refreshed.

Oh! how precious are those waters As we journey on the way, Filling us with joy and gladness, Strengthening us from day to day.

Tasting places from all ages, Where our loved ones we have met, Are those wells and streams and rivers Which we never can forget.

Here it was that Abram's servant, After swearing to be true, Sat and rested on his mission, Wondering what the Lord would do.

"God of Abraham"—he prayeth— Let the maiden who will come And give me and my camels water Before Isaac's chosen one."

Here the Saviour tired and weary, Sat and rested on the well, When the woman of Samaria Heard him her life's doings tell.

"If you drink this water, surely You will ere long thirst again, But the water that I give thee Will relieve from woe and shame."

Oh! our Saviour, thanks we give thee, That the world in all its strife May come to thee, and thou wilt give them Waters of eternal life.

London correspondence of the New York Times—The old hatred between the French and the English, crops up every now and then as sharp and well-defined as if Waterloo were as fresh a story as the most recent "plague in Egypt." At no time within my recollection, not even including the time when the French colonels in Lord Palmerston's days demanded to be "led to the dens of the assassins in London," has the hostile feeling of the two peoples, one against the other, been so much aroused as now. A day or two ago, when the newspapers reported that our neighbours had set up a claim to certain territorial and fishing rights on the Isle of Jersey. It seemed for a moment as if the chauvinistic climax had been reached. Even ministers in Parliament answered interrogations upon the subject with a gravity of expression and demeanour which seemed to imply that our relations with France are nearly strained. But for the coolness of temper of the diplomacy which at the moment, influences the action of the two governments it would be so, and with results far more serious for France than for England.

The Great French Remedy, Dr LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will be willing to do without them. But after all sick head
