

CURRENT NOTES.

The great secret of eloquence is to be in earnest. An ounce of cheerfulness is worth a ton of melancholy. It is not what we earn but what we save, that makes us rich. So long as we set our affections on things above things below cannot corrupt us. The love of display which results in vulgar ostentation, is the result of selfishness. No joy is ever given freely forth that does not have quick echo in the giver's own heart. We cry out for a little pain, when we do but smile for a great deal of contentment. Why is a secret like a goose? Because it is too much for one and not enough for two. The fire-fly only shines when on the wing; so it is with the mind; when once at rest we darken. The surest way to make ourselves agreeable to others is by seeming to think them so to us. If it is a double pleasure to deceive the deceiver, what is the value of undeceiving with truth? The stoutest heart may lose hope under repeated defeat, and the weakest be led by it to victory. Let the thought of self pass in, and the beauty of a great action is gone, like the bloom of a soiled flower. To most men experience is like the stern light of a ship, which illumine only the track it has passed. A disabbling temper carries its own punishment along with it, while to be obliging receives a large reward. The first and worst of all frauds is to cheat one's self, and the most common and unaccountable is continuing to do so.

The human mind is like ground, which acquires a quality according to the plains bestowed on its cultivation.

If no man can be successful who neglects his business, as is said, how about the business of successful failing?

Health and cheerfulness are said to be each the parent of the other; and soap and cleanliness, each the child of the other.

The paths of labor are strewn with the leaves of wisdom. Gather one each day. In a long journey a volume may be procured.

In your feelings towards all around you be indulgent and liberal, if you would have those around you indulgent and liberal to you.

Every man is occasionally what he ought to be perpetually, while every woman is perpetually what she ought to be only semi-occasionally.

In the west of England the fortunes of children are believed to be largely regulated by the day of the week on which they are born.

The beauty of the face is a frail possession, a short lived flower, only attached to the mere epidermis, but that of the mind is innate and enduring.

Of all the actions of a man's life his marriage does the least concern other people, yet, of all actions of our life 'tis the most meddled with by other people.

We do not like our friends the worse because they sometimes give us an opportunity to rail at them heartily. Their faults reconcile us to their virtues.

There are nineteen known metals valued at over $1000 per avoirdupois pound. The most costly is vanadium, which is said to be worth $10,000 a pound.

As we are bound not to inflict unnecessary suffering on animals, so we are obliged to avert all that tends to add to the sorrow and trials of our common humanity.

A few strong instincts and a few plain rules should govern us, and among them one ought, if possible, to cherish an undying love of truth—not abstract truth but the every day article.

Religion is the human mind standing in reverence and inspiration before the infinite energy of the universe, asking to be lifted up into it, opening itself to its inspiration and receiving its Power.

He who is great when he falls is great in his prostration, and is no more an object of contempt, than when men tread on the ruins of sacred buildings, which men of piety venerate no less than if they stood.

President Cleveland has issued a proclamation vacating President Arthur's order opening the Winnebago reservation in Dakota to settlement, on the ground that it was in violation of treaty obligations. Settlers who have already entered upon the reservation are warned to quit within sixty days.

Gerhardt, Diedert, Soltman, and other distinguished authorities, at the late congress to consider the subject, held in Salzburg, unanimously declared that the so-called infant foods manufactured from wheat, barley, etc., are all deleterious, and should be discouraged by medical practitioners everywhere.

WARREN LELAND, whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the Largest Hotel Enterprises of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. LELAND has personally used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York.

Mr. LELAND's extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquirers much valuable information. PREPARED BY Dr. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

VINNICOMBE is now prepared to take a limited number of pupils for Viola Instruction by "Danclas" conservatory method, which is so complete that each pupil is enabled to form a part of one harmonized body, thereby making the tuition a pleasure instead of the old class drudgery.
