The "Jeanette."

THE MISSING CREW CONSIDERED TO BE SAFE—EFFORTS FOR THEIR SUCCOR—BENNETT'S GENEROUS PROVISION.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 22.—The Governor of Eastern Siberia expresses an opinion that the remainder of the crew of the steamer "Jeanette" have been fallen in with by natives and been hospitably treated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The Secretary of the Navy has received from engineer Melville, under date of Irkutsk, Dec. 21, a cable message identical with that cabled last night to the New York "Herald." The Secretary replied as follows:—"Omit no effort, spare no expense, in securing the safety of the men in the second cutter. Let the sick and frozen of those already rescued have every attention, and as soon as practicable have them transported to a milder climate. The Department will supply the necessary funds."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

The Secretary of State has received today the following despatch from the Charge D'Affairs of the United States at St. Petersburg: "I have seen Ignatieff. The Russian Government has ordered an active search for the second cutter and will furnish all funds necessary to provide for the subsequent needs. I will draw on you. I have a long telegram from Melville, but I understood the same went through last night to the Navy Department. I will communicate with Melville through Ignatieff as regards possible measures to find the second cutter."

The following are additional despatches:

PARIS, Dec. 21.

Hon. Mr. Frelinhuysen:—Immediately upon the receipt of the first news from my St. Petersburg correspondent about the "Jeannette," saying that 1,000 roubles were needed, I transferred that sum by telegraph through Messrs. Rotschilds to Gen. Ignatieff at St. Petersburg, with a request to draw on me for any further sums required for the succor and comfort of Capt. DeLong and his party. I to-day received the following telegram from Gen. Ignatieff: "I have hastened to communicate to your correspondent the news received from Yakoutsk, and have given orders to the Governor to take the most energetic measures for the rescue of the shipwrecked crew, together with the authority to undertake all necessary expense for which I have promised to reimburse him. (Signed). Comte Ignatieff." You will see by this that everything possible is being done by the Russian Government to secure the safety and speedy return of Capt. DeLong and his men. If you, or the Secretary of the Navy, might wish to take advantage of an opportunity to send despatches or forward messages from the relatives and friends of the party, my correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs that the distance by wagon to the point where the crew now are is four thousand miles, requiring for a single traveller, provided with a pasier de faveur, at least a month. I also learn from St. Petersburg that the Emperor has personally given orders that all the necessary clothing, provisions, money and transportation shall be put to the service of the "Jeannette" party, which gives full assurance that everything possible will be done for their aid and comfort.

(Signed) JAMES GORDON BENNETT.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, Dec. 21st,

To James Gordon Bennett, Paris.

Your telegram with the news of your generous provision received. Before its receipt I had sent the following cable to Hoffman. (Then follows the telegram already published, signed Frelinghuysen, Secretary.)

Personal.

MR. GLADSTONE never succeeds in getting his gloves on properly.

THE Jeannette was named after James Gordon Bennett's only sister.

THE Prince of Wales has tried to make fashionable a sort of wideawake hat.

TENNYSON'S almost constant companion is now, as it has been for many years, his clay pipe.

OF Mr. Millais it is said that his work has ceased almost to be intellectual or imaginative.

THE Morrill Tariff bill is to be reported upon favorably. Will it become a Morrill certainty?

It is the duty of every good man to help his poor neighbor according to his means at this season of the year.

HIS Lordship the Anglican Bishop of Toronto has addressed the customary Christmas pastoral to his flock, bearing greeting and exhortations suitable for the hallowed season.

THE "Pall Mall Gazette" announces that Right Hon. Sir George Bromwell, a Judge of the Court of Appeals, is to be raised to the peerage.

MISS PARNELL has sent a circular letter to all branches of the Ladies' League, asking them to send the Home League returns of all tenants paying rents or applying to the Land Courts.

MR. GLADSTONE takes daily exercise in the grounds attached to Hawarden Castle, and has been busy in the surrounding woods. The castle and its surroundings are still strictly guarded by the Flintshire constabulary.

JUDGE HENRY TAULMAN, of Mobile, has left the bench to resume the practice of law because "no Judge can live comfortably on $2,500 a year and pay his travelling expenses." The amount named was his annual salary.

DR. OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES followed Mr. John G. Whittier in pleading inability to write poems to order. He wrote to the managers of the Boston Bazaar in aid of the Soldier's Home:—"Who can help being interested in the noble cause which you so forcibly present to us? If my heart would only write poems for me instead of calling on my somewhat fatigued and now and then refractory brain to do it, you should receive a hundred glowing verses instead of this scrap of frozen prose."

WHEN the Queen refused to sanction the mutual attachment between Prince Leopold and the new Lady Brooke, the Prince turned once more into the realms of art for an object on which to fix his fancy. This time there was no lack of birth, wealth or beauty; but, to the astonishment of royalty, an obstacle came from the young lady herself, which even the concession of being allowed to assume the title of Royal Highness could not overcome. The present marriage of the Prince is entirely one of convenience. The bride is described as being "German all over"—large footed, flat nosed, close fisted and learned. But she is passionately fond of music, and perhaps later on may be brought to love "boodry and brainding."—Philadelphia Press.
