

VARIETIES.

SOMEbody, on one occasion, annoyed at being advised to do this, and by another to do that, burst out with, "I wish I were sometimes every where for the suppression of all sorts of vice under the sun, except one; and I wish with all my heart there were no vice that I was not, as answered: "Ad-vice; a vice which was not unfrequently done as much harm as any other in the world."

This may have proved true of many kinds of advice; but the following "piece of advice" most recommend itself to the good sense and reason of every man. "If any thing in the world will make a man feel badly, even more so than pinching his finger in the crack of a door, it is unquittingly squaring up to a man every day to think less of himself after it than he did before. It degrades him in the eyes of his neighbors, and what is worse, it blunts his sensibility to the crime, and increases the power and passion of irritability on the other. The truth is, the more quietly and peaceably we all get on the better—the more we quarrel, the more we quarrel. In nine cases out of ten the wisest course is, if a man cheats you, to quit dealing with him; if he is abusive, quit his company; if he is a liar, quit his society; if he is a scoundrel, nobody will believe him. No matter who it is, or how he insults you, the wisest way is just to let him alone; for there is nothing better than that. No man ever fought a fire; you quit your enemy's head, than this cool, calm, and quiet way of dealing with the wrong one meets with in the world."

Candles.—To twelve pounds of lard of alum and saltpetre each one pound; dissolve the alum in water; then pour into the melted lard, and boil the whole until the water evaporates. The mixture requires constant stirring to prevent settling in the bottom. The Candles made if this composition are equal to the best tallow, and last some time longer.

A HINT TO YOUNG LADIES.—An intelligent gentleman of fortune visited a country gentleman's house in the hot season, and was hospitably entertained and lodged by a gentleman having three daughters—two of whom in rich dresses entertained him in the parlour, and the other two, while one kept herself in the kitchen, assisting her mother in preparing the food and setting the table for tea; and after the supper was again seated in the parlour, and completed; when she also joined her sisters in the parlour for the remainder of the evening. The next morning the same daughter was again early in the kitchen, and the other two were in the parlour. The gentleman, who Franklin, possessed a discriminating mind—was a close observer of the household, and was not so much attracted as opportunity and whispered something in the ear of the industrious one, and then left for a time, but revisited the same family, and was again seated in the parlour, and the kitchen was conveyed to Boston, the wife of the same gentleman visitor, where she now resides at an elegant mansion. The gentleman, who Franklin, was afterwards won by a judicious department and well-dressed young lady. So much for an industrious young lady.

"Will you give us a 'peep' of what you've been asked a young rascal, when entering a chandler's shop, 'Oh, willingly!' retorted the shopkeeper, on laying a stick rather roughly about the shoulders of the querist. "We always give that

"Oh, my friend!" said a doctor to an Irish patient; "be composed? We must all die once!" "An' it's that what vexes me!" replied Pat. "If I could die half a dozen times, I'd make care a ha'penny about this time!"

A LIBELLER of the fair sex says the women are all wicks. "When they are made, they're mad as milk; once made them wicks, they'll burn their backs for a moment; their marriage certificate and defy you."

An American paper says:—"A young lady in Albany was lately married to Mr. William Tongue. Isn't she Tongue-tied? We hope she will be as happy and hold her tongue a long year."

"MOTHER, I shouldn't be surprised if your Susan got choked some day." "Why, my son?" "Because her beautiful white arms around her neck the other night, and if she didn't get her neck a hot, she would have strangled her."

HEIGHT OF GALLANTY.—At the late fair for the blind, in Boston, a sailor was strolling past a table kept by a most lovely woman, who took a great fancy to him, and in breathless admiration, then took a ten-dollar note from his pocket, laid it on the table, and was passing on, "My good friend," said she, "I wish to know what thing for your money?" "I thank you madam," replied the fair, with another look; "I've had more than my money's worth already."

A woman was requested to finish a bit of cake as it lay on the table. "Ah!" replied the woman, "I don't care for it, but I'll make the cake for you, but it's not the way I make my bread."

We notice a contemporary's columns the advertisement of a lady for a husband—"Apply to the Editor of 'Hazard's Gazette' for a husband, but it's not the way I make my bread."

Books are the depositories of those minds which are busy in their generations, in striving for the applause of their own age and the esteem of posterity.

To the Electors of Charlestown and Roxbury.

GENTLEMEN.—I solicit the honor of representing you in the Legislature, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit. I have been educated in the most liberal and useful manner, and I have acquired a knowledge of the principles of the Constitution, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit. I have been educated in the most liberal and useful manner, and I have acquired a knowledge of the principles of the Constitution, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit.

EDWARD PALMER. Charlestown, June 13, 1855.

To the Electors of the First District of Essex County.

GENTLEMEN.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and valuable offer, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit. I have been educated in the most liberal and useful manner, and I have acquired a knowledge of the principles of the Constitution, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit.

GEORGE BEER, Jr. Charlestown, June 25, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Prince County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

GEORGE BEER, Jr. Charlestown, May 23, 1855.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Roxbury.

GENTLEMEN.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and valuable offer, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit. I have been educated in the most liberal and useful manner, and I have acquired a knowledge of the principles of the Constitution, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit.

GEORGE BEER, Jr. Charlestown, June 16, 1855.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Roxbury.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

GEORGE BEER, Jr. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

GEORGE BEER, Jr. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

To the Electors of the Second District of Essex County.

GENTLEMEN.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and valuable offer, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit. I have been educated in the most liberal and useful manner, and I have acquired a knowledge of the principles of the Constitution, and I am confident that I shall be able to do so with credit.

ALEXANDER McDONALD. Glenroy, June 17, 1855.

To the Electors of Charlestown and Roxbury.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

FRANCIS LONGWORTH. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the First Electoral District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

FRANCIS LONGWORTH. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

FRANCIS LONGWORTH. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

FRANCIS LONGWORTH. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

FRANCIS LONGWORTH. Charlestown, June 10, 1855.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Essex County.

I AM indeed, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable and influential citizens of your County, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election. My object in this making my intentions public is to give you an opportunity of expressing your views, which, when requested by many of you, to offer my services as a Candidate for the Legislature at the approaching Election.

NOVELTIES FOR THE SUMMER.

WILLIAM HEARD. BIRGS to announce the arrival per Albatross, from England, of a large assortment of BRITISH and FOREIGN MANUFACTURES, from the first Houses in the Trade. W. H. Heard personally selected this Stock, which will equal any other in a variety of NEW MATERIALS FOR LADIES' DRESSES, SILKS, SHAWLS, RIBBONS, PAROLS, BONNETS, MILLINERY, &c., &c. A large selection of Broad Cloths, Dressings, Customers, Tweeds, Waist-coatings, Cotton and LINEN GOODS of ALL DESCRIPTIONS. Boots and Shoes, and every article in the Furnishing Department.

In order to compete with other Houses, W. H. Heard informs his Friends that in future his business will be conducted on the CASH principle, and he requests those whose accounts are furnished to the Store, to pay them immediately.

THE COLONIAL Never Failing Remedy! LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

GOVERNOR—THE RIGHT HONORABLE EARL OF ELLIN and KINCARDINE, Governor General of Canada. Board of Directors—22 St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh. Head Office—11, Mark Lane, London. Agents—Messrs. G. W. Daboll & Co., Charlestown.

INCORPORATED IN GREAT BRITAIN. BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Life Assurance Company of London. P. E. HALL, T. H. HAVILLAND, J. G. BAKER, H. C. HICKSON, Esq., Thomas DAVENPORT, Esq., J. G. W. DABOLL & Co., Charlestown.

NATIONAL LOAN FUND LIFE & Equitable Fire Insurance Companies of London.

INCORPORATED IN GREAT BRITAIN. BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Life Assurance Company of London. P. E. HALL, T. H. HAVILLAND, J. G. BAKER, H. C. HICKSON, Esq., Thomas DAVENPORT, Esq., J. G. W. DABOLL & Co., Charlestown.

Fire! Fire! Fire!

Secure your Property by insuring it in the MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. This is the only Office which claims for loss can be met without reference to a foreign Company. Blank forms of application, and all other information, sent on application at the Secretary and Treasurer's Office, Corn Street.

ALLIANCE LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ESTABLISHED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT. JAMES W. YOUNG, Agent for Essex County.

Provincial Marine Insurance Company.

TORONTO, C. W.—Agent for Prince Edward Island. J. G. W. DABOLL & Co., Charlestown.

BAR IRON.

Landing at Brig. Helen, from Liverpool, Six TONS of above, assorted, cheap for Cash. J. G. W. DABOLL & Co., Charlestown.

FOR SALE.

A SPAN of HEAVY CART HORSES, also, a Covered American BUGGY, at GATY'S, 210 N. B. ST., North Side Queen Square, May 28, if.

TO BRICKMAKERS.

A SUPERIOR BRICK MAKING MACHINE, capable of making Ten thousand Bricks in a day, at GATY'S, 210 N. B. ST., North Side Queen Square, June 8, 1855.

APOTHECARIES HALL.

The Old Established HOUSE, 1810, CHARLOTTOWN, JANUARY, 1855. H. V. D. DESSIRAY & Co., Agents.

THE SPLENDID ESTABLISHMENT.

VULCAN. THIS Superior Animal, three years old, was bred at the Royal Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb, in London. He was bred by the late Mr. Daboll, and is now in the possession of Mr. Daboll & Co., Charlestown. He is a beautiful dark brown color, and will stand for the weight of his own body. He is a very good animal, and is a very good animal, and is a very good animal.