MR. DENNIS, manager of the Halifax Herald, was "named" by the Grand Council of the P. W. A. on Friday last. The weapon with which the assault was committed was a stout piece of ebony with a massive gold head. The victim did not resist, as they left the weapon in his possession.

The Truro News of the 20th says: One of the prettiest weddings ever seen in Truro, took place last evening at "The Lindens," the residence of R. J. and Mrs. Turner, when their daughter, Betha Grace, was united in marriage to Dr. J. W. T. Patton, of this town. The bride was most elegantly gowned in duchesse satin with a magnificent lace overdress of Brussels point, the gift of the bride's mother. She wore a veil held in place by a coronet of white rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and looked exceedingly beautiful. The maid of honor Miss Gertrude DeBlois, Charlottetown, looked very pretty in a dress of white crepe de chine with pink silk, and wore instead of the customary hat, a wreath of pink rose buds. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

THE body of Laughlin Macdonald, Bayfield, was discovered early Wednesday morning, lying on the road near the Souris cheese factory. Dr. A. Maclean, coroner, was notified, and took charge of the remains. An inquest was held at the court house and the following jury empaneled:—H. H. Acorn, foreman; Allan Tolner, Patrick S. John, Wm. Mellett, James Dunphy, J. C. Ferguson, James McCormack. After the evidence of several persons was taken, who had seen the deceased during the day, the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes. The deceased was about seventy-five years of age, and had led a wandering life for some time past.

But Cured By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

THE remains of the late Edwin St. Croix Stevenson, son of our respected friend C. A. Stevenson, who met a untimely death in the railway yard at Fort William, Thunder Bay, Ont., were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon, 19th Sept., in New Glasgow Cemetery, Rev. George Millar and Rev. G. N. Stevenson officiating at the solemn service. He was buried with the full honors of the Forrester rank, viz., Messrs. N. Orr, F. Andrew, W. B. Bulman, J. Clark, J. Houston, B. Moffatt. A beautiful casket from the I.O.F. brethren with many other floral decorations from friends completely covered the casket. The service at the grief stricken home was most impressive and expressions of sincere sympathy for the broken family circle were manifest. Over 100 carriages formed a long procession to the cemetery. The deceased was a most cheerful companion, a general friend of all in his native village and in his adopted home and the news of the crushing out of his young life so suddenly was heard with a shock by every one. He was in his 28th year and leaves to mourn a father and mother, three sisters and two brothers besides relatives and many friends.—Com.

MISS P. A. WOOD of Summerville Mass., formerly of Waterside P. E. I. arrived in Ottawa Tuesday morning where she will spend the winter the guest of E. E. and Mrs. Wood.

H. W. AND MRS. LONGWORTH and Miss Rose Longworth were passengers by the Northumberland on Saturday night returning from a visit to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

PROMINENT MANUFACTURER SPEAKS.

In Vanleek Hill, Ont., no one is better known than Geo. E. Watson. When he says "Catarrhoea is a real cure," depend on it being so. "My wife," he writes "was subject to bad attacks of throat irritation and bronchitis. Many remedies were tried but few proved at all useful. Catarrhoea was different. It seemed to get right at the sore spots and brought relief quickly. We have found Catarrhoea an absolute cure for bronchitis and catarrh." Nothing cures more quickly so get it today, two sizes, 50c and $1.00 at all dealers.
