A GOOD SUGGESTION.—By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels. often called costiveness, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating and drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to impure blood, headache, debility, fevers, etc. A universally successful remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to secure a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Rev. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, N.W.T. will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me."

The Dreaded La Grippe

Following this scourge of humanity come a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphates which is the latest and best combination of anti-consumptive remedies. TAKES 1000 people to buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, at 50 cents a bottle to make up $500. One failure to cure would take the profit from 4000 sales. Its makers profess to cure "cold in the head," and even chronic catarrh, and if they fail they pay $500 for their over-confidence—Not in newspaper words but in hard cash! Think of what confidence it takes to put that in the papers—and mean it. Its makers believe in the remedy. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

Pointers To Advertisers.

HE LEARNED TO ADVERTISE.

I wanted a situation,
Even though wondrous wise,
A year was spent in idleness;
I did not advertise.

I started out in business,
And boomed it to the skies,
But never made a dividend;
I did not advertise.

Then an advertising merchant,
With business in his eyes,
Asked me a simple question,
"Why don't you advertise?"

He told me his experience,
My hopes began to rise
When I saw the brilliant prospect,
If I should advertise.

My ad. went in the papers, and
I found he told no lies.
Business soon was booming, when I
Began to advertise.

I have told my story briefly,
To all I should advise,
If you wish to be successful,
Go in and advertise.

H. L. DAWES.

The odd in advertising is most always good. It is pretty sure to attract attention. But understand me that I do not mean by the odd in advertising, the idiotic, the coarse, or the burlesque in advertising.

Borders in advertising have come in style recently. They are very effective. They are good taste. They serve to make an advertisement distinctively artistic.

But then, what is the use of talking? The final test of the success of an advertisement is the demand it creates for the article advertised.

You cannot expect people to have confidence in what you sell if you have not confidence enough in your goods to advertise them.

In writing advertisements, make the first line either their most pertinent point, or the entering wedge of a most seductive line of reasoning which will lead to that point.

Don't make your first line simply and purely a catch line with all there is after it to make the reader feel as if you had pricked him into reading your advertisement.

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery, I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery,

C. C. HAUN,
Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cumines, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself;

MESSRS. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly,
THOMAS CUMINES,
Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.

The Telephone Co'y OF P. E. ISLAND.

PERSONS using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following Rules:

1st. Speak with your mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the Telephone so as to cover the Ear. just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the Ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
