Queens County Member Urges Technique Change

OTTAWA — A set parliamentary year, with fixed dates for meetings and for adjournments was advocated here by Health Macquarrie, MP for Queens. Mr. Macquarrie is one of a number of MPs who have been pressing for much wider reforms in parliamentary rules and procedures in order to permit the Commons to deal effectively with the nation's business.

MR. MACQUARRIE

"We have to recognize that this now has become a year-round task. No matter how we try to streamline our procedures, a member of the Commons today will find that the whole year must be devoted to his public duties," Mr. Macquarrie says.

In order to get some order into the parliamentary year he advocates that on any year when there is not an election, parliament should meet in January and have a proper break during July and August. He says that Britain has faced up to the same problems by working to a set calendar year so that constituents and members can prepare beforehand for a known and sustained period of time when they could perform the important part of their work in their constituencies.

Reasonable adjournments at other times, such as Easter and Christmas should be provided, he suggests.

"One thing that pains and humiliates me is the dangling of an adjournment before members of the Commons," he says.

Curbs On U.S. Investments Called Of Doubtful Value

NEW YORK (CP) — Strong doubt about the wisdom of U.S. government efforts to curb American foreign investments has been expressed in a study by the National Industrial Conference Board.

The government has said it hopes to improve the international position of the United States by reducing the outflow of long-term investment funds, without losing any of the income from past investments abroad.

However, H. Bruce Palmer, president of the industrial conference board, said in a foreword to the board's statement issued Monday it is doubtful that this policy will work.

"American investment in other countries has become a major impulsion towards higher production both here and abroad, and a powerful determinant of world trade," he said. "It is possible that restraint on its rate may retard not only the world's rate of economic growth, but our own as well."

U.S. exports to Europe rose to $8,600,000,000 in 1964 from $3,000,000,000 in 1960. By comparison, U.S. investment in Europe rose to $12,200,000,000 in 1964 from $1,700,000,000 in 1960.

U.S. investment in Europe still is considerably less than investment in Canada, which currently amounts to about $19,000,000,000.

trial development "came to me and said 'you have been in politics a long time and know of party funds. The money I get will be distributed to the government and the party you lead,'" said this man Moe.

"It was suggested that ordinarily the party in power gets 60 per cent and the opposition party 40 per cent. I will see that you get 50 per cent, I was told."

"I haven't spoken to him since. That's the situation. That's the man this government is dealing with."

CURRENT

He said members of the government voted the same resolution down when Conservative John Diefenbaker was in power but supported it this year.

Premier Shaw said the government supported the resolution as farm organizations want a program of insurance covering farm labor.

"Tommyrot!" said Mr. Matheson. "You are playing politics and that's all that has been done at this session."

ELECTION DATE? Mr. Matheson suggested that the government has May 16 in mind as an election date but said "since I said it, you will likely change the date."

Dealing with the financial position of the province, Mr. Matheson said "the people of this province are not getting a true picture of government's financing."

As an example, he referred to a written question submitted earlier in the session which asked for the amount of money allotted by the Fishermen's Loan Board since April, 1963. He said the answer he got was that between April, 1963, and Dec. 1, 1965, $1,711,027 was loaned.

"I didn't put the latter date on the question," he said. "In January, $7,800,000 was authorized. That wasn't in the answer. It's buried. That's what this government is doing and the people are going to realize this."

Regional School Remains Closed

The Montague Regional High School will remain closed again today due to poor road conditions. School officials expected to be able to resume classes today, but now they hope to be back on Thursday.

The students of MRHS have missed two days already this week, but it is believed that the interruption is not hampering the student work to a great degree or the school's program.

DEVELOPMENT

Mr. Matheson agreed with Agriculture Minister A. B. MacRae that they wait and see how J. J. Greene, the new federal minister of agriculture makes out. Mr. Greene is a lawyer by profession.

SALARY SUGGESTION
Mr. Matheson asked the government to increase the salaries for the leader of the opposition and the Speaker of the House. He compared the $4,500 the leader of the opposition receives here with what is received by people in the same position in other parts of Canada. With the exception of P.E.I. Newfoundland is the lowest with a salary of $9,000. In Quebec the leader of the opposition receives a salary of $32,000.

Mr. Matheson said he intended to introduce legislation regarding a Lord's Day Act for the province, but he could not get any in the House to second the Bill.

"Let us be sensible, let's put something in the statutes which will legalize what we are doing," he said. He was referring to the fact that theatres and rinks operate on Sunday and charge admissions.

Before he finished talking of the subject of a bill to enact Sunday laws he said, "I will present the Bill without a second."

Mr. Matheson ended his speech at ten o'clock last evening in a debate with Premier Shaw and Highways Minister Phillip Matheson over whether P.E.I. could have had a road built from Tignish to Souris under the same terms as the Trans Canada Highway. He claimed they could have and the members of the government claimed he was wrong.

When Mr. Matheson finished at ten his was the last speech in the Throne Speech Debate. The debate began on Tuesday, March 1 when it was moved by Douglas MacGowan (PC 3rd Kings).

question of higher education in the province.

Russell Driscoll (PC - 3rd Kings) speaking on the Throne Speech debate during the sitting of the Legislative Assembly yesterday afternoon asked the government to purchase a portable ice freezing plant so that the open air rinks in the province could operate for longer periods of time during the winter.

Mr. Driscoll said he was watching with interest a piece of legislation that had been introduced in the Nova Scotia regarding the interest rates charged by finance companies.

"There are many people who go to these companies that if they were made aware of the interest they have to pay would not go," he said.

Mr. Driscoll, paying a compliment to the Premier, said he could be called "the Churchill of P.E.I."

Mr. Driscoll received high praise for his speech, the attitude he took in it and for its delivery from A.W. Matheson (L-4th Kings) who followed him in the debate.

LEGALIZED BOOTLEGGING

The government's policy of licensing clubs and hotels is termed as "legalized bootlegging," the government he said was, "trying to drink themselves into prosperity."

"Tourism," said Mr. Acorn, "if handled right can become one of the largest industries in our province." He complained that there has been little done for the eastern end of the province. He stated he heard a recent report that the federal government was establishing a new national park in each of the four Atlantic provinces and he strongly urged the P.E.I. one

AIR MARSHALL RETIRES

OTTAWA (CP) — Defence headquarters has announced the retirement April 4 of Air Vice-Marshal Murray D. Lister, 51, air officer commanding Air Defence Command since August, 1964. A native of Picton, Ont., he was deputy chief of staff, operations, for NORAD at Colorado Springs from 1960 to 1964. Air Commodore A. Chester Bull, 46, of Ottawa, will be appointed acting commander.

Loan Amounts Are Decreased

OTTAWA — There was a decrease in the amount of loans made under the Small Business Loans Act to P.E.I. in the last six months of 1965, finance minister Mitchell Sharp announced recently.

The Island's total for the July to December period was $137,900 compared to $146,600 in the corresponding period of 1964.

Of the 1965 total, $35,100 went to assist manufacturing industries, $7,000 to the wholesale trade, $57,700 to the retail trade and $38,100 to service businesses.

Under the Act, the government may guarantee loans made by chartered banks for a wide range of business improvement purposes to small business enterprises.

A maximum of $25,000 may be lent to a borrower at any one time. Loans must be secured and may be repaid over periods of up to 10 years and a maximum rate of interest of 5 1/2 per cent.

The legislation came into effect in January 1961 and to the end of December last year, 14,050 loans for a total of $127,116,521 were approved in Canada.

Parliament At A Glance

By THE CANADIAN PRESS TUESDAY, March 22, 1966

The minority government survived two Commons non-confidence motions on inflation and living costs during a money supply debate.

A Conservative motion was defeated 121 to 106, a New Democrat motion 209 to 20, and the supply motion was approved.

Finance Minister Sharp announced he will bring down his budget March 29.

Prince Philip arrived for an overnight visit during which he presented awards to 18 teenagers.

The bureau of statistics reported Canada's balance of payments deficit rose to $1,136,000,000 in 1965 from $433,000,000 in 1964.
