A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS. FROM THE SON: "On Cedar St., New York, Oct. 28, 1882, 'Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

Contentment. A story is told of one who went into his garden one morning, and found everything withered and dying. He asked an oak that stood near the gate what the trouble was. He found it was determined to die, because it was not tall and beautiful like the pine. The pine was all out of heart, because it could not bear grapes, like the vine. The vine was going to throw its life away, because it could not stand erect and have as fine fruit as the peach tree. The geranium was fretting because it was not tall and fragrant like the lilac, and so on all through the garden. Coming to a heart's ease, he found its bright face lifted as cheery as ever. Well heart's ease, I'm glad to find one brave little flower in this general discouragement and dying. You don't seem a bit disheartened." "No, I am not of much account, but I thought if you had wanted an oak, or a pine, or a peach tree or a lilac, I knew you wanted a heart's ease, I am determined to be the best little heart's ease that I can."

Boys and girls if you cannot be a Paul or a Silas, if you cannot do great things yet for God, will you not try by doing all the good you can, by being loving and patient and gentle and obedient, to be the very best little heart's ease you can?

Religion is reproached with not being progressive; it makes amends by being imperishable. The enduring element in our humanity is not in the doctrine which we consciously elaborate, but in the faiths, which unconsciously dispose of us, and never slumber but to wake again. What treatise on sin, what philosophy or retribution is as fresh as the fifty first Psalm? What scientific theory has lasted like the Lord's Prayer? It is an evidence of movement that in a library no books become sooner obsolete than books of science. It is no less a mark of stability that poetry and religious literature survive, and even ultimate philosophies seldom die but to arise again. These, and with them the kindred service of devotion, are the expression of aspirations and faiths which forever cry out for interpreters and guides. And in proportion as you carry your appeal to those deepest seats of our nature you not only reach the firmest ground, but touch accordant notes in every heart, so that the response turns out a harmony.—Dr Martineau.

The Rev. Ernest Wilberforce, Bishop of Newcastle, is an eloquent and persistent advocate of total abstinence. Now and then, from a sense of duty, he arrays himself in well worn clothes and goes about incognito among the poor and criminal classes, on tours of observation. On one such occasion he was riding in a third-class railway carriage of which the only occupant was a pitman. The latter, viewing the Bishop's clerical but "seedy" garments, remarked: "Is war't ye're a poor curate, noo travellin' i' the likes o' huz'?" "I once was, my friend," replied the Bishop. "But—" "Oh aye, I see!" cried the other, in all good faith "that wretchee drinkt Aye, aye! Too bad!" The incident—without naming the Bishop—has since formed the topic of a cartoon in Punch.
