MISCELLANEOUS.

PET NAMES.

When daytime cares and toils are past,
And busy feet have ceased to roam,
And once again we meet at last
Around the dear old hearth at home;
We throw aside all forms and shams
For merrie chats and fireside games,
And drop the "Misters" and the "Ma'ams"
For our familiar household names.

Here are no cold contemptuous eyes,
No social mask is needed here,
Where heart meets heart without disguise,
And all are welcome, all are dear.
One name, one home, one love-tie sweet,
One faith below, one heaven above us:
What mutual rapture thus to meet
With those we love, and those who love us!

"Adolphus," with his whiskers fine,
Moustache, and other harmless folly,
Now quite forgets to bounce and shine,
And settles down to homely "Dolly;"
Instead of grand "Miss Charlotte," lo!
Sweet "Lotty" sits behind the hob,
And "Flora" is transformed to "Flo,"
And Robert shortened into "Bob."

Oft in our inmost hearts is nurst
Some pet name, playfully conferred,
That lisp'd by baby's lips at first
Has grown into a "household word";
A word that heard in after-years—
Long years of loneliness and pain—
Calls up long-buried joys and tears,
And brings the old home back again.

Lov'd names! we hold them very dear—
The tender violets of life's flowers—
So little to a stranger ear,
So very, very dear to ours;
For are they not our very own,
To share our joys, our griefs, our blames,
Those few lov'd ones who still are known
By old familiar household names?

MAYPOLES.

We do not believe in the "good old times," but we do believe in good old Maypoles; in other words, we hold that the old times were not good, but that there were some good things in them. Without going back to the days when the people, led by their priests, marched in procession on the morning of the 1st of May to some neighboring wood, and returned all jubilant with their pole decorated with flowers and ribbons—to those when bluff King Hal assembled his Court on May-day at Shooter's hill, and Royal Bess presided at the May games in Greenwich-park, we may safely affirm that when "the tall Maypole," of which Pope speaks, "o'er looked the Strand," and the people danced around it to the disgust of all godly Puritans, their life was on the whole far fuller of hardship and privation than that of the lower orders in our own time. England was then "Merrie England" if you will, yet boisterous merriment is too often only the reaction of sullenness and gloom. The wages of the peasant was not more than half what they are now, while the price of most of the necessaries of life was more than double. Meat was cheaper than at present, yet so dear that hundreds of thousands of families scarcely ever tasted it. Yeomen and shopkeepers ate bread inferior to what is now given to the inmates of a work-house, the mass of the population lived on barley, oats, rye, and the poor-rate in the reign of Charles II. was little less than half the entire revenue. Squatters and trespassers abounded, markets were far distant, streets were miserably paved and lighted, surgeons were little better than blacksmiths, physicians simply charlatans—crowded cities were far less wholesome than now, and the duration of human life was much shorter.

Such were the material discomfort of the morris-dancers; their moral and intellectual wants were equally great. Pity and mercy were rare; well-born masters and high dames beat their servants, and the ferule was the chief instrument of instruction. Idiots and madmen were scourged in Bedlam, as if insanity were a crime; husbands claimed the right to whip their wives; the wretched man in the pillory was assailed with a shower of brickbats; and crowds pressed on the hangman to urge him to give it well to the fellow who was tied to the cart's tail. Light offences were punished with barbarous penalties; and the prisons, full of stench and pestilence, were hells on earth. Noblemen then were destitute of comforts of which a respectable artisan would not be deprived; and 'men,' as Macaulay says, 'died faster in the lanes of our towns than they now die on the coast of Guinea.' Yet even these looked back on a time when civilization was at a lower ebb, and boasted of the progress they had made since the Maypole was first erected in the Strand in 1634. Many changes and chances befel it, for it was an emblem of national mirth. It stood on the site of the present church of St. Clement, and when Cromwell came to power, down it fell as 'Satan's Flagstaff.' On the first May-day after the Restoration it rose again 134 feet high with shouts and songs of gladness. The Duke of York was Lord High Admiral, and he, being nowise inclined to Puritanism, lent twelve seamen to assist in raising it. Multitudes went before it from Scotland yard; flags were flying, drums throbbing, and music not the most harmonious filled the air. The two halves were joined with iron bands, and a gilt crown and vane were placed on the top. Four hours it took to raise it with tackle and pulleys, and then the purple-scarfed morris-dancers tripped round it with a will to the sound of pipe and tabor, while children laughed and the aged clapped their hands, as if the new May-pole were the harbinger of plenty and peace. There it stood when the dancing and revelry were done; and if the flowers and garlands that adorned it withered, its three great lanterns, in honor of the three admirals, ceased not to glimmer through the dark night.

Disused and decaying, it was pulled down in 1713, and a new one surmounted with gilt balls and a weathercock took its place, but the spirit of the people was changing; the dancers' feet chased the glowing hours less gaily; merry England was becoming moody; and in 1718 the May-pole was given to Sir Isace Newton as a stand for his large French telescope. The age of science and facts was dawning; dreams and dances were failing with the morning light. But the Maypole, though lost to the Strand, still continued to gladden the towns and villages of England, and when the last eve of April closed, many a fair maiden bid her mother wake and call her early on the morrow, which to her—the Queen o' May—was to be the maddest, merriest day of all the glad New-year. Many a Robin from the bridge took his place among the dancers shyly, and hopped heavily till his clownish heart leaped into his mouth, and Effie or Kate promised, beneath the hazel-tree, to be his bride. Thus the Maypole became the trysting-place, and the symbol of all that is sweet, floral and festive. At last, in the country as in the town, May-day lost its festal character, and no longer broke the dull circle of the year with dance and song, with garlands of honey-suckle and marigold. Manly sports and maidenly pastimes vanished from the village green. Harpers and fiddlers hung up their instruments and heard the chords snap one after another for want of use. A cheerless population overspread the land. No reapers sang in the corn-field; no harvest-home choruses drowned the noise of the creaking wain. If gaiety was sought, it was at the poisoned fountain of fermented liquor; and the beer-house and gin-place increased on the whole the gloom which for a moment they dispelled.

A Bride Burned to Death.—A very distressing event, which formed the subject of an inquiry before the East Riding coroner, has occurred at Norton, Maltone. From the evidence given at the inquest it appeared that a young person named Annie Elizabeth Marshall, who had been house-keeper in her brother's house in Rosedale, North Riding, had come from there a few days ago to Norton for the purpose of being married. She and her lover, it seems, had set up one night, and on the following evening the husband elect again remained with his sweetheart after the family had gone to bed. It seems, however, that both had fallen asleep, and that a stick on the fire had fallen off and ignited the dress (somewhat ample) of the young girl. The young man on awaking found his intended wife in flames, in striving to subdue which he was severely burnt. The poor girl was most fearfully burnt, especially about the head, and lingered in torture till Saturday morning when death ensued. Verdict, died from exhaustion caused by accidental burning.

[Extracts from Newspapers.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2567, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, "the Queen Insurance Company," which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained, and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies to their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."

THE INFALLIBLE REMEDY.

Holloway's Ointment.

Contracted or Stiff Joints.

All the Medicines in the London dispensaries would barely benefit, much less cure, any chronic cases of contracted or stiff joints; whereas if this invaluable Ointment be effectually rubbed into such parts twice a day, the effects will be immense. Paralytic patients even can derive advantages from this fine remedy when other means fail.

Scorbutic Humors, Scald Heads and Skin Diseases.

Scorbutic humors arise from an impure state of the blood, and in most cases the liver and stomach are the organs at fault. The Pills will speedily restore these to a healthy action; while the Ointment, if well rubbed in at least twice a day, will soon cure any case of skin disease. Soldiers, sailors and miners use this famous Ointment in all parts of the world.

Disorders of the Kidneys, Stone and Gravel.

In any of the above complaints more benefit may be derived in twenty-four hours by adopting the following simple means than is frequently brought about in six months by any other treatment. In bad cases, if the Ointment be rubbed into the small of the back over the region of the kidneys, it will quickly penetrate, and in most instances give immediate relief. Six or eight of the Pills should be taken nightly according to circumstances.

Diptheria, Sore Throats, &c.

These maladies are of so serious and dangerous a nature that the Ointment would not be recommended unless the Proprietor was sure of its effect It will cure, when every other means have failed, if applied immediately, and not delayed until the patient is beyond recovery. It is a sovereign remedy for sore throats. Settled coughs or wheezing will be promptly removed by rubbing in this unguent. Mothers should rub it into the chest of their infants whenever there is any hoarseness, tightness, or other affection of breathing.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts—Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers.

It is surprising how quicky a sore, ulcer or wound deprives the body of strength, and unfits it for the duties of life; but it is no less wonderful to watch the effect of Holloway's Healing Ointment, when it is used according to the printed directions, and assisted by appropriate doses of the Pills. The pain, inflammation, and other morbid manifestations soon disappear from the affected part, and health and strength return. This treatment creates sound flesh, and therefore makes its cures complete.

Gout and Rheumatism

Will be cured with the greatest certainty if large quantities of the Ointment be well worked into the complaining parts. This treatment must be perseveringly followed for some time, and duly assisted by powerful doses of Holloway's Pills. The essence of these diseases lies in the blood, which has floating through each vessel the pain-giving poison which vitiates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with, and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty and rheumatic maladies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Soft)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scald
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions		Sore Throats
Bite of Moschetoes and Sand Flies	Elephantiasis	Skin Diseases
	Fistulas	Scurvy
	Gout	Sore Heads
Coco-bay	Glandular Swellings	Tumours
Chiego-foot		Ulcers
Chilblains	Lumbago	Wounds
Chapped Hands	Piles	Yaws

JUDSON'S
MOUNTAIN HERB
PILLS.

The Manochan or Great Medicine.

THESE PILLS have now been thoroughly tested and have maintained the highest character everywhere; they have the wonderful power of restoring to health persons suffering under all diseases arising from

IMPURE BLOOD,

and as the Blood is the life when pure, so it is when corrupt the source of nine-tenths of the diseases which afflict mankind.

The following are among the distressing variety of diseases in which the Pills are invaluable:

Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints—General Debility, Loss of Appetite and Diseases of Females,—the Medicine has been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of this most remarkable Medicine. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish as a natural consequence of its cure.

Costiveness, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence: all violent purges leaves the bowels costive within two days.

Fevers, of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

Scurvy, Ulcers and Inveterate Sores, by the perfect purity which this Medicine gives to the blood and all the humors.

Scorbutic Eruptions and bad complexions, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

Mercurial Diseases—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find this medicine a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight the very interesting account it contains of the "Great Medicine" of the Aztecs.

OBSERVE—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 Pills, and retailed at 25 cents per box. All genuine, have the signature of B. L. Judson & Co. on each box.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government, and the Chiefs of the Faculte de France.

THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES. This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of taste, odour, and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion Each package contains full instructions for every case.

THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only removes gonnorhœ, gleet and all discharges, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION, No. 2, for syphilis, disease of the bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly disappears: and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.

THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications; and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s, and 33s per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s are saved; and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.

Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners have graciously permitted the Government stamp, bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.

Agents for England, Thomas & Co, 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane, London; Raimes & Co, Liverpool; Apothecaries Comp, Glasgow; Ferris & Co, Bristol; Cornish & Co., Plymouth; Rowe, Devenport; Randall & Co., Southampton; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

The Cause and Cure of Premature Decline.

Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicines, or sent post free, secure from observations direct from the Author, for 2s 6d.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W De Roos, M. D, &c, of the Ecole de Medicine, Paris.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES.

"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by Walter De Roos, M. D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice. The author is a man of most enlarged experience." —North of England Teegraph, June 29th, 1861.

"To those who contemplate marriage its perusal is especially recommended.—Bap. Mag.——"The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late."—Politician——"Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so."—Med. Review——"It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints."—Med. Gaz.———"Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost."—Scalpel.

From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous Institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice, in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases; and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness, whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.

Foreign Residents can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their cases, with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ or LIFE DROPS; Protected by Royal Letter Patent of England; Seals of the Faculte de France; Royal College of Prussia, &c, have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa, langour, lassitude, depression of spirits, irritability, anger, excitement, needless fear, distaste and incapacity for society, study or business: indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, noises in the head, impotency, impediments to marriage, &c. This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, thus speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.

As these complaints if neglected become chronic or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicines, to make fair trial of a remedy, which concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail, and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price, 11s, and four times the quantity at 33s per bottle. The £5 packages containing twelve 11s quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s is effected, will be sent from 25, Bedford Place, only on receipt of the amount per draft on a London house or otherwise.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy Remedy for the above dangerous complaints Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer over the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s 9d., 4s 6d., 11s, and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind, is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.

Many there are, who from natural diffidence, or fear of discovery, would silently bear their afflictions rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the above remedies the sufferer may without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

Sold wholesale by Barclay & Son, 95 Farringdon street, London; Agents in North America—Langley & Johnson, Hollis-street, Halifax, Nova Scotia; W. R. Watson, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island; J. Ward, Esq., News Office, Sydney, Cape Breton; E. H. Parker, (late Palmer & Co) Kingston, Canada West: Strickland & Co., Mobile; M. F. Decouge and Edward Guillot, New Orleans; Fongera, New York; Musson & Co., Quebec; C. A. & J Langley, Yates Street, San Francisco; Leportier, Mexico; Mr. McMurdo, Druggist, and J. McCoubrey, Esq., St. John's, Newfoundland; Thomas Walker & Sons, St. John, New Brunswick; Lyman & Co, Toronto; Lyman & Co., Savage & Co., Montreal; of whom also may be had "THE MEDICAL ADVISER," or should difficulty arise in procuring any of the above, enclose the amount by draft or otherwise, to 25 Bedford Place, Bloomsbury Square, London, W. C, and they will be sent securely packed per return.

CAUTION.—Sufferers should guard against the recommendation of useless imitations by dishonest vendors, who thereby obtain a larger profit. The genuine have the words "Walter De Roos, London," printed in white letters on the Government Stamp, by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, to imitate which is felony.

The Most Wonderful Pills in the World.

ARE DR. DE ROOS' PILULÆ VITÆ or LIFE PILLS. All sufferers from general nervousness, debility, low spirits, sleeplessness, harrassing dreams, unnecessary fears, mental irritability, failure of the mental and bodily powers, weakness of the nerves, noises in the head, giddiness, indigestion, rheumatism, pains in the back, and other symptoms of chronic disease, will hail with joy the discovery of Dr. De Roos' Life Pills, that speedily and almost magically remove pain and disease of whatsoever nature, restore cheerfulness of spirit and vigor to the mind, and strengthens all the organs on which health and life depend. They do not contain a particle of mercury, but are purely vegetable. They act mildly on the bowels, without pain or griping, impart strength to the stomach, promote a healthy action of the liver, thus preventing, or when when present curing the jaundice and dropsy, clearing the skin, removing sallowness and pimples, purifying the blood, and marvellously invigorating the whole system For elderly people or when an occasional aperient is required, nothing can be better adapted. Owing to the great and increasing demand for these pills, and in order to protect the public from fraudulent imitations, Her Majesty's Commissioners have graciously permitted the proprietor to have his name "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," impressed upon the government stamp affixed to each box Sold by all medicine vendors in the world; price 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., and 33s. per box.

"As a Family Pill, they are invaluable."—Dundee Times. "Persons of full habit should never be without them."—Surrey Telegraph. "For Females they are almost a necessity."—Ladies' Journal. "To Mothers—For children of all ages they are the simplest and best medicine that can be given."—Vide Dr. Smith's Report.
