RESPECTFULLY.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce writes, under date of the 11th March, that the Committee on Commerce in the House of Representatives has completed the report on the proposed improvements of the Rivers and Harbours, and that the Committee would next take up the subject of Light Houses...

FOR HAZARD'S GAZETTE. To the Honorable Sir George Pope, a Member of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and Colonial Treasurer of Prince Edward Island.

Upon different occasions, during the late Session of the Legislature, you thought good to have the printer of the Land in this Colony, as also certain Editors of the Press, with a view to the improvement of the Rivers and Harbours, and that the Committee would next take up the subject of Light Houses...

THE former gentleman you have pronounced to be no better than a Robber, and the latter you have pronounced to be a vulgar and grovelling Hireling.

If you sit on your position as a public character, and your printer, as a Member of the Legislature, and your Hireling, you thus to expose the character of others by a similar rule you invite public censure to deal with your own conduct.
