Hughes-Quinn Wedding

All Saints Church, Cardigan, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season on Tuesday, September 19th, 1950, at 5 A.M., when Evelyn Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Quinn, Cardigan, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Edwin Louis Hughes, son of Mrs. Hughes and the late John T. Hughes of Corran Ban Parish, Bedford.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by her girl friends. Special seats were prepared for invited guests who were ushered to their places by Wm. Quinn brother of the bride. The bride, given in marriage by her father was a vision of loveliness in her floor length gown of white slipper satin with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves extending over her hands in lily points, full skirt and finger tip veil held in place by a halo of embroidered net and seed pearls; her only ornament was a single strand of pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of gladioli and maiden hair fern, fastened with a white satin bow. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Earle McDonald, organist.

Miss Marie Quinn was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a dress of pink taffeta with matching head dress and mittens and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Mr. Walter Hughes was his brother's groomsmen.

Rev. Harold Croken performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The choir rendered beautiful hymns.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of royal blue crepe with navy accessories and corsage of snapdragons. Mrs. Hughes, mother of the groom wore a dress of navy crepe with matching accessories and corsage of mixed pansies.

During the signing of the register appropriate music was played by Mrs. Earle McDonald. After the ceremony the happy couple left the church amid showers of confetti for the bride's home where breakfast was served to about thirty guests. The bride's table was centered by a three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom under an arch of silver bows and orange blossoms. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Henry McDonald and fittingly responded to by the groom.

After breakfast a few hours dancing was enjoyed by all. Violin music being furnished by Messrs. Henry McDonald and Ira McKillop accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cosmas Sigworth.

Early in the afternoon the wedding party motored to Charlottetown where photos were taken, after which the happy couple left by motor to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Cape Breton, returning via the Cabot Trail. On traveling the bride wore a suit of dove grey with navy accessories.

On return a reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's mother where a number of invited guests sat down to a well laden table centered by a beautiful wedding cake and partook of a sumptuous meal.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. A few enjoyable hours were spent in music and social entertainment after which all departed wishing the newly weds the best of everything for life.

The bride who prior to her marriage was a Laboratory Technician at the Provincial Agricultural Laboratory, Charlottetown, was surprised on two occasions by miscellaneous showers at which she received a number of nice gifts, one by her girl friends in Charlottetown, the other by friends and neighbours in Cardigan.

The groom is a valued employee of the P. E. Island Railway. For the summer months he has been employed at the National Park, Dalvey, where upon leaving work prior to his marriage he was presented with a lovely floor lamp from his fellow workers. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will reside at 66 Highland Ave., Charlottetown, where they will be happy to welcome friends and relatives.

Pritchard-Forbes Wedding

An early Fall wedding was solemnized recently in St. Stephen's College Chapel, Edmonton, Alberta, when Miss Margaret Elaine Forbes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Forbes of Drumheller, Alberta, became the bride of James Malcolm Pritchard, youngest son of Mrs. J. M. Pritchard, and the late Rev. Dr. J. M. Pritchard of Edmonton. Rev. A. G. S. Edworthy of Drumheller performed the wedding ceremony, before an altar banked with baskets of gladioli and fern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle length gown of pale grey chantilly lace over orchid taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and Elizabethan collar, short cuffed sleeves and a full ballerina skirt. She carried a bride's bouquet of roses catching her matching lace veil. Shoes and gloves in orchid shade completed her ensemble and she wore an amethyst necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Grace Forbes was her cousin's only attendant and wore a gown of yellow taffeta, similar in make to the bride's, with matching accessories. Her bouquet was a Colonial arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. Blake Pritchard, and Mr. J. Allison Forbes, brother of the bride, who ushered the guests to their places, which were marked with Colonial sprigs of sweet peas. Miss Bertha Hey of Calgary, played the wedding music.

Following the wedding rites, a reception was held at the MacDonal Hotel, where the bridal couple were assisted in receiving by their parents and attendants. Rev. W. H. Moss of Olds, Alberta, proposed the toast to the bride and congratulatory telegrams were read by Mr. Blake Pritchard.

For a honeymoon trip to the Rockies, the bride donned a grey imported wool suit and matching hat, complimented by navy and grey accessories and a corsage of red roses. She carried a cherry red shirley coat.

Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard are graduates of the University of Alberta and on return will make their home in Edmonton, where the bridegroom will continue his law study at the University. The parents of the bride were born in Prince Edward Island.—S.

Zanin-MacEwen Wedding

On October 5th at English Presbyterian Church, New City, N. Y., a wedding of local interest took place, when Elizabeth Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacEwen of Morell and Mrs. Zanin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Zanin of Toronto.

Rev. A. J. G. Murchison was the officiating clergyman. The couple were unattended.

The bride was formerly employed as librarian at the Aluminum Laboratories Ltd., Avida, Quebec. The groom is employed as spectroscopist with Ledoux and Company of New York City.

Following a brief honeymoon the couple will reside in New York City.

Bride And Groom Will Reside In Saint John

An interesting wedding took place on Saturday last in Exmouth Street United Church when Rev. W. E. Aitken, the minister, united in marriage Miss Annie Geraldine Weeds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Weeds and Arthur Ernest Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith both of Saint John.

The church was decorated with baskets of pastel gladioli and snapdragons, and made a fitting background for the ceremony. Mrs. Katherine Monteith was the organist and Mrs. Reid Storey and Miss Peggy Ewart were the soloists.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Mildred Weeds as maid of honor and by Miss Constance Smith, sister of the groom as bridesmaid. Janet MacEachern, cousin of the bride was the flower girl. The groomsmen were Harold Taylor, and the ushers were John Stears and Donald Thompson.

The bride wore white satin with a hooped skirt. The neckline was outlined with Chantilly lace. Her Mary Stuart model head dress was of satin and lace, and her illusion veil was finger length. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom and carried American Beauty roses.

Miss Mildred Weeds' gown was of fuchsia taffeta and point d'esprit. The full skirt had a hip bustle; the bodice was strapless and her shoulders were covered with a brief cape of matching taffeta. Her head dress was a bonnet and she wore matching armlets and carried white gladioli. Miss Constance Smith wore a gown of orchid taffeta. The bodice was outlined with a double fold. The skirt was gathered and had an overskirt of point d'esprit. Her head dress was a Mary Stuart model; she wore matching armlets and carried white gladioli.

Miss Janet MacEachern wore a floor length frock of milk green taffeta with V neckline outlined in point d'esprit and matching pique bonnet. She also carried gladioli.

Mrs. Weeds, mother of the bride wore navy blue crepe, and matching accessories and corsage of Better Time roses. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom wore Royal blue crepe with silver trim and grey accessories. Her corsage was of roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor which was decorated with summer flowers. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Aitken and the bridegroom responded. Presiding over the tea-cups were Miss Hilda Weeds aunt of the bride, and Miss Hazel Smith.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a wedding trip to Portland and Bangor, Me., and on their return will reside at 34 Park Street Extension. For traveling the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit and black accessories. Her corsage was of Better Time roses.

The bride until recently has been a technologist in the laboratory of Lanesboro Hospital. The groom is a member of the office staff of Civic Hydro.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCormack, Woodstock; Miss Shirley Price, Hampton; Mrs. Olive MacEachern and daughter Janet, Mrs. Janet Shields, Miss Avis Shields, Bangor, Me.; Mrs. Stella Snow, William Bell, South Berwick, Me.; Mrs. E. M. MacDonald, Farmington, Me.; Mrs. George Steves, Portland, Me.; Mrs. John Phillips, Coles Island; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Totten, Mrs. E. J. Girvan, Fredericton, and Mrs. E. Simpson, North Rustico, P. E. I.

The bride is well-known in Prince Edward Island where she spent her summers as a child. Her mother was formerly Miss Annie M. Biggar of this Island Province.
