CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

Your right hand opponent deals and bids Three Hearts, both sides vulnerable. What would you now bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠AQJ94 ♥5 ♦AQ6 ♣KQ72
2. ♠AJ5 ♥K4 ♦AKQ962 ♣K3
3. ♠AKJ983 ♥8 ♦AQ84 ♣KQ
4. ♠AK72 ♥— ♦KQ63 ♣AQJ85
5. ♠6 ♥KQ97 ♦J852 ♣AK74

1. Double. There are all kinds of methods used to deal with preemptive bids by the opponents, but the most common one, and probably the best, is to treat the double as a request for partner to bid. This does not mean that partner cannot pass if his hand is suitable for defense. It means only that the doubler intends his bid primarily for takeout.

Certainly, in this case, you would like partner to respond to the double with his best suit. The double of a three-bid naturally shows a good hand, since partner, in responding, is compelled to undertake at least a nine-trick contract.

2. Three notrump. This is a natural bid showing willingness to play at three notrump, which the hand certainly warrents. It would be wrong to overcall in diamonds and by-pass what is likely to be the best contract. The same can be said of a double of three hearts. Partner is not barred from bidding over three notrump, if his hand calls for that action, but he does so on his own responsibility.

3. Four spades. You can't very well bid less with a hand of this magnitude. There is no guarantee of making four spades, of course, but it would be somewhat timid to do less. There is such a thing as playing them too close to the vest.

4. Four hearts. The best way of showing the power of this hand is to cuebid the adverse suit. Naturally, such a bid is highly invitational to a slam, since partner is forced to contract for eleven tricks—possibly against his will— if his longest suit is diamonds or clubs.

The cuebid is reserved for huge hands of this sort. Partner doesn't need much excuse to bid a slam in response. Thus, he would be justified in bidding six diamonds with no more than: ♠J84 ♥96 ♦AJ10852 ♣103

5. Pass. One might conceivably feel the urge to double three hearts for business, but remember that against preemptive bids you can't have it both ways. A double would be for takeout, as previously indicated, and you therefore can't afford to double for fear partner might respond with three or four spades.

The best thing to do is pass and hope the opponents go further, or, failing that, that partner will act on his own if your left-hand opponent passes.

Newly-Married Airman Killed

LITTLE ROCK, Ark (AP)— A United States airman who was married Monday was killed Tuesday night when he walked into a turning propeller while on a Strategic Air Command mission in Labrador, Little Rock Air Force Base officials reported Wednesday.

The victim, Airman Ralph L. Denny, 21, stationed at Little Rock, was married to the former Shirley Ann Kuykendall of North Little Rock.

His SAC plane took off at 5 p.m. Monday, shortly after the ceremony, for Goose Bay, Labrador, on a training flight.

Denny was performing his regular duties as an aircraft mechanic at the Goose Bay base at the time of the accident, the air force said.

The engine of the KC - 97 tanker plane on which he was a crew member had been shut down but the propeller was still rotating.

PLAN NUCLEAR TEST

PARIS (Reuters) — France plans an underground nuclear test next Sunday in the Hoggar Mountains of the Sahara, usually well informed sources said Friday. The newspaper Le Monde says it is understood the test will be Frances eighth.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
