

Souris West Versus Rum.

In fam'd Souris West a great turmoil arose And with fury is raging this minute, But I know, my dear friends, you'd never suppose That Dick was the man to begin it.

"Going Home."

There isn't a day in the year but what one can see just such a parting as recently took place at a city terminus. Man and wife had come down to the train which was to bear her to her mother's.

From the Farmer's Standpoint.

To the Editor of the Examiner. SIR:—Now that the opposition papers have all said their worst against the elevation of J. S. Carvell, Esq., to the Senate of Canada—and that they have signally failed to make out even one reasonable objection against the appointment, and that the New Era editor, as might be expected, has fairly exhausted his stock in trade of useless vituperation against Senator Carvell; and last, but not least, the editor of the Herald joins issue, and would make it appear that the people—I mean the farmers of this Province—are opposed; but, happily, such is not the case.

The writer has made it a study to know the minds of the people in King's County on this matter, and is pleased to learn that none of the farmers complain—but the reverse; and many of them give the above reasons for the faith within them.

Yours, &c., FARMER.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite clear of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
