EMO Hdqtrs. May Cost Million, Is Indication

It was estimated by a federal government official yesterday that the cost of converting the basement of the Dominion Building into an Emergency Measures Organization headquarters for the province would cost an estimated $1,000,000 or "possibly more."

There has been no official announcement, which is expected to come from Ottawa, that the Dominion Building has been chosen as the site from which federal government personnel would carry on their duties in a fallout-proof shelter in the event of nuclear war. For several months, however, at least three federal properties in the Charlottetown area have been under consideration as the EMO headquarters.

Activity at the Dominion Building has given rise to speculation that the building has been chosen to house the emergency headquarters. Tenders have been called for the drilling of a well, possibly to provide emergency water supplies; several departments have been asked to vacate, and it has been indicated that the building's heating system will be converted to use oil instead of coal.

Most Canadian provinces now have, or are constructing, a federal emergency headquarters. In Nova Scotia a $2,000,000 headquarters is under construction at Debert.

When the minority stockholders syndicate purchased the 46 per cent, or 2,466 shares, Dec. 15, 1961, the price was estimated at about $3,500,000.

Members from across the Dominion will be in attendance for this national annual meeting.

The following reports, as well as others, will be given, war memorial scholarships and bursaries; services at home and abroad; education; immigration and citizenship; Commonwealth relations; Empire and world affairs.

The announcement of the elected national officers will be released May 30, and the elected national councillors and conveners, May 31.

At the request of Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McGuigan, a further remand, until May 11, for the opening of the preliminary hearing of Milton Donette, Charlottetown, charged with rape, was given by Magistrate A.J. Haslam in city police court yesterday.

On the request of defence counsel John J. Holmes, the accused was granted bail in the amount of $1,000 and two sureties of $1,000 each.

REMANDED WITHOUT PLEA
On the charge of uttering a forged document, Dewar Lloyd MacDonald, Covehead, was remanded without election or plea until May 8. On that date the election will be taken and a date set for hearing.

MacDonald is charged with uttering a forged document, a cheque on the Canadian Bank of Commerce, in the amount of $250, payable to John Smith. Counsel for the defence is John P. Nicholson, while the case for the crown is being conducted by Mr. McGuigan, assisted by Alan K. Scales.

By consent of Mr. Nicholson, defence counsel, and Chief of Police C.W. MacArthur, the case of Milton Ernest Benoit, Charlottetown, charged with assaulting Adrian Bagliole causing actual bodily harm, was further remanded until May 18.

FALSE PRETENCES
On the charge of obtaining money by false pretences, passing a worthless cheque in the amount of $20.15 at the Charlottetown store of Holman's of P.E.I., Murray A. MacLean, Souris, was remanded until May 7. Mr. Nicholson is also defence counsel in this case.

Convicted of speeding at 34 m.p.h. north on Elm Ave., Golden Dollar, Springvale, was fined $10 and costs or five days in jail. A similar penalty was meted out to another accused for failing to stop for a flashing red light. Failure to stop at a "stop" sign resulted in another accused being fined $5 and costs or two days.

A lone drunk and incapable was committed to Queens County jail for 20 days on a previously suspended commitment.

CHICAGO (AP) - An 11-man Chicago group Friday sold its 46-per cent Chicago White Sox holdings to the majority stockholder, Arthur C. Allyn, for an undisclosed sum.

When the minority stockholders syndicate purchased the 46 per cent, or 2,466 shares, Dec. 15, 1961, the price was estimated at about $3,500,000.

Cpl. Wakelin was traveling east on Euston Street last evening about 7:20 on a police motorcycle, when a car ahead of him suddenly made a left turn into the Euston Street service station, and Corporal Wakelin crashed into the side of the car. Driver of the vehicle was Gregory Lewis, Douglas Street, Charlottetown. Damage to both the car and police motorcycle was estimated at less than $100.

Cpl. Wakelin was on his way to investigate a grass fire on Dunkirk Street, near Spring Park School, when the accident occurred. The grass fire was easily extinguished by city firemen, who answered the call.
