

Millar-Cairns Wedding

A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, Nov. 10th at 6.30 p.m. in the North Bedeque United Church when Rev. Kenneth Campbell united in marriage Miss Ida Helen Cairns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Cairns, Freetown, and Mr. Vernon Lloyd Millar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stirling S. Millar of Kelvin Grove.

The church was beautifully decorated by friends of the bride with posied ferns and plants, while the guest pews were marked with satin ribbons and nosegays of pink flowers.

The Wedding March was played by Miss Mary Cairns of Freetown. Mr. Thomas Hall, B.Sc., teacher in Summerside Academy, was guest soloist and during the signing of the register sang "Because". The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Amy Cairns as maid of honour. Her bridesmaid was another sister, Miss Louise Cairns.

The groomsmen was Mr. Edgar Millar, a brother of the groom, and the ushers were William Cairns, brother of the bride, and Ewing Millar, brother of the groom.

Adding to the attractiveness of the wedding party was the little flower girl, Miss Astrid Millar, sister of the groom. The little girl preceded the bride into the church and threw flowers in her path.

The bride was very charming in her floor-length wedding gown of Chantilly lace over white satin. The dress featured a fitted bodice, small covered buttons to the waist, full skirt, lily point sleeves and a Peter Pan collar encrusted with pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of white satin faced with matching Chantilly lace and encrusted with seed pearls. Pearls forming delicate heart shaped patterns were embedded in many places over the beautiful veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses with a cascade of ribbon and buds.

The bridesmaid was attractive in a pale green floor-length taffeta gown, fitted bodice with covered buttons to the waist, nylon yoke and overskirt. She wore matching headress and mitts and carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses.

The charming flower girl wore a floor-length yellow taffeta dress with full skirt, fitted bodice and puffed sleeves. She wore matching headress and carried a basket of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother was attired in navy crepe with gray velour

Alberton Ladies Aid Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Alberton United Church was held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, November 20th, with the vice-president, Mrs. George Ramsay in the chair. The worship service had for its theme, "Let Your Light Shine" and was conducted by Mrs. A. R. Wallis. It was reported that a new mattress and some linoleum had been purchased for the parsonage.

The following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, Mrs. Herbert Matthews; first vice-president, Mrs. George Ramsay; second vice-president, Mrs. Fred Leard; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Reginald Travers. A parsonage committee was also named.

The next meeting will not be held until January and will be at the home of Mrs. George Ramsay with Mrs. James Hodgson leading the worship and Mrs. Fred Leard and Mrs. John H. Wells on the church committee.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. A. R. Wallis and Mrs. Charles Johnston.

hat and her corsage was red roses and ferns.

Following the ceremony a reception dinner for seventy guests was held at Birch Hill Tourist Home where the bride's table with its attractive arrangement of autumn flowers and lighted tapers was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After dinner, Rev. Kenneth Campbell read a telegram of best wishes and congratulations to the bride and groom from Miss Winifred Cairns, B.A., sister of the bride, teacher in Alma United Church College, St. Thomas, Ontario, who was unable to be present at the wedding.

The bridal party and guests then returned to Willscott Farm, Freetown, home of the bride, where a very pleasant social evening was spent and many good wishes for future happiness tendered the bridal couple. Piano music and a hearty sing-song were much enjoyed. A large number of charivariers called to offer their best wishes and congratulations. During the evening Mr. William Moase of the Air Force, cousin of the bride, who was very seriously hurt in a car accident last July and is still in Queen Mary's Veterans' Hospital, Montreal, telephoned his best wishes to the bride and groom.

The happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip to Moncton and other Maritime points. The bride's travelling costume consisted of a plum coat with hat to match and navy accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses and ferns.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Millar will reside in Kelvin Grove where the groom is a prosperous young farmer and the bride is the popular school teacher.

Prior to her marriage the bride was guest of honor at a large miscellaneous shower when neighbors, friends and relatives gathered at her home and presented her with many beautiful and useful gifts.

Double Celebration At Duvar

An event of special interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Peters of Duvar on November 14th, when they celebrated their fortieth anniversary coupled with the wedding of their daughter Eva to Joseph Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Richard of Howlan.

The marriage was performed by Rev. Father Rooney at St. Anthony's Church. The bride and groom were joined in Holy Communion by father and mother of the bride and mother of the groom, Mrs. Hector Richard, the bridesmaid Ann Marie Richard, sister of the groom, and Roger Peters, groomsmen, brother of the bride.

Appropriate hymns were sung by Miss Ethel Finnan, while Oliver Peters, father of the bride, presided at the organ. He also played the "Wedding March".

The bride was attractively attired in a white floor-length satin dress with white finger tip veil and carried a pearl rosary and wore a single strand of pearls with earrings to match, gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was dressed in a floor-length gown of pale blue taffeta and carried carnations.

After the church ceremony all journeyed to the home of the bride where a large number of relatives and friends were gathered. They were served a goose dinner, after which the afternoon was spent in music and singing and very appropriate remarks were made by the host, Mr. Peters. He did not forget to share some of the celebration with Rev. Father Rooney, who was present and whose birthday fell on that day.

Complimentary remarks were made by the parish priest, Mr. Gilbert Gaudet, and Mr. Don Campbell, M.L.A.

The host and hostess received many lovely gifts, while the bride and groom also received many useful gifts. At five o'clock the celebration moved to the home of Mr. Hector Richard where a sumptuous supper was served by Mrs. Richard and the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richard will reside in Howlan where Mr. Richard is employed with his father in lumber business.
