IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Wm. Campbell MacDonald, who passed away April 8th, 1950.

It's lonely here without her, And sad the weary way, For life has never been the same Since she was called away.

More and more each day we miss her, Some may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow Lies within our hearts concealed. Ever remembered by daughters Melissa, Eva and Peggy.

Card Of Thanks

Noted Lecturer To Visit Charlottetown

St. Dunstan's College announces that Mr. Fenton Moran, the executive secretary of the William J. Kerby Foundation, Washington, D. C., will deliver a lecture on "Democracy and Responsibility" in the College Auditorium next Thursday.

The Kerby Foundation was instituted in memory of Monsignor Kerby, former Dean of the School of Social Studies in the Catholic University of America, to disseminate some of the teachings of that well-known School.

Mr. Moran has had wide experience in academic and social fields, both in the United States and Europe. At present he is on a lecture tour of the Maritime Provinces. The public are cordially invited to hear him.

Sessions On Child Care Continue

Sessions in a series of talks on child care being given by Miss Madeline Flander, Educational Director, Children's Memorial Hospital, Montreal, continued yesterday.

At the afternoon session held in the solarium of the Charlottetown Hospital, Miss Flander addressed nurses on the subject of visiting children in hospital. She feels that young children should have their parents visit them and, if necessary, stay with them for a while, until they have become adjusted to hospital routine. By so doing, the parents and children gain confidence in the doctors, nurses and other hospital personnel.

The age when children become more independent of their parents is not always the same. A child who has had several illnesses probably will be more dependent on his parents and thus will take a longer period of time to make an adjustment.

Again the mother's presence at the bedside may be helpful as she can soothe the child who is recovering from an anaesthetic. She learns to do medical procedures which may be necessary when the child returns to his home.

The head nurse should arrange with the parents beforehand when they may visit their children so that there will not be too many visitors at one time. The practice of hospital visiting is satisfying to the mother from the point of view that she is being helpful and that she learns some of the difficulties which nurses have.

"Modern treatment of the cardiac child aims to make him a happy, useful member of society," said Dr. Maureen Roberts, of the Children's Hospital, Halifax, when speaking during the (Continued on Page 15)

Enjoyable Party For The Blind

Last evening the Anglican Young People's Association of St. Paul's Church held a very enjoyable party for the blind of Charlottetown. The members of the board, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind also were in attendance.

Miss Eleanor Chapp, president of the A.Y.P.A. and Mrs. J. T. Rodd, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, welcomed the guests. Rev. Canon J. T. Robott expressed his gratitude upon such a large attendance.

Mr. William Ives was master of ceremonies and Roger Gardham led the sing-song. Participating in the program were Mr. Bill MacEachern, accordion, Mr. Monty Warren, piano, Miss Florine Evans, reading, Mr. Roland Houston, harmonica, Mr. Harold Kemp, accompanist. Mrs. J. A. Gillies thanked the A.Y.P.A. on behalf of the Auxiliary.

After the program, delicious refreshments were served by the members of the A.Y.P.A. Premier J. Walter Jones sent his best wishes to the blind and regretted he could not attend. The party closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and The Queen.

Panel Discussion Features Program At Convention

A panel discussion, with Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, as chairman, featured the program of the annual convention of the P. E. I. Teachers Federation yesterday. The convention is being held in the auditorium of Prince of Wales College.

During the afternoon Dr. L. W. Shaw, Director of Education, addressed the group on his last year's journey to Geneva on behalf of the Canadian Educational Association.

In the afternoon the panel discussion centred around the Prov-

Commissioner's Report

"To the friends of Guiding with us today, the many old friends will probably not be unduly surprised at the work done as shown in the preceding reports—to the new executive and council members with us for the first time I feel that these reports will give to you an insight into the amount of time and work put forth by our Commissioners, committee heads and their assistants.

"About two weeks after our last annual meeting the Maritime Commissioners Conference was held in Charlottetown; the business sessions were conducted at the Community Centre, starting on Friday morning with meetings again in the afternoon and on Saturday morning and afternoon. The conference concluded with a banquet at the Charlottetown Hotel followed by a short business meeting. I feel that the discussion of common problems and the new ideas presented were of great value to all of us; the only losers were those who could not attend. Due to Ontario we had no delegates from Newfoundland, but we hope when the next conference is held in Nova Scotia that we will have a number from our newest Province.

"To Mrs. Earle MacDonald and to Mrs. Gordon MacDonald we extend our thanks for the gracious hospitality shown to our conference by entertaining informally at their homes. Our public relations Commissioner, Miss Lillian Duchemin and her committee deserve much credit for the time and work they spent on the week-end and to them is due the credit for the success we feel was achieved.

For the month of October we had Miss Shirley Cameron, Blue Cord Diploma'd Guider from Ontario with us. Wherever she went she stimulated interest and to the Guides and Guiders her sessions were an inspiration. A patrol leaders conference was held the last Friday and Saturday of the month.

When Mr. J. E. Cullen asked why parents should belong, Mr. Gordon Rodd felt that meetings between parents and teachers once a year was not enough as a well informed parent was a real asset to the teacher and to the trustee.

and these girls, perhaps more than anyone, gained immeasurably by her training and her example. Miss Cameron spent a week in Summerside and the remainder of her time made her headquarters in Charlottetown with training trips to companies throughout the province. Though her month was a wonderful help we do need much more training of our Guiders and patrol leaders—the need is growing. We must have division trainers. So many districts, particularly out-of-town, feel the need of Guiding for their girls but have not the leadership required.

"If we had regular training, people would become sufficiently interested to send potential leaders to these classes and so our movement will grow. Potential Guiders and Brownies are many but leadership here, as elsewhere in Canada, is a great need.

Two Gold Cords have been presented during the year, to Patricia Watson, of the Second Summerside Company, and to Marjorie Pickard of the 7th Charlottetown Company.

"The death of Mrs. C. G. Duffy in January was a shock to us. For many years Mrs. Duffy worked quietly and very willingly on our executive and our council. Her pleasant response to our requests always gave a feeling of happiness to me and to any others who worked with her.

Miss Nancy Hyndman, a former member of the 7th Charlottetown Company, a first class Guide and presently a Lieutenant with the 1st and 3rd Charlottetown Companies, has been chosen to represent us at the Coronation. Miss Hyndman is one of the ten Canadian Guides who is going with the Commonwealth Youth Movement, sailing from Montreal in May and returning in July. Our best wishes go with her.

"Work is presently in progress in the doll dressing by the Guides for the Bessborough Shield, and the colouring (International Colouring Book) by the Brownies for the Rey Brownie Shield. I would like to mention the tremendous amount of work put into the preparation for the competitions by the committee headed by Mrs. P. W. Hyndman.

"Again we have changes in our personnel. Mrs. McGuire is leaving the province; there is no need to tell you what a loss it is to our Provincial Association; willingness and helpfulness at all times have truly been her standard, and every individual who has worked with her regrets her departure. We regret the resignation of Miss Lillian Duchemin, but we are indeed fortunate to have Mrs. A. G. Macmillan, successor as Public Relations Commissioner. Mrs. Ralph Dumont succeeds Mrs. G. E. Hartlen, who also resigned, but whose experience will be a great help to Mrs. Dumont.

"A special word of commendation to our field-secretary Miss Phyllis Cutcliffe, seems in order. Just over a year ago Miss Cutcliffe took over her duties, with no experience in the executive part of Guiding, though with a good background as a Guide. Her work is excellent, and conscientiously done; her help to me during the year has been tremendous and she is always ready to go the 'second mile' of willingness.

"You have heard reports from the Commissioners of various branches, and of committee heads, each of which is very important, and without which our movement could not exist. Each of these people works hard and none of them asks for unnecessary aid. One thing I must urge is that when you are called upon by one of them to help to remember that a pleasant, "I'll do my best," embodies all the ideals of Guiding; and what is more important, other than our direct religious affiliations, than our Young People's work, so well exemplified by our Guide movement? Perhaps when we feel that we can't do something, a second thought will bring to mind that third guide law—"A guide's duty is to be useful and to help others." Our Guides and Brownies endeavour to live up to this, our Guides do, our Commissioners and heads of Committees are showing us all the time how they do it. May I appeal to you all to make the next year the most outstanding one the movement has ever known in this province by saying, whenever at all possible, "Certainly, I'll do my best."

Gold Cord Presentation

Regina Gillis of the 8th Charlottetown Company (Basilea) was presented with a gold cord, the highest award in Guiding, by the honorary president, Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse. The Commissioner presented warrants to the following: Patricia Watson, Summerside, Lieutenant; Mrs. R. W. Auld, Kensington, captain; Mrs. A. C. MacLean, Central Royalty, Brown Owl; Mrs. Charles Linkletter, 1st Summerside Company, captain; Mrs. W. W. Reid, 7th Charlottetown Pack, Brown Owl; Mrs. Ferno Rogers, 1st Summerside Pack, Tawny Owl; Mrs. Ralph Emery, 1st Summerside Pack, Brown Owl; Mrs. T. L. Linkletter, district commissioner for Summerside.

Also receiving warrants, who were not present yesterday afternoon are Mrs. Frances Wannamaker, 1st Siemon Park Pack, Tawny Owl; Mrs. R. D. Burns, 1st Siemon Park Pack, Brown Owl; Mrs. Ovid Dollar, 15th Charlottetown Pack, Tawny Owl; Miss Betty Pendleton, 1st and 3rd Charlottetown Companies.
