Mosher-Philpott Wedding Is Lovely Autumn Event

In the presence of a large number of guests at Trinity United Church on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14, the Rev. Donald Miller united in marriage Dawn Lee, daughter of Mrs. Ralph Philpott, Windsor, and Cecil Bradford, son of Captain and Mrs. A. A. Mosher, Montague, P.E.I.

Mr. Victor Pepper presided at the organ, and Miss Katherine Anslow was soloist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Marriot, Falmouth, the bride was lovely in her floor-length wedding gown of white silk chiffon over tulle. It was fashioned with a full skirt worn with crinoline. The shirred bodice had cap sleeves and a lace back with tiny buttons. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a sequin-trimmed pill box headpiece and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and shasta daisies.

Mrs. C. R. Jones, Toronto, was dressed in blue shantung with a matching hat. Her bouquet was pink and yellow roses. Miss Maxine Ross, Halifax, and Miss Elizabeth Robertson Windsor, were the bridesmaids, wearing dresses of pink and yellow net with lace jackets and matching headpieces, and carrying nosegays of feathered chrysanthemums.

Robert Mosher, Dartmouth, was his brother's best man. David Mosher, Montague, P.E.I., and Philip Murphy, Dartmouth, were the ushers.

The church was beautifully decorated with Fall flowers, the guest pews marked with white mums and satin streamers. The mother of the bride wore a blue printed silk sheath dress, white hat and gloves, and a corsage of white mums.

The groom's mother wore an ensemble of powder blue and navy with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at Sherwood Inn. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake and white tapers. Mrs. Paul Mosher, Lunenburg, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Frank Marriott, Falmouth, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Walter Stephens, Windsor, and Mrs. Henry Muggah, Halifax, replenished while girl friends of the bride served the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher left on a trip to Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island, the bride wearing for travelling a dress of navy blue and white with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

MORNING SMILE

He gave her so much jewelry and so many furs he finally decided to marry her for his money

Wife Preservers

Sandwiches and cake that has been cut will stay moist and fresh if you seal the wrapped paper wrapping with a hot iron.

Fast Relief FROM SNIFFLY, STUFFY, SNEEZY Head Colds

When a head cold stuffs up your nose—you sneeze, sniffle, can't breathe—nothing works like Vicks Vapo-nol. A few drops up each nostril opens nose fast. Your head clears. You breathe again. And Vapo-nol keeps on giving you comforting relief hour after hour.

Lovely Autumn Wedding Held In Charlottetown

The United Baptist Church, Charlottetown, was the setting on Saturday, Sept. 28th, for the wedding of Lois Katherine Burke daughter of Mrs. W. Frederick Burke and the late Mr. Burke to Mr. Richard Earl Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dean, Phillipsburg, Quebec. The Rev. Harold L. Mitton officiated. Mr. Barbara Rogers was guest soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Carl F. Burke, wore a model gown of ivory peau de soie, fashioned on princess lines with a portrait neckline embellished with matching Guipure Lace, embroidered with pearls. The voluminous skirt formed a chapel train. Her short veil was caught by a pearl coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Benjamin Livingstone Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Phyllis Brown and Miss Jacquelyn Rice were bridesmaids. They wore similar gowns of emerald green velvet with matching hats and shoes. Their cascade bouquets were of bronze chrysanthemums.

The mother of the bride chose a pale violet gown in Swiss tulle for her daughter's wedding. Her hat was a fetching profile feather in deeper tones. She wore a white spray carnation corsage. Groomsman was Mr. George Petty, Montreal, Que., ushering the guests were Mr. Wendell Burke, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert G. Ryan of Montreal.

A reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel.

For her travelling costume the bride wore a custom tailored smoke blue suit with a sapphire mink stole. Her hat was a chic blue into black feather model and her accessories were black. She wore an orchid corsage.

The bride and groom will reside in Montreal.

SEAMED SUIT

Muted brown flannel is the fabric choice for a good looking and useful back-buttoned jacket and skirt costume (Sweater blouse may be worn underneath). Double stitched seams. The precision-tailored seaming marks the high round neckline and the shoulder seams. The precision-tailored seaming also gives the front a subtle shape. The jacket back has a flouzy look, has a half-belt and is buttoned from the neck with matching bone buttons.
