AMBASSADOR

This year, to date, Ambassador sales are up 281%. What made it such a success? This kind of luxury at a medium price. This kind of quality at a medium price. This kind of big-car size at a medium price.

That's what made Ambassador '65 a runaway sales leader. And now at end-of-season prices — what a buy! What a car! What a deal! Classics and Americans are going at end-of-season prices, too.
