LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Great mantle sale—Beer Bros.

City Council.—Regular monthly meeting to-night at the usual hour.

A. O. H.—Special meeting this (Monday) night at 8 o'clock. Full attendance requested.

School Board.—There will be a meeting of the City School Board this evening at half-past seven o'clock.

Better Than Wealth.—Health is better than wealth. It will cost you little and may be worth much in pleasure and health to attend the 1st Methodist SS. Picnic on Wednesday at 2.30 p. m.

The next time you step into a tailor's shop ask to see the "Tyke" Serge. The genuine "Tyke" is the most enduring and satisfactory cloth a gentleman can wear, and is stamped "Tyke" every 2½ yards.

Worth Attending.—The 1st Methodist Sunday School picnics are always worth attending. That on Wednesday will be no exception. You owe a pleasant day to yourself. Don't miss this chance of paying the debt to yourself.

From Pugwash.—The Jacques Cartier arrived from Pugwash about 11 o'clock to-day, with an excursion party numbering about one hundred. A brass band accompanied the excursionists. They will leave on return this evening.

Sons of Temperance.—The quarterly session of Grand Division will be held at Irishtown on Monday next, July 15th. There will be a jubilee temperance meeting in the evening. There will be reduced fares along the line of railway to Kensington.

Christian Endeavor.—The majority of the Christian Endeavor delegates from this Province took the train this morning for Boston. Rev G M Campbell will leave on Wednesday. A special meeting of the Epworth League will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the parlor of the first Methodist church.

Police Court.—This forenoon, Andrew Doyle jr., was convicted of a second infraction of the Canada Temperance Act and fined, the sum of $100.00 and $5.95 costs or two months imprisonment. The case against Martin Murray, charged with a first infraction of the Canada Temperance Act was adjourned until Thursday next.

Side Trips For Tourists. — Tourists in Charlottetown or at any of the stations between Charlottetown and Morell could not spend a portion of their time to better advantage than to take in the "side trip" to Morell on Thursday next. Pleasant ride by rail at the minimum of cost. See Zion Church picnic advt. in another column. Every attention paid to visitors. Come!

A Brutal Assault.—J A Campbell, a bumboat man on H M S Canada, was brutally assaulted in the vicinity of the Apothecaries' Hall about midnight on Saturday. After the assault Campbell was removed to the police station, where the services of Dr. S. R. Jenkins had to be called in. It is hoped that the person who committed the assault will receive the punishment he deserves.

Struck It Rich.—The Sussex Record says: The Moncton syndicate, which is prospecting at Point Wolf, A. Co., appear to have struck it rich, if the ore tested is a fair sample of what is to be found there. R. M. Bryden, who has charge of the operation there, has had some of the ore sent to Halifax to be tested. The analysis shows to the ton as follows: Gold, $28.85; silver, $1.50; copper, 33 per cent., making a total of $50. If these figures are true, the property is a bonanza.

B. I. S. Picnic.—Those who want to attend the biggest outing of the season should not lose sight of the B I S picnic, which is to be held this year at Emerald station. The B I Society had a monster gathering last year at Scotchfort, and all present voted it the most enjoyable picnic of the decade. The 6th of August being the 120th anniversary of the birth of O'Connell, it never fails to attract, and when the catering and amusements are in the hands of the B I S, it draws the crowd every time.

Special.—All members of Zion Church Sunday School will meet at Church on Thursday morning at 8.45 to receive tickets for the picnic. None will be given at the station. Be on time so that the train can leave on time. Members of the congregation desiring their baskets, boxes, trunks, etc., called for will please send their names to the committee this, to-morrow or Wednesday evening at close of the prayer meeting. The committee will call for such on Thursday morning between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. Have them ready and do not keep them waiting, please.

Marriage Bells.—Another of those interesting events, of especial interest to the young people, took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral this morning, the contracting parties being Mr. John Dunn and Miss Margaret Campbell, both of this city. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Arsenault. The groomsman was Mr. Joseph Dunn, of Peakes Station, and the bridesmaid Miss Minnie Kelly, of Charlottetown. After the ceremony about twenty or thirty couples sat down to a sumptuous repast, at the conclusion of which the happy couple left on an extended wedding tour, followed by the best wishes of their many friends. The Examiner extends congratulations.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Musical.—The junior recital at Mrs Edward Palmer's on Tuesday evening is postponed till Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

League of the Cross.—Don't forget the picnic at West River on Thursday next. It will be a grand affair. Make no other engagement for that day.

The Biggest Yet. — Ed. Ford, the well-known commercial man, caught a trout at Cardigan this morning weighing 4 lbs. 9 oz. Well done, Ed!

Miss E. E. Ernst, optician, will be at Capt. Samuel McRae's, Charlottetown, from 8th until 15th inst. Satisfaction guaranteed. Hours 9 a m to 5 p m.

The Band Stand.—Tenders will be received at the Apothecaries Hall up to twelve o'clock to-morrow for the erection of a band stand in Queen Square Gardens.

L. O. A.—The Orangemen paraded to the Christian Church yesterday, where they were addressed by Rev. U. G. Miller. The Artillery Band headed the procession.

A Good Job.—The two dwelling houses of Hon. Thos. Dodd on the corner of Pownal and Grafton streets have been painted by Mr. James Edmonds, and now presents a handsome appearance.

Card of Thanks.—The management in connection with the garden party recently held in aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, wish to thank the press, Messrs. Haszard & Moore and the Citizens' Band for gratuitous services rendered.

Ordination.—At the ten o'clock service in the St. Dunstan's Cathedral yesterday, Isaac Terrio, of Magdalen Islands, was ordained priest. The ceremony, which was performed by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald assisted by Revs. Dr. Morrison and D. B. Reid, was very impressive. The sermon of the day was preached by Father Arsenault. There was a large congregation.

Excursion to Magdalens.—The steamer St. Olaf will leave Souris for Magdalen Islands this evening, upon arrival of afternoon train from Charlottetown. Among those who will participate in the excursion are Judge Alley, Dr. Strickland, W. F. Tidmarsh, J. M. McLeod and J. A. Macdonald. There will be a large contingent from Souris.

What a Time They Had.—Yesterday afternoon, two men, one white and the other colored, quarrelled on Lower Water Street. From words they came to blows. The colored man "butted" the white man in the forehead, cutting him severely, and the white man, by way of retaliation, bit the colored man in the ear. The next act in the mellow drama will probably take place in the Police Court.

At The Butts.—The first of the Engineers spoon competition was held on Saturday afternoon when after an exiting struggle between Corpl. Baird, Capt Weeks, Sergant Davison and Corpl Anderson, Corporal Baird captured the spoon with one point to the good, having made 86 points in a strong, unsteady left wind.

Sergeant Gates won the silver teaspoon in the junior class.

The next competition will be held on Saturday next. At the same time the fourth contest for the Cochenthaler gold medal will be held.

East View Farm.—The last issue of Turf, Farm and Home, published at Waterville, Me., contains a well-written and exceedingly interesting account of a visit paid to East View Farm, the property of Mr. E. R. Brow, by Mr. A. D. Quimby, of the editorial staff of that paper. The article is illustrated by cuts made from photographs taken by Mr. A. S. Johnson, and is well worthy of careful perusal. The splendid herd of Guernsey cattle on the farm receive special mention. Both farm and cattle are well worth seeing. Mr. Brow is at all times pleased to see visitors and show them over the farm.

H. M. S. Canada.—Yesterday morning some ladies and gentlemen attended divine service on board the ship.

On Tuesday afternoon, Capt Wilson will give a "hop" on board, for which the invitations have been issued.

Hon. D. J. Kane, United States Consul, went on board on Saturday and received the customary salute.

The novelty of an entertainment given entirely by the sailors will no doubt attract a large audience to the Masonic Opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings. The performance will be in aid of own hospitals.

The temperance society on board the Canada have been invited to meet with Victoria Division, Sons of Temperance, of this city, to-night, in Wright's Hall, corner of Prince and Kent Street.

Boating Accident.—Yesterday afternoon, a man and a boy left Queen's wharf in a sailboat. They sailed over to Southport, and then went along the flats to Rocky Point. At Rocky Point the man gave the tiller to the boy while he went to look after the sail. The boy was evidently not an expert with the tiller and put the boat in the wrong direction, causing the sail to flap and strike the man with considerable violence knocking him overboard into the water. The man managed to keep himself afloat for about twenty miautes, when he was rescued by the Captain of the Flying Cloud, and brought to the city apparently not very much the worse for his involuntary bath. The boy brought the sail-boat back to town, and when mooring her, came in contact with the wharf, carrying away her foremast.

ODDFELLOWS DECORATION DAY.

The Oddfellows of this city yesterday decorated the graves of their departed brethren in Sherwood, the Peoples and St. Peter's Cemeteries, and in the old Cemetery on Malpeque road. The ceremony which was very impressive was witnessed by a great many people, and was well carried out. The flowers—many of which were kindly donated by friends of the order—were beautiful.

The following graves were decorated: Malpeque Road Cemetery, Joseph H. Davison; St. Peter's Cemetery, Samuel W. Martin; Sherwood Cemetery, John F. Henderson, John Henderson, John P. Irving and Walter W. Beer; People's Cemetery, A. D. White, F. S. Chandler, John D. Currie, C. V. McGregor, W. B. Allin, T. J. Farquharson, Wallace Scantlebury and Theo. L. Chappelle.

After the decoration ceremony was concluded, Bro. Bremner, P. G. M., delivered an excellent address appropriate to the occasion, in the course of which he reminded those present that there were four deaths among the brethren during the year, the graves of whom they were unable to visit, viz., A. E. Macdonald, Ewen McPherson, Rev. C. W. Dutcher and John Music. He advised all to emulate the virtues of those who had gone before and bury their imperfections beneath the earth that covers them.

The procession to and from the cemeteries attracted much attention, and the excellent appearance of the brethren on parade occasioned many comments. Galbraith's Band was present with a choice programme.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea, of Moncton, are visiting relatives and acquaintances in the Province.

Rev. Father Burke, of Alberton, crossed in the Northumberland to-day, on his way to Ottawa.

Dr. Murphy, of Alberton, came East to-day as far as Kensington, upon professional business.

Mr. Gillis, of Indian River, goes to Mount Stewart this evening to survey the Marshlands there.

Miss Clarke having returned, is now ready to meet her customers at her rooms in the store of Messrs. Moore & McLeod.

Mr H P Duchemin, B A, '95 gold medalist at Dalhousie, arrived home from Truro on Saturday evening for a fortnight's holidays.

Mr. Byron N. Barns, a well-known and popular knight of the gripsack, is here interviewing all interested in paints, oils, etc. He is at the Davies.

It is pleasing to hear that Mr. L. J. Sentner, head clerk in Beer Bros'. establishment, has recovered from his illness, and was was able to resume work this morning.

Alexander McKinnon, Esq., and Mrs. McKinnon returned from New Glasgow, N. S., on Saturday evening. It is pleasing to hear that Mr. McKinnon is considerably improved in health.

Mr. Theobald Mathew O'Donnell, who graduated from the Charlottetown Business College last March has, we are glad to learn, secured a position with Jordan, Marsh & Co., of Boston. He is a son of Peter O'Donnell, of Avondale.

Rev. G. C. P. Palmer preached his farewell sermons in the First and Second Methodist Churches yesterday. He leaves in a few days for Bedeque, his new charge. Mr. Palmer has made many warm friends in Charlottetown, and his departure is generally and deeply regretted.

G. W. Schurman, B. A., L. L. B., (Dal), well and favorable known in Halifax, has been admitted to the leading New York legal firm of Carter, Hughes and Dwight. After leaving Dalhousie he took a post graduate course at Cornell university, and studied for two years with the above named firm. Last October he was admitted to the New York bar and to-day is a member of a leading firm composed of six members.—Halifax Herald.

Miss Maud Doiron, of Charlottetown, who has been attending Stella Maris Convent, Pictou, for the past two or three years, has been very successful in her studies, as is indicated by the prize list published in the Pictou papers. Miss Doiron stood second in the first division, and was awarded prizes for geometry, algebra, chemistry, history, and English language. She also took prizes for music, map-drawing and penmanship, and equalled the winner of the silver medal for assiduity. Miss Doiron is expected home this evening.

Five Lines on K and L.

I find the people around here prefer Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to any other I have in stock. They are a wonderful pill. Send three dozen at once, I am nearly out. P. S.—Send by post, J. W. Ireland, Gourock.

Cardigan Tea.

The Ladies of All Saints Church intend having a

GRAND TEA PARTY

—AT—

Cardigan Bridge

—ON—

Wednesday, July 10th, 1895.

Cardigan enjoys a reputation not merely for good Teas, but for the very best; and no pains will be spared to make this one eclipse all former ones. All amusements common to such gatherings will be provided. There will be on the grounds a well stocked Saloon, directed by a party of young gentlemen whose assiduous attention to their customers will be equalled only by the exquisite flavor of the drinks they dispense. A professional cook, aided by the young ladies of the parish, will have charge of the baking, which is a sufficient guarantee that the tables will be abundantly and deliciously supplied. We will not say, however, in the stereotyped phrase, "that the tables will groan under the weight of the many good things," for everything will be so pleasant at the Cardigan Tea that not even the tables will groan. They may bend and even break but not complain.

A special train will leave—

Ch'town at	8.50 a. m.	local time
Royalty Junction	9.16	" "
Bedford	9.40	" "
Mount Stewart	10.05	" "
Arr. Cardigan	11.03	" "

Returning, leave tea grounds at 6.15 p. m., local time.

A special train will leave Georgetown at 1 p. m., local time.

Along the line return tickets may be bought at the following reduced rates:

Charlottetown and Royalty Junction	75c
York and Bedford	60c
Tracadie, Mt Stewart and Pisquid	45c
Peakes	35c
St. Teresas	25c
Lot 48	20c
Perth	15c
Georgetown	20c

Return tickets will be issued at one single first-class fare from all Stations on Souris Branch, good for return on the same and following day.

In the evening a literary, musical and dramatic entertainment will be held in the hall at Cardigan. This will be a feature of the day that no lover of the beautiful can miss, as some of the best talent in the Province will take part.

Doors open at 7.30 p. m.; Concert at 8.30. Admission 25c.

A Word in Season.

Our Prices Speak in Boots and Shoes.

The reason we sell so cheap is that our stock is purchased for spot cash, and are all New and Fashionable Goods. No old-fashioned stock and odd sizes.

Some of our competitors bait their hooks with large discount figures. The people understand that little game and cannot be bluffed. They know that men don't waste time doing business for fun.

Examine our prices and the quality of our stock, and you will be satisfied that we can give you the best value or the least money.
