

JOCK TALK MICKEY PLACE

Stan Dalton just came in with a big stick in his hand and a wild look in his eyes to tell me that I have to have some notes to him in 15 minutes so, if this report seems hazy and hurried it is only because it is hazy and hurried.

UNB 4-3 UPEI 0-4
When a team loses out and misses the playoffs the initial reaction of its followers is usually one of fault finding. I am afraid, the aftermath of the UNB and Moncton series has left our hockey followers in just that mood. Well let's think back a bit. After the opening game of the year against Sir George the full extent of the unexpected and last minute loss of our first line made discouraged fans prophesy a long hard winter. Vince took his boys, many comparatively inexperienced and compiled a very respectable record. We had a shot at first place and lost two close games to Moncton. We had a try for second and lost out by splitting two games with UNB. In the latter series the loss of injured Donnie Murnaghan was a big factor. We feel Vince Mulligan did a great coaching job and we think the boys gave it everything they had and we wish to thank them for a season that had many thrilling moments. winning is more fun than losing but it isn't everything - We wish every success to those who will be leaving us by graduation or other reasons - We by the way, would have liked to have seen the occasion of their last game marked by a little ceremony and hope that some sort of party is being planned.

We would also, on behalf of C.S.U.R. listeners, like to express our thanks to J & T Morris for sponsoring the away games - both football and hockey and making it possible for UPEI listeners to sit home or in the Panther Lounge and follow the fortunes of the favourites as they played at mainland points - in previous years it was always a great challenge to find out final scores but thanks to the bottlers of Coca Cola & Peerless Beverages, Paul Durant, Mike Hennessey, Brian Howatt, and Punch MacIntyre we were able to follow the games as they happened - we appreciated J. & T.'s good turn so much that we left off our favourite beverage -- "treated coffee"-- and found Coca Cola delicious when served properly!!

We are also told it has greatly improved the quality of the broadcasts. Here you are Stan - Next week give me more warning.

She thought he must have had an ulterior motive because that day she was looking her best in her blue jeans, sweaty shirt and usual mouthfull of graperoos. Suddenly there was a sound in the street. Stooze was taking on something that looked like the whole world's share of crapitalists. Suddenly somebody yelled it must be the establishment. Stooze fought bravely but it looked bad and finally it happened. Somebody slipped Stooze a fiver. It didn't take long for word to spread and finally Stooze could take it no longer. He left town, just about the same time Ms. Pussy's closed up. It was rumored that Ms. Pussy let Stooze open a door for her. A new face showed up in town fairly soon. He was called tact! Tact ruled with a loose but firm hand and the town finally began to look up and flourish. Dulltown was on the way up!
