PICTURE OF "BOBS."—Do you want to get a splendid picture of Lord Roberts? Read the paragraph in another column headed: "Canadian soldiers winning the admiration of Lord Roberts."

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—A horse belonging to a man named Allen ran away on Great George Street this morning. The wagon upset near the junction of Great George and Water Streets, and the lad in charge was thrown out. The horse, with one of the shafts and the swing-tree dangling at his feet, went down Water Street at a lively rate and was not captured until he had gone down Peake's No. 1 wharf. The driver was not injured beyond being somewhat shaken up, but the wagon was pretty badly damaged.
