Grain

WINNIPEG, July 8 - (CP) - Coarse grain futures prices were irregular today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange in trading which was inactive for the most part.

There was some evidence of export purchases in barley. American and shipping interests took oats and seaboard accounts bought rye. Offerings were more liberal in early trade when prices showed an easier tone. Firming tendencies appeared at mid-session.

Overnight loadings of Canadian wheat for export were: United Kingdom 1,100,000 bushels, Germany 925,000, Norway, 170,000, Spain 300,000, Peru 60,000, Belgium 60,000, and a small parcel to Switzerland.

Prices of class two and I.W.A. wheat were up 1/2 cent.
