Miss Alice Gordon Honored At Shower

Miss Alice Gordon was guest of honour at a delightful miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon, Roseneath, Friday evening.

when the ladies of the district called to wish her best wishes for her future happiness. She was the recipient of many useful gifts. The living room was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, apple blossoms and tulips. An attractively decorated basket laden with gifts was carried into the living room by Judy Yorston and Clayton Bulpitt, dressed as miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Louis Yorston read the accompanying verses, while the gifts were opened by Mrs. Donald MacQuarrie and arranged by Mrs. Harold Bulpitt. In a few well chosen words, Alice expressed her appreciation, and everyone joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". Organ accompaniment for the evening was Mrs. J. Malcolm Mackenzie. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bulpitt, Mrs. James Crawford and Miss Marie Quinn.

Former Islander Dies At 93 In B.C.

Funeral services for Albert Brehaut, 93, retired dairy farmer and a pioneer of New Westminster district, will be held Friday, June 19, at 3 p. m., in S. Bowell and Sons Funeral Chapel, New Westminster, B. C. He was born in Murray Harbor, P. E. I., and went to the Pacific Coast in 1888. Arriving by CPR, he got off the train at Westminster Junction, now Port Coquitlam. His first job in New Westminster was with Tom Cunningham, who had 20 head of grade Jerseys grazing in the upper section of the Royal City above Fourth avenue. Mr. Brehaut could recall the days when Jersey cows grazed among stumps in the upper central section of the Royal City, when milk was dipped out of cans

Leavitt-Noseworthy Wedding

Miss Muriel Louise Noseworthy daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Noseworthy, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, became the bride of Alvan W. Leavitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leavitt of Arlington Heights, Mass., in a double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Robert H. Dunn, at Saint John's Episcopal Church, on Sunday May 10, at 3 p. m. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin with inserts of lace, tight fitting bodice and yoke of nylon net. Her finger-tip veil of nylon illusion was caught with a flowered satin cap and she carried a white prayer book, decorated with camellias and stephanotis. Mr. Donald Vaughn, organist, accompanied Miss Jean Hutchins, soloist. Mrs. Parker Smith, sister of the bridegroom, was station of honor. She was a ballerina-length gown of lavender antique taffeta, carried a bouquet of pink gladioli with matching head-dress. Mrs. Philip Leavitt, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and Miss Charlotte Norton of Boston were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina-length gowns of aqua antique taffeta with head-dress to match and carried bouquets of yellow gladioli. Gail Leavitt, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl and Gregory Leavitt, nephew of the bridegroom was ring-bearer. Philip Leavitt, Arlington, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were James Jenkins Noseworthy, brother of the bride, and Gordon M. Page of Lexington, Mass. Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the Women's City Club. Mrs. William Tarr II of Lynnfield, Mass., cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book. The couple left on a wedding trip. For travelling the bride chose a gray suit with pink accessories and a white orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside in Massachusetts. The bride is a graduate of Portsmouth High school, class of 1951 and of Miss Farmer's School in Boston. The bridegroom graduated from Arlington High school and Northwestern University where he majored in psychology, and did post graduate work at the graduate school of the University of New Hampshire. He is engaged in research work for the American Optical Company. Mrs. Leavitt is a daughter of the former Marguerite Jenkins and a grand-daughter of Mrs. William C. Jenkins, Annandale, P. E. I.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. Ralph Sinnott is still on the idle list following a fall which caused a broken shoulder. His arm is still in a sling.

Mrs. Annabelle Doucette and two children have moved to the Magdalen Islands to reside.

Mr. Herbert McEwen of Charlottetown spent the week-end of June 15 at his home in Morell Rear.

Saturday visitors to the City June 14th, included Mrs. Bill Aylward, Mrs. P. R. Sinnott, Mrs. Charlie O'Brien, Mrs. Anthony Dunn, and daughter, Miss Mabel O'Brien and Miss Florence MacDonald.

Dr. J. Cyril Sinnott and Mrs. Sinnott left Friday, June 13 for Montreal, after a short vacation with the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sinnott, and other members of the family. The doctor will serve as interne at Royal Victoria Hospital for the next year. Miss Muriel Villard, a high school student, was struck on the side of the face with a wild flying ball during a practice Sunday afternoon. She is reported as having received a severe blow below the eye.

Mrs. Evelyn Richard who lost her husband two years ago, is expected back in Bristol, to reside with her mother, Mrs. John Lapierre. Mrs. Richard, formerly Evelyn Lapierre, lived at Seal River, N. B., where her husband died suddenly two years ago.

The condition of Mr. Ambrose Phalen, stricken suddenly on June 10th, is reported somewhat better at this time. He is now at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Sharkey. Residents here were surprised on Saturday morning, June 14, to find the water in the outside horse tubs around the quarter frozen quite hard with a quarter inch of ice, and the ground snow white with frost. It seems to be a record for late frost in this vicinity. One lady reports milk was frozen in a bottle on the back porch.

Rev. A. L. Sinnott who left several years ago to take up duties in the U. S. A. is back home at present and is receiving a big welcome. Fr. Sinnott is on a lecture tour through the Maritimes at A. A. in prime health now. A powerful preacher, he has travelled through the U. S. A. to the west coast and With pleasant smile he says he is back again.
