RECOVERING FOLLOWING ACCIDENT
Her many friends will be glad to learn that conditions attending an injury sustained by Mrs. Chester MacLeod Long River are better than was at first expected and that the affected parts have been placed in a cast, with every hope of a good recovery. Mrs. MacLeod had her hip broken when she fell at her home two weeks ago and due to the fact that she was alone in the house at the time, and also that there was no doctor available, the structure was more than usually displaced, before her arrival at the Prince County Hospital, where she was taken by Mr. J. L. Davison. However, X-ray examination, following treatment, shows that her condition is not as serious as at first feared.—Bur.

Townsend, who read a suitable address to the guests of honor, who were presented with a beautiful Ayr blanket, by Mr. Ernest Mill, on behalf of the congregation. Both Mr. and Mrs. Naus responded, expressing their pleasure and appreciation, and all joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Special Service At Malpeque Church

On Sunday last the evening service of worship was of special music. Rev. Mr. Cross led in the worship, and opened with a few request hymns. A large choir being present led in the singing with Mrs. Simpson at the organ. Messrs Phillips, Semple, Hiltz and Casely, Kensington sang two male quartets with fine expression and harmony, namely: "Have Thine Own Way, Lord" and "Lead Me To Calvary." At conclusion of offering Mr. William Ramsay, Hamilton was heard, with rare acceptance in the solo "My Task" by Ashford.

Mr. Cross preached on the text Mark 14-26. And when they had sung an hymn they went out into the Mount of Olives. Man wishes to express his feelings by singing hymns, or to express his sympathy with flowers. A hymn is a poem in metre, music, harmony. Every religious revival has its effective hymn singing. Great men as Wesley, Moody and Sankey, put power in singing.

It was the power of hymn singing that Jesus went to Gethsemane and Calvary. At the morning service Rev. James Cross preached an inspiring sermon from Kings chap. 8:18-19. The choir sang an anthem, after sermon Mr. Cross was heard effectively in the solo Consecration by Jude. There were large congregations at both services. The floral decorations were very artistically arranged.

Robinson as Gino Monetti, whose heart is as big as his banking methods are unorthodox, has another of his hard-hitting roles. Susan Hayward, in the role of Irene Bennett, a smart, flip young woman who lives by her wits, tops her performance in "Smash-Up" and gives a bright sheen to the picture while Gino as Gino's favorite son, Max, greatly adds to his star stature with a powerful performance.

Philip Yordan, who wrote "Anna Lucasta" for the Broadway stage, fashioned a taut script from a Jerome Weidman novel. The story revolves around Papa Gino, who rules his bank and his family with an iron hand. The Monetti mansion is literally a "House of Strangers."
