A Sacrifice to Duty.

A YOUNG WOMAN'S LIFE GROUND OUT BY PRIVATION AND HARDSHIP WHILE IN THE SALVATION ARMY.

An Ottawa despatch says: The coffined remains of Minnie Shea lie in her father's house awaiting burial. She was not long ago a bright and healthy young girl; she died on Thursday, a martyr to what she considered to be her duty. A year ago Miss Shea entered the Salvation Army and was sent as an officer to a small, rough settlement near Ottawa. The army officers do not receive assistance from headquarters; they are obliged to subsist on the contributions of their adherents and the charity of well-wishers in the locality where they work. She suffered cruel privations there, and her health gave way. She still kept in the work, until at length her strength left her, and she wrote to headquarters, asking to be allowed to go home for a rest. The reply came that if rest were needed she must take it where she was, for the money to pay her way home could not be spared. By stinting herself of necessaries she contrived to get together enough money to buy a railway ticket to Hamilton. She was already so far gone in consumption that the doctors said she could not recover.

During her long illness she received only one letter from headquarters. It was from Commissioner Coombs. It was not a letter of sympathy and encouragement—it was a dunning letter. The custom of the Salvation Army is to send its officers a supply of army publications and charge the officers with them. If the officers can sell them, well and good—they may make a small profit if they can. But if the literature is not saleable the officers must raise the money some how and send it on to headquarters. Miss Shea had a lot of this stuff sent to her, which she could not sell, and she could not raise the money for it, and so "headquarters" claimed that she owed $7.20. Commissioner Coombs' letter was written to reproach her for not having made good the money, and the zealous Commissioner informed her that she was no Christian if she failed to do so. She admitted shortly before her death that she had made the mistake of her life when she joined the Army.

On the Use of Campbell's Wine of Beech-Tree Creosote, in Diseases of the Lungs and Throat.

IN the South of France, where all persons threatened by Phthisis go to be treated; where Doctors Bouchard and Gimbert, the two specialists so highly recommended by public opinion, have experimented with all the proposed medicines against Pulmonary Tuberculosis, it is the one prepared to-day, and that which for ten years past they have finally adopted, after many comparative experiences, based upon the antiseptic method, having specially in view the destruction of the Bacilli.

After a few days' use of the remedy, the expectoration diminishes, and very soon one is pleased to witness the gradual disappearance of the Baccilli, the breaking off of the fever and the rapid recovery of appetite and strength.

When instead of confirmed Phthisis, Catarrh or Chronic Bronchitis have to be dealt with, the different forms of which may sometimes give rise to an uncertain diagnosis, they have always been cured. Those excellent results need not astonish us, if we consider the lucky natural associations of complete antiseptic and Balsamic principles in the compound we now describe. When our Wine shall have restored health, it will be well not to discontinue its use at once, and at all events to use it again about a fortnight before winter sets in, and at every change of season followed by damp weather.

DIRECTIONS.—A small dessert spoonful three times a day, after each meal, gradually increased to a large dessert spoonful.

N B.—The use of Cod Liver Oil, as a powerful resistant to the remedial properties of the Wine, is recommended. Campbell's "Skreo" Oil being the best, is the kind which should be taken.

MODESTY forbids us (to use a slang phrase) to blow our own horn, and as it is contrary to our opinion (according to the old proverb) when in Rome to do as Rome does, we shall endeavor, as heretofore, to present facts so undeniable as to be beyond the reach of dispute. True, people have gained for themselves a name (not an enviable one) which, to all appearances, served the purpose they had in view. But wisdom dictates, before posing as leaders in the great race for supremacy, that we should look well to the foundation upon which those assertions are based. To throw the mantle of charity over such people is our motto; and instead of revealing to the public gaze, through your columns, the errors into which they have fallen, we will endeavor to lead them gently into the light. That you will acquiesce in what we say, is a foregone conclusion, namely, as Fathers of the trade in this Province we treat the several branches of the trade in this city with the same consideration as a loving parent would his innocent offspring; and to this end we invite such traders to aim high and co-operate in elevating this, the first profession, to the high status to which it is entitled. In the meantime, call and see our handsome goods, in NAPS, MELTONS, SCOTCH TWEEDS, WORSTEDS, etc., made up in the latest styles and cheap.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2002 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
