

T'S THAT TIME OF THE YEAR AGAIN

Fall Fest is scheduled to start on Wednesday, October 25th with a square dance in the Barn. This square dance is open to all university students carrying a valid student I.D. This event is scheduled as a Wet-Dry event, meaning that one doesn't have to be 18 years of age to be admitted. The 2nd and 3rd floors of the Barn will be "dry" meaning no bar. Only the Panther Lounge will be "wet". This Barn dance should be a lot of fun. So come on down to the Barn and dance a jig or two. There is going to be a real "country" band and a "caller" for the dances. Thursday starts off with

Hippee! A Hootenany!!

The Exchange welcomed in its first "Hoot Nite" of the year on Wednesday, Oct. 11. "Hoot Nite"? Uh, oh! Whoops, sorry about that. With yuh in a minute! Where's mah jug? Gong! Gong!!! Gong!!!! Okay, I'll admit I enjoyed it. But then again, I enjoy going to student council meetings. Either way, there's a lot of howlin' involved. Anyway, here it is, right of nights. Al Ward introduced the "Magic Hat Trick" by pulling everything but Bugs Bunny out of it. And presto, a few seconds later, songs by Alan started the evening off. Next, by way of a tribute to some ol' time hootenany music, Al, Roger, John and Steve teamed up for a few numbers. Among the selections was included an unforgettable rendition of that well worn and battered classic, "Oh where, oh where, Are You tonight?" With a variety of musical instruments to assist them (guitars, banjo, tin whistle), their tunes certainly made an impact! Not to be outdone, however, were UPEI's own "Blanchard Bowldies". They challenged the audience to join in singing a well-known traditional French song. And, in what was to be a remarkable feat of courage, the Panther lounge soon echoed with their response - "Allou-

There is going to be a Talent Pub on Friday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5.

The biggest event of the week will be the Harvest Ball to be held that night, Saturday, ette" sung not only in French, but also in harmony.

Outstanding lyrics, I thought, highlighted the next group on stage. "Friends", in a solo performance, exhibited a style all their own. The six unique verses of their one and only song, "The Horse Stood Around with his Feet on the Ground", certainly received the attention deserved from an audience.

The evening continued with Len and Paul who provided some fine guitar work and songs. Among the selections which stood out I mention in particular Jethro Tull's "Thick as a Brick", and an instrumental piece of America's entitled "A Horse with No Name". Al hopes to have them back some time soon.

It was fitting to have the evening finish off with fiddle music. "Arkansas Traveller", "Turkey in the Straw", "A Little Beggaman," and even some 'blues'. Much credit is due to Roy (fiddle) and Peter (guitar). Their ability to "jam" in so short a time was quickly displayed.

Finally, in conclusion, thanks are extended, on behalf of Al, to all the performers. To Roger, Gordon and John; the Campus Police; the girls at Beaver Foods; and to all who continue to support "The Exchange" by dropping in each Wednesday evening. See you next week.

October 28 in the Barn between 9:00 pm and 1:00 am. The Panther Lounge will be open at 8:00 pm for any groups that might want to have a little party before hand. The band that night will be Tequila.

Sunday night's movie "Dollars" will be shown

John Neville, a Senior Business Administration student, has been named UPEI-McDonald's Athlete of the Month for September.

Neville led the UPEI Golf team to AUAA Inter-collegiate golf championship, while finishing second in the individual portion of the 36-hole competition.

Neville had 18 hole
