L.A. Dominates All-Star Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Los Angeles Dodgers players dominate the 1962 Associated Press major league All-Star team with four players named to the 10-man squad announced Wednesday.

The Dodgers' quartet selected in the annual poll of members of the Baseball Writers Association include shortstop Maury Wills, outfielder Tommy Davis, left handed pitcher Sandy Koufax and right handed pitcher Don Drysdale.

San Francisco Giants, who defeated the Dodgers in a playoff to win the National League pennant, placed two players on the team — first baseman Orlando Cepeda and outfielder Willie Mays.

Rest of the squad consists of second baseman Bobby Richardson of New York Yankees, third baseman Brooks Robinson of Baltimore Orioles, outfielder Frank Robinson of Cincinnati Reds and catcher Earl Battey of Minnesota Twins.

Frank Robinson is the only repeater from last season's team. Richardson, Wills and Mays moved up from the second team of a year ago.

WILLS PILES UP VOTES

Wills accumulated almost as many stolen bases as he had votes. He had 105 of the 108 votes cast. He had 104 steals. Jose Pagan of the Giants was a distant second with two votes.

Closest competition was for the left handed pitcher with Koufax prevailing over Whitey Ford of Yankees 50-30. For catcher Battey polled 43 votes compared to 22 for Del Crandall of Milwaukee Braves.

Drysdale was the second best vote-getter with 88, followed by Richardson with 84, Frank Robinson 83 and Mays 80. Then came Davis with 67, Brooks Robinson and Koufax 50, Cepeda 49 and Battey 43.

Rest of the second team, in addition to Pagan, Crandall and Ford: First base—Bill White, Cardinals; second base — Bill Mazeroski Pirates; third base—Rich Rollins, Twins; outfield—Mickey Mantle, Yankees; Hank Aaron, Braves; and Al Kaline, Tigers; and right handed pitcher—Bob Purkey, Reds.

Emile Griffith Beats Wright

VIENNA (AP)—World welterweight champion Emile Griffith of New York outpointed Teddy Wright of Detroit Wednesday night in a 15-round bout billed for the world junior middleweight title.

The organizers wound up the only ones recognizing the fight as for a title. The European Boxing Union refused recognition on Tuesday and the World Boxing Association (formerly the U.S. NBA) said it would recognize instead a bout between Denny Moyer and Joey Giambra scheduled in Portland, Ore., on Saturday.

FIRE HITS THEATRE

LA TUQUE, Que. (CP)—Fire early Tuesday destroyed the building that houses the 400-seat Lyrique Theatre, a tobacconist's shop and offices of a dentist and a surgeon. No one was injured. Cause of the fire was not known.

Ralph Terry Emerges As Defence Symbol

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Terry emerged Wednesday as the symbol of defence for the much-maligned New York Yankee pitching staff which carried the American League champions to their 20th World Series success.

While the hitters sagged to a .199 team average and Mickey Mantle slumped to .120, the pitchers toted the Yanks past the stubborn San Francisco Giants in a tense seven-game series.

Thirteen days of travel and frustrating delay boiled down to one heart-stopping moment in the ninth inning of Tuesday's final game at San Francisco.

Terry's two-hitter suddenly had become a four-hitter in the ninth, following a pinch bunt single by Matty Alou and a double by Willie Mays. Willie McCovey had just curled a long foul into the right field seats when the big moment arrived.

McCovey swung savagely at a fast ball, prodded by a 35-mile-an-hour following wind. The ball zoomed directly at Bobby Richardson, who rocked on his heels as he gloved the ball—and hung on. A foot—or inches—either way and McCovey would have been the World Series hero.

In many ways this series was a personal triumph for Terry, goat of the 1960 series in Pittsburgh, when he threw a seventh game, 10th-inning home run ball to Bill Mazeroski that lost the series for Casey Stengel in his last year as Yankee manager.

The lean, boyishly handsome native of Big Cabin, Okla., had lived with that bitter memory for two years.

When Terry pitched—and lost—the second 1962 series game to Jack Sanford 2-0 after Whitey Ford had won the opener, he must have thought he was destined never to win. It was his fourth straight series defeat.

Terry finally shook the losing jinx when he won the fifth game last Wednesday 5-3, beating Sanford.

Aguirre, Koufax Are ERA Titlists

NEW YORK (AP) — Hank Aguirre of Detroit, a journeyman southpaw who became a full-fledged starting pitcher the past season, won the American League earned run title in 1962. Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles Dodgers, another left hander, captured the National League championship.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press disclosed Wednesday that Aguirre yielded only 53 earned runs in 216 innings for a 2.21 average. He is the first Tiger pitcher since Hal Newhouser in 1946 to win an ERA crown.

Aguirre, who did not make his initial 1962 start until May 26, won 16 games and lost eight. He had two shutouts, both against Baltimore. The 30-year-old Azusa, Calif., native was primarily a reliever in each of his seven previous big league campaigns with Cleveland and Detroit. His first 10 appearances the past season were also in relief.

INJURED FINGER

Koufax gave up 52 earned runs in 184 innings for a 2.54 mark. He was sidelined for two months with a finger injury, but managed to win 14 games while losing seven. He also posted a pair of shutouts, one against St. Louis and the other against New York Mets.

Robin Roberts of Baltimore, former National League star with Philadelphia, was the runner-up to Aguirre on the American League ERA competition. The big right hander permitted only 59 earned runs in 192 frames for 2.77 after being signed by the Orioles as a free agent in mid-May. Roberts finished with a 10-9 won-lost mark.

Whitey Ford of New York Yankees, the ERA leader in 1956 and 1958, was third with a 2.90.

Bob Shaw of Milwaukee Braves was second in the National League with 2.80.

Bob Purkey of Cincinnati, a 23-game winner, was third at 2.81.

To qualify for a major league earned run championship, a pitcher must have worked at least 162 innings. This was the first year that Aguirre qualified.
