Buster deep down in his throat. "I'll have that Possum dinner now or know the reason why."

The tree lay full length on the ground. It hadn't broken open. Buster Bear was no better off than before excepting that he could use both paws to try to tear the top open, whereas before he could use only one paw, having to use the other to hang on with.

Unc' Billy wasn't hurt by the fall of the tree. He was simply a little more scared if that were possible. He could hear Buster Bear growling and snarling and digging his claws into the wood and trying to tear it apart. He did pull off some big splinters but try as he would he couldn't tear that old tree open far enough to reach Unc' Billy. He hated to give up, did Buster Bear. But as I have said, he is rather short on patience, and he is smart enough to know when he is beaten. So after a while Buster shuffled away mumbling to himself. Do you wonder that Unc' Billy Possum is very fond of hollow trees?

On Thursday afternoon and evening one of the worst thunderstorms in years passed over this Island. Mrs. Ina Rix of Springfield West had her barn struck and burned to the ground with all the contents, although there was a heavy rain falling and a large crowd gathered, there was nothing that could be done to save the barn and other outbuilding. The only building saved was the house. There was a number of other buildings struck, but not much damage done to any on the O'Leary Road. In Hebron, Mr. Lowell Clements had his barn struck and burnt to the ground with a number of pigs and calves and everything in the barn. His loss was a heavy one. Mr. James MacIsaac passed away during the thunder-storm.

The Bethel United Church Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mr. Lennan, Green Hill. Also Mrs. Pappas' sister, Mrs. Brenton Hudson and Mr. Hudson, Casum
