Lost.

BY J. B. DOCKENDORFF.

Lost, only a leaflet faded and worn. But it told a tale, how on one bright day it was plucked by a youthful hand and borne to light from the parent stem away.

Lost, only a worn-out band of gold. A gift from a hand so soft and warm in a time long past, ere a love grew cold.

Lost, only a picture scratched and marred by the all-destroying hand of time; Once 'twas looked upon with a warm regard.

Lost, an honest, upright and honored name, In a moment's time; but that one dark deed Throughout all time must remain the same.

Lost, a name, no never, when once disgraced. Southport, P. E. L., May 27th, 1889.

Orchard and Garden.

The Halifax Herald says that King's County, N. S., farmers have paid Upper Canada and American nurserymen $10,000 for trees this season.

The most effective fertilizer for flowering plants is a solution of a pound of nitrate of soda in a barrel of water, of which a quart is poured around the plants directly after a shower or when the shower is falling.

How do you treat Lily of the Valley? Many persons treat this favorite as if decent care and fertility did not count in its case. This is a mistake, says "Popular Gardening." Take the usual mat of crowded plants, productive of enfeebled flowers, and it may be greatly improved by the following course: The bed should be laid off into blocks about one foot square, then every other block removed to a good depth (one foot at least), cutting down the sides square and the well-manured soil, treading it firmly; then the roots and offshoots of the remaining plants will soon occupy the fresh soil.

Mother's Style vs. Father's.

He looked very pale, tired and dejected as he threw himself on the lounge in the dark corner of the room.

"My poor boy! What ails you?" "Sick."

"What made you so sick?" "Pa said at dinner time I would be sick if I eat another dumpling, but I didn't believe him; I eat another one and I'm sick."

"I'm so sorry; I guess I'll have to give you a dose of castor oil."

"I would rather be sick, ma, than to take oil."

"Not if I put it in porter, then you won't taste the oil."

"I don't want the oil."

"Won't you, dear, if I give you a cup of jelly to eat to take the taste of the oil out of your mouth?"

"Give me a big piece of cake to eat with the jelly?"

"Yes, dear."

"And a big orange?"

"Yes, my poor sick boy."

"A big bunch of bananas and some candy?"

"Yes, dear."

Andy's father came in at this point and spoiled the boy's prospects of a feast of good things.

Going up to Andy and inquiring what the trouble was, Andy's voice became very weak, and in an almost inaudible whisper he gasped "sick." In fact his voice was so weak his sire was obliged to stoop down to catch the word, and at the same time caught the fragrance of a "two-for-five" breath.

"Sick, hey? Been smoking, hey? You young Arab. (Cuffs him.) Smoking cigars, hey? (Boxes his ears.) I'll teach you to smoke; come along here."

And he takes Andy in the back yard and with a single persuaded him to never try again to obtain good things under false pretence, while his ma stood by wringing her hands in anguish at her boy's punishment, and mentally voting Andy's father "a brute."—Norriston Herald.

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Here We Are Again!

McLEOD & MCKENZIE, STAR MERCHANT TAILORS,

The Original and Peerless Artists of Our Day.

THE ABOVE HAS BEEN A SETTLED FACT FOR YEARS, and to keep before the public what is so well known to every good dresser in this Province, may seem superfluous. But as a good dinner tends to give a quietus to the disturbing influences within the inner man, so a thorough knowledge of our capabilities will give a quietus to anyone who may have had the good fortune of being dressed by us. The sun rises and sets, and it appears to the ordinary judgment that the sun revolves around the earth instead of the earth revolving around the sun; so we, through the immense strides we have taken in our art, would appear to the uneducated to be moving around our many friends, instead of they moving around us; like the sun imparts its warm rays to revive drooping nature, so we are the benefactors of our people, by aiming high and attaining to a STYLE and FINISH in our Garments, which cannot but commend us as the MERCHANT TAILORING PHILANTHROPISTS of our day.

Are you anxious to test the foregoing? Come in, then, and see our line of Goods, which are superior, in every sense of the word, and we will fit you out with a Suit which will doubtless draw the loving remark from your best girl that she has "the best dressed young man in town." Call
