Bruins Break Winless Streak, Edge Canadiens 3-2

MONTREAL, Nov. 5 — (CP) — Boston Bruins broke their winless hoodoo Saturday night at the expense of Montreal Canadiens with a 3-2 National Hockey League victory in an injury-ridden, rugged game.

A crowd of 14,060 saw the Bruins score almost half as many goals in this one game as they had been able to amass in their eight previous games of the season.

The cellar-dwelling Bruins, with only seven goals in their previous five losses and three ties, placed themselves one game behind the fifth-placed New York Rangers. Canadiens in second-place have lost three games in a row.

The Bruins opened up a 3-0 lead before a desperate rally by Canadiens threatened to wipe it out. Johnny Peirson and Ed Sandford scored in the first period on close-in shots, with Lorne Ferguson and Dave Creighton feeding the passes. Ed Harrison rapped in the second period. The play was set up by Sandford's passout from the end boards and Eddie Reigle's perfect pass to the goalmouth.

Canadiens fought back with power plays in a wild scramble for goals. Elmer Lach slipped in a short shot on passes from Rocket Richard and Normie Dussault and then Leo Gravelle, taking Billy Reay's relay from a faceoff, beat goalie Jack Gelineau.

From there on Canadiens stormed the Boston zone but they messed up many attempts while the scrappy, victory-tasting Bruins, backed by Gelineau's great work, hung grimly to the lead.

Gelineau had to handle 35 shots while Gerry McNeil in the Montreal nets had only 15.

Canadiens used four of their injury-harassed defencemen, Butch Bouchard, Doug Harvey, Glen Harmon and Hal Lavoie. Bouchard again hurt his damaged ankle in the third period and limped from the ice. Boston was without Mill Schmidt, who suffered a shoulder separation Thursday night in a game with Chicago Black Hawks.

TORONTO 2, NEW YORK 2

TORONTO, Nov. 5 — (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs, who have a new-found sting in their five-man power play, battled New York Rangers to a 2-2 draw in a National Hockey League game before 13,431 fans at Maple Leaf Gardens last night. Both Leaf goals came when the Rangers were short-handed.

It took the Leafs less than a minute to wipe out a 1-0 second-period Ranger lead with two fast goals, both engineered with the league leaders playing five men up. It was pattern power-play at its best.

With Tony Leswick and Frankie Eddolls in the penalty box, coach Joe Primeau of Leafs sent Max Bentley, the dippy-doodle kid from DeLisle, Sask., in with the Teeder Kennedy-Tod Sloan-Sid Smith line and it was a pay-off move.

Smith finished off one gangling attack with a goal at 8:50 on passes from Kennedy and Bentley. Kennedy, with Bentley and Sloan getting the assists, scored the other 59 seconds later. In both cases, five Leaf players were inside the Ranger blue line.

These two goals were enough to wipe out a marker by Nick Mickoski at the 6:53 mark and send Toronto ahead. But less than seven minutes later Eddie Slowinski got one past Al Rollins, substituting for the veteran Turk Broda in the Leaf nets, to tie it. That ended the night's scoring.

The game was spotty, particularly in the first period when both Rollins and Chuck Rayner in the New York net each had only four shots to stop. Leafs had a 12-to-8 edge on shots on goal in the second and Rangers outshot Leafs 6-5 in the final 20 minutes.
