PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION NOTES. — Extensive preparations are being made, both at the Drill Shed and Governor's field, for the reception of the live stock, agricultural products and manufactured articles, which are to be on Exhibition on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The cattle sheds are now finished and are highly creditable to all concerned. We would advise those who wish to secure comfortable stalls for their horses and cattle to make immediate application, as we learn they are being rapidly taken up by exhibitors Reference to Prize List will show that no live stock entries can be made after the 7th inst. Hence the necessity of immediate action in order to secure comfortable quarters.

WOOL BLANKETS, a fine stock, at the London House. [oct 5 3i

THE editor of the Patriot has resolved himself into a court of revision for the trial of awards made by the judges at the Dominion Exhibition. About the qualifications of the witty editor for his task we raise no question. But the task seems to us an invidious one. People differ as much in their opinions about horses, as they do about babies; and everyone who has a good horse thinks his the best. Between two such beauties as those belonging to Messrs. Rodd and McLeod, it is certainly very difficult to decide; and it detracts nothing from the great merits of Mr. McLeod's horse that Mr. Rodd got the first prize this year. Neither will the award of the judges hurt "All Right," whose peculiar merits were recognized by all who saw the horse in the ring at Halifax.

GRAIN BAGS, 2, 3, 4 bushels, at the London House. [oct 5 3i

On several occasions since the lamented death of President Garfield, we have heard persons remark that it appeared strange that among the numberless telegrams of condolence from Governments, Corporations, societies, etc., in the neighboring Provinces, our Province alone should have the unenviable distinction of being the only one that showed no emotion, and the more pointed it seemed on acount of our intimate relations with the Great Republic. Confident in the knowledge of Governor Haviland as to the proper course to be pursued in such cases, we felt assured that the correct official line had been observed, and we have much pleasure to-day in publishing copies of the telegram addressed by Governor Haviland to Secretary Blaine upon the occasion, and of the courteous reply which has been received.

To HON. J. G. BLAINE, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

SEPTEMBER 22, 1881.

On behalf of the inhabitants of Prince Edward Island, I tender you their heartfelt sorrow for the death of President Garfield. Mrs. Garfield has the sympathy of all classes in this Province, in the hour of her trial and irreparable loss.

(Signed) T. HEATH HAVILAND,
Lieut. Governor.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 1881.

THE HONORABLE T. HEATH HAVILAND, Lieut. Governor of Prince Edward Island, Charlottetown.

SIR,—In the temporary absence of the Secretary of State from the Capital, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of the 22nd inst., conveying, on behalf of the inhabitants of Prince Edward Island, assurances of their heartfelt sorrow for the death of President Garfield, and of their touching sorrow for Mrs. Garfield in her bereavement

It affords me a sad pleasure to assure you, and, through you, the generous hearted people of your Province, of the deep emotion with which, not only the grief-stricken family of the honored dead, but the whole American people as well, have viewed the tender manifestation of fraternal grief which comes from all parts of Her Majesty's Dominions in America, in this hour of loss.

I have the honor to be,
With the highest consideration,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) ROBERT HITT,
Acting Sec'y.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.

The Grand Jury met to-day and immediately proceeded to the consideration of the case of Charles J. Guiteau, charged with murdering James A. Garfield. The only witnesses heard were Surgeon General Barnes, who testified as to the wound, and Officer Adams, on duty at the depot at the time the fatal shot was fired. Dr. Lamb, who conducted the autopsy, was also given a hearing, but before his testimony was concluded the jury adjourned until to-morrow.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 3.

A dance on a farm near here, on Saturday, wound up with the murder of David Stowers and Feula Walter. One of these men had insulted Dick Carico who on meeting them asked them which was the man. There was a grasping of revolvers in which Carico did the quickest and most effective work.

TUNIS, Oct. 3.

Insurgents have torn up the track of the French railway, burned the station at Wadzeregah and massacred twelve employes, including several British subjects, some of whom they burnt alive.

Later intelligence than the above states that the number of victims reported is larger than first stated. The railway rolling stock was destroyed.

CALCUTTA, Oct. 3.

The commission appointed to inquire into the transport and commissariat operations during the Afghan campaign discovered a vast amount of bribery and corruption, and several influential native bankers have been arrested.

At a special meeting of the Indian Council it was decided to withdraw the British troops from Chaman and Chojyk outposts, and to reduce the Quetta garrison to its original strength, plus one European regiment. This means to show the confidence of the Government in regard to the effect of the recent battle in pacifying Afghanistan.

TUNIS, Oct. 3.

Ammunition, with an escort of 300 Tunisians, reached Ali Bey safely. In the third fight on September 29th, Ali Bey lost 51 men—killed and wounded. The Arabs finally retired across the river Melina. Thirteen hundred Tunisian deserters have arrived at Tunis from Susa. They will be sent to reinforce Ali Bey.
