REVIEWS OF THE WORK.

"MANHOOD, by J. L. CURTIS.—We agree with the Author, that so far from words of this class being objectionable in the hands of youth, or difficulties being opposed, every facility should be given to their circulation; and to strengthen our opinion, we need but refer to the cases of distressing events at our Military and Scholastic Academies at Carabalton and Woolwich."—Naval and Military Gazette, Feb. 1, 1851.

"We feel no hesitation in saying, that there is no member of society by whom the book will not be found useful—whether such person hold the relation of a parent, preceptor, or a clergyman.—Sun, Evening Paper.

"QUITE ON MANHOOD.—Fortunate for a country would it be, did its youth put into practice, the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate, be succeeded by a renewal of the hardy, vigorous spirits of the olden time."—Chronicle.

Published by the AUTHOR; who begs to inform patients in the East and West Indies, the Mediterranean and the British Colonies, that their cases can be successfully treated by correspondence only, if the usual fee be enclosed, and the most inviolable secrecy may be relied on.
