

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Electric Railway.—There is to be an electric street railway.

Letter of Condolence.—Mrs. Parthier is the recipient of a letter of condolence, in which "the kindest and most heart-felt sympathy" of the Rural Deacons of St. John is expressed concerning the loss of her departed husband, the Rev. D. B. Parthier.

Discovered at Chicago.—We learn, with great regret, that Mr. Alfred J. Gay, son of Mr. George Gay, of Travellers Rest, was drowned at Chicago, on the 16th inst. Mr. Gay was in his 46th year. Particulars of the accident have not yet been received.

Francis Bonyon.—Mr. Hackett is collecting bounty claims in Prince County this week, and Mr. Lord will be at New London, Bastion and Tracadie on a similar mission during the week beginning the 20th inst. Mr. Bonyon, of Cornwall, of St. John, has charge of this work for King's County.

Theatrical.—The Masonic Temple will be formally opened on Monday next, the 21st inst., upon which occasion a company of amateur players will present the popular drama "The Russian Honeycomb." On Thursday evening, the 20th, the same performers will put "Emeralds" upon the boards.

This is HARD TIMES.—A New Brunswick writer from a small Massachusetts town says: "Business still continues dull here; mills running only three days per week, with cut downs and reductions of force. There is no end to loafers, some reduced to the apparent need of stealing from farmers' fields, orchards and henneries."

The FAREWELL.—The steamer FAREWELL arrived from Summerside at six o'clock this morning. She will leave for Halifax this afternoon, at four o'clock, with a cargo made up mainly of lobsters, potatoes, oats and pork. The principal shippers are: C. B. B. & M. Battenbury and Archibald Melnie, of Wallace. Mr. J. C. McKay goes as a passenger.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon a countryman named John Crehan was fined $2 or 8 days for being drunk and disorderly on the 18th inst. This afternoon Charles Kenney, cook on board the cruiser Acadia, was ordered to be imprisoned for four weeks with hard labor and forfeit ten days' pay for deserting the ship, and Thomas McWhinney, seaman on board the Kingfisher, was ordered to be imprisoned one week for a similar offence.

A TABLET.—Judging by the reports in the papers, our townsmen, Mr. J. T. Melnie, met with a grand reception on the occasion of his recent visit to Amherst to speak at the opening of the new academy. The addresses are reported to fall in to Amherst Press, from which we learn that the building cost $33,000, and is 128 feet long by 71 feet wide. The Press states that Mr. A. B. Dickey, M. P., "paid a glowing tribute to Mr. J. T. Melnie, the first principal of Amherst Academy, and on behalf of the citizens of Amherst and the old boys," welcomed him to the town.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—There was a good attendance at the missionary meeting held in the basement of Zion Church last evening, under the auspices of the W. F. M. S. of that church. The choir, consisting of Rev. D. Sutherland. The meeting opened with singing and prayer, after which the following programme was carried out in a manner that reflected credit upon all who took part: Solo, by Miss Gillis; Report of Delegate to the Synod, C. H. Convent; Duet, by May and Josie Pedley; Missionary Reading, by Mrs. D. Sutherland; Duet, by Dorothy Hogan and Annie McLeod; Anthem by the choir. Mrs. Matheson's report of the Synod Convention was exceedingly interesting. A collection in aid of the mission fund was taken up, and the meeting closed with the doxology.

ILLEGAL LOBSTER FISHING.—A few days ago, as the cruiser Kingfisher was coming into Charlottetown harbor, Captain Kent espied several men in a boat putting out lobster traps off the bluff east of Keppoch. After the Kingfisher dropped anchor inside the harbor, the captain dispatched a boat's crew to look into the matter. As the cruiser's boat rounded Hospital Point it came upon three men in a boat having live lobsters on board, and making for the shore. One of the men, who was in command of the cruiser's boat, at once took charge of the men and brought them and their boat to the Kingfisher. The captured boat belonged to Neil Stewart, who lives near the locality, and Stewart was one of the men in the boat. Captain Kent promptly fined Stewart for fishing illegally, and the fine was paid. After turning over Stewart and the other men to the captain of the Kingfisher, Officer Graham and his boat's crew returned to Keppoch shore where they succeeded in finding and destroying 125 traps.

THE TURT.—The races at Keppoch yesterday were attended by about two hundred people. Nellie Bly won the 2.50 class in straight heats, her best time being 2.47. Patrick Murphy's horse won the named race in straight heats. Best trotting, 3:14. It is announced that a record trotting meeting will be given Oct. 25, 26 and 27, at the Terra Haute, Ind., track. The Duke, Starr, Salisbury and other stables will take part, and if the weather is favorable Nancy Hanks, Arion, Stamboul, Bell-Vars, Flying Jib and Director will make a final effort to reduce the world's record this year. This is intended to wind up the trotting season. A late Kenosha, Wis., despatch says: Morris J. Jones refuses to trot Alex against Pateley, but will match Alex against either Nancy Hanks, Stamboul, or any other horse owned or controlled by the parties challenging him. He has sent them the following telegram: "E. McHenry, Lexington, Ky., Leathers and Duke had their opportunity to defeat Alex with Pateley and lost. Will not waste ammunition on dead game. Will trot Alex against Nancy Hanks, Stamboul or any other horse you or Duke own or control which Alex has not already defeated."

THE STORY OF A CASE! PART I. Yesterday we received a case of goods that deserves more than a passing notice. To begin with, we don't mind confessing that when in England we are chronic sufferers from rheumatism. Well, during one of our rambles we ran against this case. 'Twas just in time. If we had not secured it when we did someone else would have got it. It came originally from Germany. The goods in it were made there, and to come to the point at once we bought them at our own price,—such a price as the goods were never made for,—but then they were samples, and that accounts for it. To-day these goods are telling their story in our north window. Tomorrow they will tell their own story in the daily papers.

BEER BULLETIN. Tomorrow, Oct. 19, 10 a. m. Light to moderate wind; fine, stationary or a little higher temperature.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

QUEEN SQUARE GARDENS.

Sir,—Unless some means can be devised to induce the Minister of Public Works at Ottawa to pay without any further delay the amount due by the Dominion Government for their share towards the maintenance of Queen Square for years 1891 and 1892, or, unless funds are provided in some other way, the work must be stopped at once. The Dominion do not feel inclined any longer to become responsible for the wages, coal, &c., nor do they care to ask the labourers to come out to work without receiving their well earned wages. Yours truly, HOLLACE HAZARD, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE MUD MACHINE.

Sir,—In the Patriot of Oct. 12 appeared a communication signed "J. D. Dewar," in which the writer makes insinuations which are at variance with truth. He tells us of the beautifully turpished highways and the many people who have been made happy by his instrumentality. But he forgets to tell us of the mud and mire through which the traveller has now to wend his way on the same highways, so beautifully alluded to by him. He speaks of working the mud machine on the "Union Road." This will be a serious matter for the farmers of Summerside and Lot 66, who were compelled to climb the steep hills on that road last fall to avoid as much as possible the mud through New Perth and the Montague Road, made impassable by the boggy brigade. The writer had occasion to travel the Perth Station Road the very day Mr. Dewar's note appeared, and a more impassable road it would be hard to imagine, having to take the side of the road in many places, in order to make any satisfactory progress. Mr. Dewar still indulges in his untruthful insinuations regarding Mr. Shaw, who needs no better recommendation than to be slandered by such officials. Mr. Shaw is a man of whom his district is proud, and his name is recognized as the rock on which the people of this Province rest their hope of future prosperity, and when the names of the class of which Mr. Dewar is a member are mentioned, they are forgotten, the name of Cyrus Shaw will remain engrained in the hearts of a grateful people, as one of her most trustworthy, brilliant and patriotic sons. CIVIL SERVICE.—The civil service examination at Charlottetown will be held on 14th November.

HUNGARIANS FOR MANITOBA.—The Rev. J. Koszas, a Hungarian clergyman, resident at Pittsburg, Pa., visits the Interior Department at Ottawa, a few days ago, in reference to the migration of a number of Hungarian families from that state to Manitoba and the Northwest next spring. Mr. Koszas has assurances from 50 to 75 families that they will remove to Manitoba from the United States next year. They possess an average $600 per family. They are not satisfied with their lot in the United States. Mr. Koszas is thoroughly familiar with the great west, and he will be able to exert considerable influence in inducing the people to migrate to Canada. Mr. Koszas is corresponding with no fewer than 700 Hungarian families on the subject of migrating to Canada.

A gentleman visiting our city says that he has been in New York and Boston, also the principal cities in Canada, and has had clothing made by the leading merchant tailors, paying as high as $75 for a single garment. He decided to take as a souvenir from P. E. Island a suit of clothes made by our leading clothier, D. A. Bruce, and he declares that he got better satisfaction there than from any other tailoring establishment in his travels. He intends to send here in future for his clothing, and has likewise taken a supply with him.
