Mar. U.C. Women Meet At Moncton

The first annual meeting of the Maritime Conference Woman's Association of the United Church of Canada, held last week in the Central United Church, Moncton, N. B. was largely attended by delegates from every organized Presbytery Woman's Association in the conference.

The sessions were presided over by the president, Mrs. L.G. Marshall, Bedford, N.S. who, in her message to the conference, stated that the great prayers made during the first year of organization was due mainly to the vision, leadership, zeal, enthusiasm and willingness to co-operate on the part of the W.A. leaders surely these augur well for the growth and life of the organization in the days ahead.

vements which have been taking place.

Highlights of the meeting were two interesting addresses. Rev. T.D.F. Everett of the New Glasgow United Church, chose as his topic "The Woman, the Church and the World". Mrs. Jean Parker of the Atlantic Christian Training Centre, Tatamagouche, spoke on "The Spotlight on Leadership".

Delegates attending from the P.E.I. Presbytery Woman's Association were Mrs. Ewen Anderson, president; Mrs. Lester Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Seaman, Mrs. Stewart Wright and Mrs. Neil Darrah.

eastward. There is no through highway route in Canada. "American trucks used to advantage the same privileges of delivering freight from one American point to another over Canadian highways."

Canadian trucks made no pickup or delivery of these goods in the U.S. and "no evidence whatsoever has been cited to show that there has been a threat to the internal security of the U.S." Mr. Macée said.

Mr. Diefenbaker referred to this argument in the Commons and said: "It is the opinion of the Canadian government that the action taken does not fall within the ambit of the section in question." The U.S. had been so informed.

VIOLATION BY U.S.? Last Friday when the American action was disclosed, Mr. Magee and Ferguson Browne, Progressive Conservative Commons member for Vancouver-Kingsway, charged that the U.S. had violated GATT provisions on non-interference in the traffic of goods among member countries.

Mr. Magee said Monday: "After six years of hauling Chinese food products over American highways we were very surprised when the U.S. customs put in this ban last Feb. 19. The freight had always moved in trailers sealed before entry into the U.S. and trailers remained sealed for the entire movement over American highways."

The Red China soy sauce, shrimp and herbs, destined for Chinese restaurants in Canada, had always moved over American highways from Vancouver

MACLEOD — At Churchill, May 5, 1959, Daniel MacKinnon of Churchill in his 70th year. Remains will be transferred this afternoon from the Outlife Funeral Home to his late residence. Funeral notice later.
