Monthly Meeting Of Childrens Aid Society Board

The regular monthly meeting of the board of management of the Childrens Aid Society of Prince County was held in the Town Hall Tuesday evening, April 14th. The chairman, Dr. J. A. McPhee presided.

The agent and trustee officer, Mr. J. Harrington, in his report stated that during the past month the work was almost nil. The teaching in the High School all reported good attendance. However, a number of children have been kept home for the want of foot wear and clothing. Some clothing had been supplied by the Catholic Women's League, which had helped matters considerably. Some had also been received from outside sources, but in a great many cases he had been obliged to purchase same with the funds of the Society in order to keep the children in school. In fact about $30.00 had been spent by the Society for the purpose. Any parents having second hand clothing for boys and girls under twelve years will be gladly received by Mr. Harrington at his house on Church Street, or he will call for same in any part of the Town. In one place in the town the agent reported he had two little girls aged 8 years and 10 years, who were well clothed but had not been in school this year. Mr. Harrington reported that it was difficult to bring the parents under the compulsory attendance law. The School Act, owing to the fact that the school inspectors must bring the prosecution under the Act, and it was not, therefore, within the power of the trustee officer to do anything in the matter. He regretted to report that his department in the past, failed to produce any results. He reported that he had requested an amendment to the Act giving power to the trustee officer to prosecute parents guilty of keeping their children home from school, but no action had yet been taken. It was reported to the Society that a young girl was found by Police who could not give a satisfactory account of herself and she was locked up for the day and sent her home at Central Bedoune on the promise not to return to Summerside.

Legislation Depends On Court Decision

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 15.—The New Brunswick government's proposal to extend the powers of the Public Utilities Board to supervision of industry depends upon the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada regarding the Dominion government's authority to pass like legislation, the legislature was told today.

A bill introduced yesterday by Hon. J. B. McNair, Attorney-General, provides for extension of the authority of the Public Utilities Board to enable it to investigate commercial practices and marketing conditions in any trade or industry in the province.

Today Premier Dymally and the Attorney-General announced the bill would become effective only if the court decision found the Dominion government without power to enact such legislation.

Mr. V. J. Harrington was recommended to the Town Council to be appointed as trustee officer for the coming year.—S.

Parliament Faces Heavy Agenda

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, April 15.—Interest in Parliamentary activities from now to prorogation will be divided among the Red and Green Chambers and the half dozen committees which are faced with heavy agendas and which have not yet really commenced their work.

Radio, railways, pensions, elections, privileges of the House Speaker and agriculture are subjects of special committees of the House, and all are expected to ask for permission to sit while the House is sitting, which will mean many empty seats in the Green Chamber from now on.

Of outstanding public interest will be the committees on railways, radio, pensions and agriculture. Election reform will be dealt with at some length, but no legislation is expected at the present session in view of the fact it is not likely to be needed for some years. Questions of privileges of the Speaker during the interim between defeat of a government and elections of a new speaker will deal with matters of procedure.

Necessary Undertaking

"I might further say, sir, that I fully realize the responsibility that this throws upon our Department, and I assure the Legislature and the Country at large that every effort will be made to economize in expenditures, and with the money expended an earnest effort will be made to accomplish the most that can be done for the Farming Industry in this Province and the question naturally arises—Is it worth it? To that question there can be only one answer. The thinking business men know that if the farmers of this the country not as well provided for as we would wish, but we are hopeful yet of being able to secure some assistance from private interests for isolated localities that are in need of immediate attention. I wish to say that if arrangements can be made, our Department is willing and anxious to cooperate with them in every way possible, in order that a better service will be received by the Province at large.

General Policy

"In regard to our general policy, I might say that after consulting with the Livestock Department, with the Experimental Farm authorities, and with our Deputy, it has been decided that for the time being we would centre our endeavours largely on poultry and hogs, and increased production of field crops. There is, Mr. Speaker, a reason for this. Namely, that the poorer class of farmer, whom it is our intention to first consider, can more cheaply get into this line of agricultural endeavor than into the ordinary lines of Live Stock; with a further reason that returns must reach him much more quickly than from any other class of live stock.

"This will mean additional help in our Department in order to get in close contact with the people in this matter but to give them instructions and advice in the proper handling of young chicks, and the poultry business in general.

Hog Industry

"In regard to the hog industry, I might say, using the Livestock Shipping Clubs and with the information obtained from the Dominion Livestock Branch, that find there are some sections of the country well established in the hog industry, but I regret to say that there are other sections that ship scarcely any hogs during the year.

"It will be our aim to stimulate an interest with regard to the sections that have not up to the present time participated in the advantage of this industry—to do everything possible to get them established in some way or other in the producing of better and more hogs.

"When we come to realize that a man with a young brood sow of bacon type can, with one of her off-spring, about meet the cost of the purchase of said dam, it shows us that it is a profitable business, more especially for the poorer class of farmers as well as for those who do not need our assistance.

"The question will naturally arise in the minds of many as to supply and demand. In regard to that, I would say that our bacon shipped in carlots to the English market and while there may be a time in the future when supply may equal or in fact surpass demand, the small amount that our Province can produce will not have any material effect on the British market.

"I might say that I appreciate very much the fact that the Premier, the executive and the Legislature have seen fit to express their confidence in our Department to the extent that they have been willing to substantially increase the appropriations for our Department, and I am asking the members of the House if possible, to see that such estimates are endorsed by this House.

Opening Remarks

In opening, Mr. Dennis congratulated the Premier on the wonderful progress that has been made during this session with regard to the work of this Legislature.

"It seems to me, sir, that the conditions under which we have discharged our duties are indeed unique. Never, possibly, in the history of any parliament in the British Empire has there been a party of men associated together with one common purpose in mind but rather has there been factions with party ideas of their own, making attempts to further the interest of their own party, sometimes at the expense of the best interests of the Province or Nation.

"Fortunately our case is different and we have here a solid block of supporters, standing shoulder to shoulder behind our leader, striving to do what they can for the betterment of this little province.

"I am not unmindful of the fact that many of our opponents, who went down to defeat at the last Provincial election, were men of integrity and honour, believing in their own way, that their methods and principals for which they stood were in the best interests of the Country.

"I think, sir, that we should keep in mind the fact that while we have a sweeping majority, that very majority places on our

Shoulders Increased Responsibilities

The people have taken us into their confidence, they are looking to us to redeem all pledges we have made, they are looking to us to husband the resources of this Province, also they will expect, as near as possible, for us to maintain the public service at as high a standard as it is possible to do so while practising stern and rigid economy.

Congratulates Premier

"I might also say, Mr. Speaker, that there are other reasons why this party should be grateful to our honored Premier. During the last campaign when unfortunately our late lamented Premier was an invalid and unable to actively participate in the carrying on of an active political campaign, we had doubts and fears, Mr. Speaker, as to whether it was possible for a man, no matter how vigorous or what his organizing abilities might be, to take hold of the campaign and carry it through to a successful issue, while he, himself, was contending one of the largest electoral districts in the Province.

It was a pleasant surprise to us all when the results of the election returns came in, to know that he had not only had one of the largest majorities in the Province, but that he had secured as a following for his leader, the late Hon. W. M. Lea, a solid block of thirty members. Such has not been done before in this the second oldest legislature on the American Continent; such has never been done before as far as is known in the history of the British Empire and, sir, I am turning to the Honourable Gentleman at the present time to say—I congratulate you, sir, on your accomplishment.

Then again, it is worthy to note the expeditious manner in which business has been done during the present session, and I think that not only the membership of this House, but the rank and file of the districts throughout the Province, approved of the manner in which he has been able to carry on the business of the session."

Home Secretary Denies Appeal For Clemency

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) BIRMINGHAM, April 15.—Home Secretary Sir John Simon tonight denied a second appeal for clemency for Mrs. Dorothy Waddingham. She will be hanged at 9 a. m. tomorrow at Windsor Green Prison for the killing of a patient at her nursing home.

Sir John said he could find no ground on which to justify a reprieve.

Defence Counsel sent the second plea to the home office after interviewing two unidentified persons, one of whom was reported to be Ronald J. Sullivan, co-operator of the nursing home in which two patients, Mrs. Louisa Baguley and her daughter, Miss Ada Louise Baguley, died.

Sullivan and Mrs. Waddingham were charged with their deaths by slow poison. The former was tried and acquitted of killing the mother. Mrs. Waddingham was convicted of the killing of the daughter.

The Criminal Appeal Court rejected the nurse's appeal. She will be the ninth woman to be hanged in England since 1900.

Stratosphere Harbors Natural Chemical Factory

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) KANSAS CITY, April 15.—First clues to a vast, natural chemical factory in the stratosphere, containing a different kind of oxygen, and even possibilities of use as a flying sanitarium for some ailments were reported to the American Chemical Society here today.

Up where the temperatures are 58 below zero Fahrenheit—it appears from studies reported by Dr. Malcolm Dole of Northwestern University that the oxygen carried aloft in the evaporation of sea water leaves the tiny droplets and transfers to the air, while at the same time oxygen in the air takes the place vacated by the sea water oxygen.

The oxygen of water and that of air are not the same, a fact Dr. Dole announced a few months ago which has since been confirmed by other scientists.

Gang Believed Hiding in Quebec Woods

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MASSON, Que., April 15.—Half a dozen Quebec detectives tonight watched the roads around this village near the mouth of the Leveve River in the belief four men who robbed the Bank of Nova Scotia at Lachute $3,500 yesterday were hiding in the woods nearby.

Belief the men were not far away followed discovery today of a handcar stolen from a Canadian Pacific Railway section toolhouse at St. Philippe, about 40 miles east of here, not far from the spot where an automobile, believed used by the desperadoes in their flight west from Lachute, was found yesterday.

First reports said the handcar had been found at Buckingham, three miles north of here, but Police Chief Rabbi of that town said tonight it had been discovered close to Masson on the north-shore line of the Canadian Pacific.

The Chief said he was sure the men had not reached Buckingham and that they could not have gone west in the direction of Hull, 23 miles away, because police had blocked the road.
