CRICKET at Victoria Park to-morrow afternoon.

POLICE COURT.—One drunk was fined $2 or 8 days.

WANTED.—Old fashioned Tall Clock. Address, P. O. Box 463. aug. 28, 3 i.

THE BALANCE of Plants and Bulbs must be cleared out to-morrow, at 11 o'clock. Rare chance for bargains.—C. I. Morrison.

THE SALE of Plants and Bulbs will be continued to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, a. m., at 106 Queen Street.

MUSICAL.—Miss Alice Wilson will commence the Fall term of music lessons on September 8th.

"BOOK-KEEPING is an art which must contribute to the advantage of all who desire to be rich and all who desire to be wise."—Dr. Johnson.

A COMPLIMENT.—As a mark of courtesy to the Press Association, the Citizens Band will play in the Public Gardens this evening, between 8 and 9.

FIREMEN DISCHARGED.—Four firemen were discharged from the steamer Worcester yesterday for drunkenness. Their places were filled by three wharf hands taken from town.

TENNIS.—Players in the Tennis Tournament to-morrow afternoon, are requested to be on the grounds not later than 3.15 o'clock, when the drawing will take place. Play will begin at 3.30 sharp.

THE ARTILLERY TEAM.—The names of Gunners McAree, Heartz and Woods were omitted from the list of the shifting ordnance team as given in yesterday's issue of THE EXAMINER. One man also goes from Georgetown.

OMISSION.—In our account of the consecration ceremonies at St. Dunstan's yesterday, the name of the Rev. T. E. Lynch was by mistake omitted from the list of clergy present. Father Lynch represented the Lord Bishop of Harbor Grace.

RIFLE MATCH.—The annual prize meeting of No. 2 Battery will be held on Monday next, commencing at one o'clock. Last year's Government regulations to be observed. The last match of this year's series will be fired on the morning of the same day, at 8 o'clock.

SPORT.—Some incredible shooting stories, regarding the havoc some of our sportsmen have caused amongst the plover, are being told about town. They are really so very wonderful that we must be pardoned for shrugging our shoulders and fearing to publish.

THE STORM.—The storm on last Wednesday night caused a great loss of fruit in many of the orchards throughout the country. Plums, damsons, etc., which in any case would have been but a small crop were nearly all blown off the trees and destroyed.

THE LAST RITE.—The funeral of the unfortunate man, Guilfoyle left the residence of P. Blake, Esq., at nine o'clock this morning, and proceeded to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem Mass was celebrated. A large number of people followed the body to the grave.

A YOUTHFUL TRAVELER.—The eleven year old daughter of J. W. Waugh, of Waltham, Mass., helped herself to $10 from her father's purse, and started for Tatamagouche to visit her grandmother. She reached St. John, where the police detained her, at the father's request, and sent her back to Waltham.

W. C. T. U.—During the following week Mrs. Jean Trenholm, an official member of the Maritime Women's Christian Temperance Union will address meetings at Mount Stewart, Montague Bridge and Murray Harbor. We bespeak for this gifted lady a good attendance.

DAMAGE TO TREES.—People who make a practice of tethering their cattle to the trees on our public squares should be severely dealt with. A day or two ago we noticed some calves tied in this manner on Rochford Square, feeding on the grass round about, while an old cow very contentedly munched the young branches of the trees overhead.

BOOK-KEEPING.—Principal Miller, of the Charlottetown Business College, will give a medal to the second-class student having the best set of books at the end of the ensuing term. The prize is given with the worthy object of encouraging good penmanship, and will no doubt be earnestly striven for.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Brown, sailed for Boston last night. She had a full cargo of general merchandise and the following passengers: Mrs. Margaret J. Wherry, John Doull, J. F. Doull, Mrs. Doull, J. W. Colson, Miss McLeod, Miss Hayden, Chas. J. Wright, Mrs. Henderson, J. Henderson, M. Henderson, Miss Connor, W. Stephen, C. Hosen, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. and Miss Stumblers.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

To Explore Alaska.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. A measure will soon be submitted Congress proposing an extensive military exploration of Alaska. General Gulchion, chairman of the house military committee, has been giving his attention to the matter for some time, and the details are pretty well along. It is proposed to take a force of 50 to 100 enlisted men, besides scientific men, guides, etc., with Capt. H. H. Ray, of the 88th Infantry, and Lieut. Kennan at the head. The expedition will remain in Alaska three years.

Shooting Accident.

QUEBEC, Aug. 29. A shocking accident occurred at Tring, Beauce County, resulting in the killing of a fifteen year old lad named Fortin by an uncle named Colombi. The latter was going to an adjoining parish for hay, taking a loaded rifle with him in the event of meeting bears. He called for his nephew to accompany him, and while arranging the rifle in the cart, the charge went off, lodging in the lad's head and killing him instantly.

Fire at Amherst.

AMHERST, N. S., Aug. 29. A fire broke out in A. Robb & Son's foundry and machine shop last night at 11 o'clock, and they, with the office and warehouse and all their contents, were completely destroyed, nothing but the boiler works being left standing. Several dwelling houses in the vicinity were also burned. At 2 o'clock the fire was under control. The loss is estimated at $75,000; insurance about $10,000.

A Total Wreck.

ST. JOHN, Aug. 28. Latest advices received here are to the effect that the steamer Ulunda will be a total wreck. At high tide during Wednesday's gale she floated aft and swung to and fro with the tide, and sank deeper into the water. Her engines are filling and the passengers and crew had to abandon her on Wednesday. Surveyors are now at work on her.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, Aug. 28. General Fitzhugh Lee, who was commander-in-chief of the Southern cavalry in the American war, will arrive here shortly as the guest of President Van Horne, of the C. P. R., and D. McGibbon, advocate. The Orangemen of this city now declare their intention of walking here next 12th of July.

THE REV. FRED E. J. LLOYD, Conductor of the Charlottetown Philharmonic Society, etc., etc., will take a few MUSIC PUPILS, whom he will visit at their own homes.

He will undertake to give instruction in Harmony, Counterpoint (Thorough Bass) and Composition, as well as in Vocal and Instrumental (Piano or Organ) Music.

Mr. Lloyd proposes to begin his instruction about the Second Week in September. Pupils for Harmony and Composition will only be received in class (of not less than six, or at the least four members,) for the present.

Mr. Lloyd is open to an engagement as Choirmaster to any of the City Choirs. Term, etc., on application. aug26—dy 6i then eod tf

DYSPEPTICURE not only aids Digestion and cures Indigestion, but positively does cure the most serious and long standing cases of Chronic Dyspepsia.

DYSPEPTICURE BY MAIL.

(Large size only). Dyspeptiure will be sent by mail to those who cannot yet procure it in their own vicinity. Many letters have been received from distant parts of Canada and United States enquiring how Dyspeptiure can be obtained; many letters have come from nearer places, but either have no handy store or where the remedy is not yet well known. To meet these demands, and at the same time make Dyspeptiure quickly known in places where, under ordinary circumstances, it might not reach for some considerable time, the large $1.00 size will be sent by mail without any extra expense to the user. The Post Office is everywhere, so none who wish the remedy need be without it. Upon receipt of $1.00 by Registered Letter or Post Office Order, a large bottle of Dyspeptiure (special mailing style) will be forwarded, postage prepaid, to any address. CHARLES K. SHORT, St. John, N. B.

Every Druggist and General Dealer in Canada should sell Dyspeptiure, as it is strongly demanded from all directions. Whoever introduced it soon becomes a standard remedy. The following Wholesale Houses handle Dyspeptiure: T. H. Barker & Sons, and S. McHardy, St. John; Brown & Webb, and Simon Bros. & Co., Halifax; Kerry, Watson & Co., Montreal, aug25
