ISLAND EVENT SELECTED IN TOP 100

The American Bus Association, based in Washington, D.C., has just announced that P.E.I.'s Old Home Week/Country Days has been selected as one of "The Top 100" tourism events for 1983 in North America.

A committee of six selected the year's outstanding events, based in part on their special appeal and accessibility to Motor-coach tours.

Jack Brown, representing the Provincial Exhibition, expressed great satisfaction for the recognition Old Home Week/Country Days has received and will receive in the future.

The Assistant Deputy Minister of Finance and Tourism stated that "celebrations and events on P.E.I. can match any on the North American continent." Garth Staples went on to say that "A great deal of publicity for P.E.I. and Old Home Week should be generated by the selection of the Island event."
