IN MEMORIAM

MYRTLE RAMSAY - The many friends of Myrtle Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramsay of Arlington were shocked and saddened by her sudden passing to higher service on Feb. 27. Being of a sunny disposition and uncomplaining nature Myrtle caused no one to be concerned regarding her health until the New Year, after which her condition became steadily worse.

Mr. Junior Arsenault spent a week-end recently at his home in Murray Road. Mr. Douglas Oatway has returned to his home after spending sometime in Truro. Messrs. Bradford MacKinnon and John J. Murphy were in Summerside on business recently.

Mrs. Hannah Milligan, Truro, is visiting her sons, Messrs. William, Murray Road, Arthur, Poplar Grove, and Colin at Conway. Mrs. Milligan plans on spending the summer months on the Island. Mrs. Clarence Ramsay and daughter, Barbara, Borden, recently spent a few days at their home here. Mrs. Henry Bryan and son Alvin, accompanied by Mrs. John D. Palmer, motored to Summerside recently.

Mr. Sterling Palmer, road master, is very busy these days getting the holes on the roads filled and bridges repaired. Miss Lauretta Bulger, Foxley River, has accepted a position as waitress at the New World Cafe, Summerside. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Matthews, Black Banks, are spending some time in Charlottetown where Mr. Matthews is employed by Jenkins Bros.

A very successful Teachers Study Group was held at Conway School on Tuesday afternoon, May 13th. The following teachers were in attendance, Miss MacNeill, Inverness; Mr. Keir Adams, Ellerslie; Mr. Alvin Hardy, Foxley River; Miss Cameron, Woodbrook; Miss Mary Henderson, Freeland; Miss George Case, Murray Road; Miss Muriel Wall, Maple Leaf; Mrs. Reginald Palmer, Poplar Grove, and Mrs. Oscar MacNeill, Conway. Mr. Merritt Callaghan, School Inspector, Alberton, was chairman of the meeting. Miss Marie Bonness, Junior Red Cross Commissioner, Charlottetown, was present and gave an interesting outline on how portfolios should be made, and had some very excellent samples with her for inspection by the teachers. Many important subjects relating to school work were discussed.

The love of her many friends and relatives was expressed by innumerable messages of sympathy, and by the following floral tributes: Pillow from Father, Mother, Marion, Gail, Ernest, Harry and Harland. Spray from Victor and Helen. Wreath from Uncles and Aunts George and Muriel, Marion and Stanley, Roland and Gertie, Ray and Mabel. Wreath from Uncle Ralph, Aunt Myrtle and Nanna. Sprays: Uncle Harry and Aunt Ruth. Uncle Ira, Aunt Daisy, Clarence, Roberta and Carl. Ray and Kay, Georgie and Wilbur. Katie, James, Elmer and Maynard. Zella and Betty. Glenn and Edith Adams.
