P. E. I. RIFLE

view of the Colonel's unfortunate illness, I have been only too pleased to do what I could to fill the great gap created by his enforced resignation. As we all know, Colonel McKinnon has been the backbone of this Association for a goodly number of years as well as one of our outstanding competitors. His love of sport in general and particularly that of rifle shooting has been an example to one and all, and I would like to take this opportunity of publicly thanking the Colonel for all he has done and through his continued interest is still doing for rifle shooting in this Province. While commending Col. McKinnon for his generosity, I would like to point out at this time how much all members appreciate his generosity in supplying spoons in our four qualifying shoots in the Inter-Maritime Team for special matches during the remainder of the season, and last but not least for his outstanding gesture in donating fifty spoons to be used as awards in the various competitions during the coming year. Among the spoons to be arranged for these shoots the Colonel has requested that several be set aside for younger shots at the shorter ranges. Once again I feel sure I extend the wishes of all here this evening when I say many thanks Col. McKinnon and may you have a speedy recovery from your present illness and many happy years of enjoyment ahead.

Dock Strike Threat To U. K. Christmas
LONDON, Nov. 29 — (Reuters) — A London dock strike today threatened to make this a "black Christmas" for Britons. About 4,000 bargemen striking for more pay today asked 7,000 stevedores to join them in sympathy. If the stevedores agree the seasonal rush of food, poultry, oranges and nuts won't get to the stores in time.

6-Months Jail Term For Nudist Camp Operator
ST. JEROME, Que., Nov. 29 — (CP) — There were movies today in Judge Oscar Gagnon's court—movies of a nudist camp, a place where the disrobed munched corn.

When the all-day court session ended, Judge Gagnon convicted Gaston Couture of Montreal of "being in a state of nudity, in company with other persons, in a manner so as to be exposed to public view." He sentenced Couture to six months imprisonment. Defence counsel said he would appeal.

The camp, where policemen sneaked up within 100 feet of naked persons, was on Couture's farm, in the foothills of the Laurentians about 40 miles from Montreal.

Three others facing similar charges will be tried Dec. 12. They are Couture's wife and Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Wilson.

At the outset today Judge Gagnon cleared the courtroom of spectators. Provincial Police who arrested the two couples on a hot day last July showed photographs and a short movie they filmed.

Lieutenant - Detective Leopold Trotter testified he was able to get within 100 feet of four naked persons and two others "more or less dressed."

"We then arrested the undressed persons," said Trotter. "I then asked who was director of the place. Couture told me he was."

Judge Gagnon asked: "What were the persons doing?"

"Two of them were eating corn."

Officer Maurice Lamoureux, who accompanied Trotter, said "We saw people in the field and we took photographs."

"What happened then?" asked defence counsel.

"Couture then forbade me to take any photographs because it was a private place."

M. Bernard, formerly of the Provincial Police and now an official photographer for the Montreal Police Department, also testified.

"After we landed near the camp we crawled to within 100 feet from where we saw people standing in the nude," said Bernard. "And then I filmed the scene."

"What happened after you filmed the scene?" asked defence counsel.

"I suddenly felt a blow on the face as Couture punched my camera. The result was I had a cut lip."

SO PURE... SO GOOD... SO WHOLESOME FOR EVERYONE

The year 1951 is now all but closed except perhaps for the bit of indoor rifle shooting in which I hope each and everyone of you will take part. It has in my opinion been an outstanding one in the annals of shooting in this Province. Scores made in practise leading up to the Inter-Maritime Shoot were outstanding although our team was not successful in winning, they certainly pushed the Nova Scotia team to great heights before they were beaten. It was a wonderful showing under conditions which were not entirely ideal. With regard to our annual shoot, although not privileged to witness as much of same as I would like to have done, there was certainly a fine entry list, the matches were run off most capably by our official Range Officer, Lt. Col. L. F. McDonald, facilities at the range were well looked after by our hard-working caretaker, Sgt. A. G. King, and the "Prize List" and detailed arrangements certainly merited a lot of praise for those hard-working officials, Col. McKinnon and Col. W. J. McDonald. I would like to take this opportunity of congratulating Maj. A. F. "Brick" Gormley for his splendid showing in carrying off the Ottawa and Grand Aggregates.

I would also like to take this opportunity of congratulating the following winners of the Matches held during the shoot:

N.A.T.O. Countries To Aid Flood Victims
ROVIGO, Nov. 29 — (AP) — The 11 cities and villages hardest hit by Italy's recent flood will be rebuilt by the 11 countries that with Italy comprise the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Giuseppe Spataro, Italian minister of posts and communications, today announced the N. A. T. O. powers' offer and asked Italy's civil engineers to name the cities and towns.

Bisley Team and for the fine showing both put up in that successful aggregation. To our team who made the Ottawa trip this year I would also like to extend my heartfelt congratulations for a job well done. Although not given too much publicity at the time, I am informed by the officers of the D.C.R.A. you put up a splendid showing and were a credit to our Association and the Province you represented.

To Maj. George McDonald may I at this time extend a special word of commendation for his splendid marksmanship of the D.C.R.A. meet and heartfelt congratulations upon gaining a place at the 1952 Bisley Team. Another marksmanship would like to congratulate at this time is our friend Corp. Beatty of the R.C.M.P. Corp. Beatty has at all times shot exceedingly well but this year the possible score he put on in winning the shoot-off for the Revolver trophy was something to merit outstanding recognition and I must say we were all pleased to see that his feat was considered important enough to have the battered old trophy emblematic of this R.C.M.P. pistol title presented by Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth on her recent visit. The final shoot of our local season, the City Championship Match was won by 2nd/Lt. Mary McLennan who deserves special congratulations for her consistent shooting throughout the year.

An afterthought to our outdoor shooting year and the highlight culminating five years of hard competition was the shoot-off for the President's Trophy. This shoot was won under extreme wind conditions by Capt. A. J. McCabe, the youngest old campaigner of them all. The winning of this trophy by Capt. McCabe creates an opening for the presentation of a new President's Trophy and at this time it gives me great pleasure to announce that I am only too happy and exceedingly honoured to be able to perpetuate a trophy of this name to be shot for over the similar five year period and finally shot-off by successful winners of the Ottawa aggregate over said five year period. During the past month one of our most enthusiastic marksmen passed away in the person of the late W. E. Bill Cooke of York. We will miss Bill and to his immediate family on your behalf I extend our deepest sympathy in their loss.

In closing I would like to take this opportunity of thanking each and every member of the Association for their support and splendid sportsmanship. To Sgt. A. G. King our very capable range caretaker, I say many thanks for your continued loyal efforts on our behalf. To the Government, City of Charlottetown, and the generous citizens and firms who contributed to our Prize List, I express with pleasure our heartfelt gratitude. To our most efficient Secretary and other members of the Executive and Council I extend my sincere thanks for your co-operation at all times. To the local Army and Navy units I would also like to say many thanks for your many courtesies and co-operation without which we would have found things most difficult. If I have omitted anyone in my thanks, please be assured the error is not intentional, after all as you are all aware I am simply pinch-hitting for a man who has done an outstanding job for many years and lacking his great number of years of experience in such matters and having such a short time to familiarize myself with the inner workings of your Association I ask you to overlook any possible errors. By way of finalizing this sketchy report may I simply say to each and everyone who has contributed in any way to the success of our Association in 1951, "Many Thanks".

Abbey Roll Honors Civilian Heroines Of Wartime Blitz
LONDON, Nov. 29 — (CP) — An illuminated Roll of Honor, first tribute of its kind to commemorate the deaths in war service of ordinary women at home, has found a final resting place in St. Nicholas Chapel, Westminster Abbey.

To a fanfare of trumpets, the Queen took her seat in the sanctuary of Westminster Abbey at a dedication service given in memory of the 241 women named in the Roll of Honor, and many others who died in the Second World War, "keeping home fires burning."

"We wanted ordinary people to feel that ordinary people can be commemorated too," said Lady Reading, chairman of the Women's Voluntary Services, when the roll was first shown in public last spring.

Since then, the beautifully-embellished volume, with its gold-inscribed parchment pages, bound in red Morocco leather, has toured Britain. The names and citations in the roll represent 34 counties from Kent to Cornwall.

The Roll of Honor was brought to the high altar by Miss Clare Evans, The London Scribe and Illuminator for whom this work has been a labor of love since 1947. Lady Reading then asked the Queen to unveil the Roll.

The book will rest in an oak chest in the Chapel and will be on view to the public. The names recorded for posterity are those of women who died serving hot food and coffee to bomb disposal squads, driving ambulances and caring for the needs of those who overnight became casualties of war.
