MONCTON (CP)—A suit for damages arising from a 1957 plane crash that killed three men, including a New Brunswick cabinet minister, was settled out of court here Tuesday shortly before the civil action was to be heard.

Amount of the settlement was not disclosed.

The widows of Municipals Affairs Minister T. Babbitt Parlee and Howard Smith, both of Moncton, instituted actions claiming damages of about $85,000.

Cited as defendants were Eva Russell, widow of L. C. Russell, of Moncton, third victim of the plane crash, and the Moncton Flying Club, owners of the plane which crashed en route here from Fredericton.

J. Harold Dummie of Saint John, N.B., counsel for the defendants, said parties to the action had reached "full settlement."
