the winner, first and third, and Clayton Mill two, four and five. Grand champion and Reserve grand championships were won by Ernest Mills' male and female adult respectively. Class eight, white mink, was the final type tabled, and they were really very beautiful. For years they have been admired as shown by Stewart and Roop, and it was interesting to see they had on display again this year as good a quality if not better than previous years. They had been competition from Ernest Kenny and Son, Nova Scotia. Stewart and Roop won the grand championship and Kenny and Son reserve championship.

After the show, President B. B. Jones of Bunbury, warmly congratulated Judge John Maloney and thanked him for coming here at considerable inconvenience to act as judge, and to give perfect satisfaction to every competitor. In reply Mr. Maloney said he enjoyed coming here and meeting old friends and hoped that next year he would be back again and see an even greater display than the present one. He said that the Fox Show Pavilion was the finest he had seen in all his travels for the purpose, and the lighting the best. President Jones thanked him for his remarks and also thanked the Secretary Walter R. Shaw for making all the arrangements which made the show move along so splendidly, and Mr. Farven for his classification of foxes and mink.

Miss Eleanor Toombs who handled the clerical work, which is quite difficult as all the foxes and mink must bear number and type card, came in for words of praise too. It was remarked by a former President of the Association that he never saw so many foxes and mink judged and results tabulated in such a short time. An interested spectator was R. L. Cooper of the Canadian Fur Auction Company, Montreal, whose sales of furs are held every few months and attract buyers from Europe, United States and various parts of Canada. At 1:30 p.m. Mr. Maloney left by plane for New Glasgow, and

Dawson-MacLeod Wedding

The United Church manse, Valleyfield, was the scene of a very pretty autumn wedding Thursday, November 6th when Phillis Christene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeod, of Grand View became the bride of Harold Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dawson, of Uigg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Fraser, minister at Valleyfield. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Margaret, as bridesmaid the groom was ably supported by Lloyd MacDonald, of Kinross.

After the signing of the register, felicitations were extended by those present. After the ceremony the happy couple left by automobile on a honeymoon trip through places of interest in the Maritimes. On their return a reception was held at the home of the groom where Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable gifts. The toast to the bride was proposed by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson will reside at Uigg, where Mr. Dawson is a prosperous farmer. Previous to her marriage, the bride was a school teacher at Valleyfield.

Their many friends join in wishing them many years of happiness from there they will travel to Truro and later will judge a fox and mink show before returning to Montague.

Amateur Chemist Killed In Blast

PICTON, Ont., Nov. 13 (CP) — Amateur chemist Leslie Rawlins, 30, blew himself to pieces today while experimenting with a chemistry set that exploded. Fragments of his body were scattered about the bathroom of his father's home. All upstairs windows in the house were shattered by the blast. The entire window frame of the bathroom was hurled to the lawn below and a piece of window curtain was left hanging in a tree 30 feet away. Rawlins was alone in the house at the time. Friends said Rawlins told them jokingly that he was working on his own "atomic bomb." They described him as "brilliant." Crown Attorney Gordon Walmsey said there was not a "trace of evidence" as to what caused the explosion. "We are checking his purchases during the last few weeks to determine what caused it." Rawlins, a flying officer during the Second World War, had not worked steadily since his return from overseas. He spent a great deal of time in his home laboratory, a second-floor room he converted for that use.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction, after which a social half hour was enjoyed.

CARE FOR THE PREGNANT COW

During the last month of pregnancy and the first two weeks of lactation, cows deplete their systems of vitamins, minerals, trace elements and other nutrients to supply the requirements of the calf. In many cases, cows will run themselves down to the point where they come down with Milk Fever, Acetonemia and other post-calving conditions. The trend in modern Animal Husbandry is to treat the cow during this critical time by giving supplementary daily amounts of vitamins and minerals. In this way, the cow is receiving ample vitamins and minerals for both herself and her calf—it's really treating the cow—to save herself and her calf. For this pre-natal care of the cow, Nixon Laboratories have developed PREVENTEX POWDER for Pregnant Cows. PREVENTEX POWDER contains Vitamins A, D, E, B Complex, C with the trace minerals Iron, Copper, Iodine, Manganese, Potassium, Magnesium, Sulphur and others in a Calcium Phosphate Base. PREVENTEX POWDER is easy to use—just mix it with the grain ration and it costs only a few cents per cow per day. Why not start using PREVENTEX POWDER on your pregnant cows now to avoid the birth of weak calves and stop problems with the cow at and after calving. We absolutely guarantee satisfactory results or your money refunded!
