Mrs. Eva Russel uses gestures and her almost hypnotic voice to make these girls feel as if they were raindrops being absorbed by the earth. The projects, at a Montreal children's library, help the children lose their self-consciousness and foster creative instincts. While it may resemble a school for method actors, it is not a children's theatre and its primary purpose is to train "self-reliant, creative people." (CP Photo)

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

Summerfield CWL Elects Officers At Annual Meet

St. James' Summerfield Parish Council CWL held the annual meeting at the Church on April 17th with the president, Mrs. Elmer McCourt, presiding and a good attendance of members.

Following routine business, reports of the year's work were given by the secretary, Mrs. John Hagen, and the treasurer Mrs. Louis O'Connor.

The following conveners gave annual reports: — Mrs. St. Clair Croken, spiritual; Mrs. Joseph Croken, education; Mrs. Leslie Tronor, membership; Mrs. Regina Smith, social action; Mrs. Gerard Allen, resolutions; Mrs. John Hagen, press; Mrs. Patrick Curley, radio, TV, and films.

The spiritual director, Rev. Basil Croken, in his remarks congratulated the officers on the splendid work accomplished during the year and announced an evening mass in honor of Our Lady of Good Council, patroness of CWL, for April 26th.

The president, Mrs. McCourt in her address, expressed appreciation for the excellent cooperation she had received from the members during her term of office and solicited the same for her successor.

Several articles of sewing and knitting for Red Cross were passed in and the woolsen blanket donated for lottery by Mrs. Louis O'Connor was on display.

With Mrs. Pius Croken as chairman and Mrs. John Hagan as secretary, the election of officers for next year resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Regina Smith; secretary, Mrs. Gerard Allen; membership convener, Mrs. Joseph Croken. The other conveners will be appointed at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. St. Clair Croken.

The new officers were installed by Father Croken with the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin.

CLYDE RIVER WI
Mrs. Lloyd MacPhail was hostess to the members of Clyde River WI recently. Mrs. Robert Adams presided and 13 members answered the roll call.

A letter was read from the teachers regarding a pre-festival concert to be held on April 28th. Each member was requested to bring two food donations for refreshments.

The hall committee reported something should be done to raise funds for hall and it was decided to ask B. C. Wood, Craup to show slides on his trip to The Holy Land in the hall April 14th. Everyone was to be asked to contribute fudge for a candy sale and a committee was appointed to gather a programme in addition to the slides. The school committee reported also the visiting committee.

The members were invited to Cornwall School on May 2nd to meet with the WI. This invitation was accepted. Due to this being our regular meeting night the meeting will be held the following night at the home of Mrs. Arnold Beer. Roll call will be answered by an exchange of flower slips, seeds, etc. Food committee in charge of Hilda Beer and Pauline MacKinnon, and sandwiches—Neila MacKinnon and Edna Livingston. The Agriculture convener read a paper on Agriculture.

Refreshments were served by hostess and committee in charge.

STANHOPE WI
Mrs. Harry Lawson was hostess to the regular monthly meeting of the Stanhope WI when the president, Mrs. Maurice Blocke opened the meeting. The roll call was answered by a donation of salt and pepper shakers for the hall. Reports of committees were heard and a donation of $15. is to be given to the scouts. A sample of the juice tumblers which were bought for the hall was shown by Mrs. Bruce Ellis. A donation is to be sent to the Drama Festival and it was also decided to canvass for the Salvation Army appeal.

Plans are being made for the convention to be held at the hall. It was agreed to buy scissors and glue for school. Roll call for May is to be answered by bringing flowers for the school. New committees were appointed.

Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

MOUNT STEWART UCW
The April meeting of Mount Stewart UCW met at the church hall with the vice-president Ida MacKay presiding. Mrs. Lane Pigot led in the scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Wallace Birt. Roll call was answered by 14 members with a verse of scripture containing the word "cross". Mrs. Charlie Kaptain led in the sixth chapter of the study book "The Mighty Acts of God".

Friendship secretary's report was given by Mrs. Ella Court. It was suggested by program committee that a combined meeting of the three congregations, St. Peter's, Morell and Mt. Stewart be held and have a special speaker. Plans were made for the Catering to the Community School dinner and the men's Association meeting to be held within the next two weeks.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Eldon Glover and Ella Court.

FISH LIKE MARBLES
Glass marbles are used to line tanks at fish hatcheries; certain species seem to spawn best over a bed of marbles.
