

What Would You Do.

It's all very well to philosophize. When a man's in trouble, up to his eyes; but when every turn of the wheel of fate pinches and squeezes you early and late, and giants stand so that you can't get through.

With endless demands, and money non est, while conscience declared you had done your best, with friends who, like butterflies, disappear when flowers and sun take farewell of the year.

Suppose that old age comes creeping along, and men take that chance to do you a wrong?

Suppose you were jostled right to the wall, and told to move on while you scarce could crawl?

I know there are wrongs—I have felt their touch. I know there are hardships—I have seen such; but manhood is something, and I would try to keep up its dignity, pure and high.

The best I could. —Wm. Lyle in N. Y. News.

A Veteran to Retire.

Major Nagle, of Halifax, is now on his way home to England to arrange for the retiring from active service on his pension (of about $1,500 per year or $20,000 if commuted). He is said to be now the only one of the old rank of "town major" remaining on the army list.

John Traynor's Dory.

Dr. Bibber of Bath, Me., who furnished the outfit for John Traynor's dory voyage across the Atlantic last fall, was asked a few days ago if he expected to see Jack again.

"Not unless he comes in here some time with wings on," says the doctor. "I guess Jack is gone. He sailed in his dory from St. John's N. F., for England on Sept. 25. If he was alive, I think he would have been heard from by this time. I think he was run down and sunk by some vessel when he was about ten days out. The sea could not have hurt that boat. She was so constructed that if she was upset she would flop right up again, and was as strong as wood and iron could make her. If she is lost, she was cut in two by some large craft."

A Terrible Scene.

Daniel Cook and his wife, who live 20 miles from Poducah on the Tennessee river, left his home in Cairo, Ill., on the 21st inst., for a few hours, leaving three children in charge of the house. The wife on her return discovered the building in flames. She could see her little children huddled together in a corner of a front room with arms clasped around one another crying frantically, but she was powerless to assist them and was compelled to watch them burn to death before her eyes.

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Bolls, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Furunculic Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an

Regenerative Medicine

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.
