Sleep.

Like the passionate palm that breathes all the odors of day
 To the soul of night,
Like a river that runs and frets on its turbulent way
 To the quiet deep,
Like the swallow, weary of cold, that southward gleams
 To her land of delight,
So the heart overfull of its sorrow flows over
 in dreams
 Of compassionate sleep.

After Life's Storm.

Forget the old, sad pain of breath,—
 With broken oar,
 By a silent shore,
Becalmed in the peace of Death.

WITH GLOVES ON.

The hands of the patient referred to below were so sore and offensive that he had to wear gloves continually to hide his hands, until he used

PHOSPHOLEINE

(Pronounced FOS-FO-LEEN),

when they became smooth and soft.

SCROFULA AND SALT RHEUM.

Dear Mr. Eagar.

I have much pleasure in giving you a record of the effect produced by the use of your PHOSPHOLEINE. The following cases have come under my particular attention while visiting the sick and poor: A case of Hereditary Scrofula.—The patient had tried most of the blood purifying remedies and Sarsaparillas in use, but for the past 19 years obtained no relief. After taking three bottles of your PHOSPHOLEINE his flesh became smooth and healthy, and he is now completely cured. A case of severe cough in the last stages of Consumption: The cough was eased, and the patient regained flesh and strength. This case is past curing, and the patient was pronounced so by physicians; but had she obtained of your medicine sooner, would no doubt have been cured. A case in which patient had given up the use of alcohol: The craving was cured, and the patient was regaining health and strength. A case of loss of flesh, great weakness, and indisposition for exertion of any kind, has been restored to health and strength by using your PHOSPHOLEINE. I have also recommended it to many who have been suffering from Dyspepsia, loss of strength and flesh, and in every case it has effected a cure. I have derived much benefit from the use of it myself. I remain yours, &c.,

F. C. NEWBERY.

In Cases of Dyspepsia and Nervous Depression.

GENTLEMEN,—I have purposely delayed writing you, as I wished to give a thoroughly complete trial to the M. P. P. It affords me much pleasure now to give it my unqualified approval in the classes of cases in which I have used it: In Atonic Dyspepsia, in convalescence from Nervous Depression, and in cases where the stomach is irritable and rejects stronger forms of stimulants. I have found most marked results from its use, and I strongly recommend its employment. Although this note is unsolicited by you, it is at your disposal for any use you wish to make of it.

Faithfully yours,
