

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JANUARY 13, 1888.

Postal-The Situation.

SEVENTY bags of mail matter crossed to-day, and there are neither sleighs nor train to bring them forward to the General Post Office; so they must needs remain at Cape Traverse all night, and will not be ready for delivery until to-morrow afternoon.

The Mails-A Suggestion.

In connection with our ice-boat service, perhaps the greatest improvement that could be made, would be the stationing of a mail clerk permanently at Cape Tormentine during the winter season.

Another advantage gained would be the sorting of Charlottetown and Summerside mail matter. At present a large share of mail matter for Summerside and the West comes to Charlottetown and lies over for the next train.

Induction of Rev. A. C. Jones.

THE Royal Gazette, of Bermuda, gives the following account of the induction by the Bishop of the Rev. Arthur Conway Jones (for some time Rector of Milton, in this Province,) as Pastor of the Parish of Hamilton.

"After the singing of the 114th hymn, His Lordship called upon his Vicar-General to read the Bishop's License to the new Incumbent to exercise the office of a Priest in Bermuda.

"Then in the presence of the congregation the newly appointed Rector made the declaration of assent, and took the oaths of allegiance to the Queen, and of canonical obedience to the Bishop. Receiving the keys of the church from the churchwardens, the Bishop delivered them to the Rector, who answered: 'I receive these keys of the House of God at your hands as the pledge of my Institution, and of your recognition, and I promise to be a faithful shepherd of the flock committed to my charge, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.'

The Horse Knew His Home.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle says: About a year ago, a young man named Fred Patterson, of East Fishkill, was arrested for stealing the horse of a Mrs. Neal, in Connecticut, by a man who said he was a detective from Massachusetts, and gave his name as McNamara. He told wonderful stories of how he had tracked Patterson, and Patterson was taken into Massachusetts as a prisoner.

There is surely something wrong when about fifty persons are called upon to pay two thirds of an amount levied under what our rulers give us to understand, was a law to equally distribute the taxes of the city? It seems to me that the merchants of Charlottetown are the most down-trodden and long-suffering lot of people in the world.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Ward Four Meeting.

SIR.—Your correspondent, "One Who Was Present" made some serious omissions in his report of this meeting. First, Mr. P. C. Connolly made the room so hideous that a respectable voter rose and told him politely that he had considerable impudence in taking up so much of the time.

The City Report.

SIR.—I have heard some people express great satisfaction at the showing our City Fathers make in the report just published; and perhaps they are right. But let those people examine the report for a few minutes and see what it means.

And look at the condition of the work under their control. Our streets, sidewalks, &c., are in a most deplorable condition—one that would not be tolerated in any other country, to say nothing of a city. Our merchants are often abused by the people of the country for the state the approaches to the city are in, and is it any wonder the winter landings are allowed to be closed or made next thing to impassable by (we presume) the consent of the Council, while the main roads approaching the city are in a worse state than any other part of the Island?

There is surely something wrong when about fifty persons are called upon to pay two thirds of an amount levied under what our rulers give us to understand, was a law to equally distribute the taxes of the city? It seems to me that the merchants of Charlottetown are the most down-trodden and long-suffering lot of people in the world.

Yours truly, A MERCHANT.

A Denial.

SIR.—The correspondence signed "One who was there," in your Wednesday's issue, purporting to be an account of the Ward 4 meeting, is both garbled and untrue. The persons named as having moved and seconded the nominations are inaccurate.
