WITH MATCHED TOOLS MEAN BETTER CULTIVATING FOR YOU MM AVERY BF tractor

More modern farmers are learning that the quality-tested MM Avery BF tractor and the Hi-Klearance RC cultivator are a natural together. Here's a cultivator that offers higher crop-clearance and complete coverage between rows. The RC was built especially for all Hi-Torque BF front end styles. The many crop-getting features of the RC cultivator include Parallelled construction for instant, positive, even depth penetration... Gangs enter, stay, and leave the ground in level position. Parallel lift and spacing of the sweeps permits you to work right up to the row end. Front mounted for full-view construction. Cultivator gangs are mounted just behind the front axle where it is easier to see, easier to dodge out of line plants. Uni-Matic Power controlled for ease of operation, lifts and lowers quickly returning sweeps to the depth you've set them for... at a desired depth or height. Get more work done every hour; more efficiently and faster. Come in and see the powerful MM Avery BF and matched cultivator today.
