Tea and Fancy Sale in St. Paul's Schoolroom on Thursday next. Doors open at 3 p. m.

Sudden Death.—Enoch Fielding, a well known resident of Kentville, N. S., dropped dead in a store there last Saturday night.

To Correspondents.—The letter of William Heard, Esq., in type but crowded out by advertisements and news, will appear to-morrow.

The Skating Rink.—The work of flooding the rink was completed yesterday, and it is expected that everything will be ready for opening before Christmas.

To-night.—St. James' Hall, Concert and readings in St. James' Hall to-night. The hall will be comfortable and all who attend may be sure of a pleasant evening. Admission only 15 cents.

Will Have Water. — The town of Digby, N. S., has decided to introduce a system of waterworks, to cost $35,000, which sum a public meeting of citizens has authorized the Town Council to borrow.

More Washee.—Another Chinaman arrived in the city last evening, and is to day looking up a shop in which to start a laundry. The Chinaman who arrived a week or two ago is about opening up a washee shop on Great George Street.

On Thursday Next.—There will be a Tea and Fancy Sale in St. Paul's Schoolroom on Thursday next, commencing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Everyone who can should attend, as the occasion will be a very pleasant one. Admission only 10 cents. Tea tickets, 25 cents.

From Halifax.—The steamer Fastnet arrived from Halifax via intermediate ports about noon to-day. She will leave for Summerside about five o'clock this afternoon, and will arrive here on return to-morrow morning.

The City of Ghent was to leave Halifax to-day.

Engagement Presents.—It is quite a tax to give wedding presents, but the latest scheme which New York society is introducing, the giving of engagement presents, is almost too much of a move. On the occasion of a recent engagement, a New York paper announces that no less than 75 presents were received.

Lecture.—Rev. Dr. Morrison, rector of St. Dunstan's College, will deliver a lecture in the A. O. H. hall (McEachern's Building), Queen Street, on Friday, December 14th, at 8 p. m. His subject will be "Daniel O'Connell." An entertaining discourse may be expected. Admission only 10 cents.

Want To Fight in Canada.—A man who gives his name as Edgar Moore arrived in Montreal a few days ago, and alleges that he has been sent to Canada with a view to secure a place for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. He innocently supposes that the Dominian is a sort of Mexico or South American republic.

Acknowledgment.—Mr. John F. Vose has the thanks of The Examiner for copies of Westerly, R. I., papers containing references to the recent sad death at Moncton of Mr. Peter McNaughton. Mr. McNaughton lived in Westerly for some time. The papers say he was well known there and was deservedly popular.

Sale in St. Peter's Schoolroom.—The Young People's Working Society of St. Peter's Church will hold a sale of fancy goods, aprons, &c., in the Schoolroom on Wednesday, the 5th Dec. There will be 5 o'clock tea, and a second-hand book table, also a box of goods from England to be disposed of. Sale will begin at 3 o'clock. Admission 5 cents. tf

Hockey.—At the annual meeting of the Victoria Hockey Club, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: J A Collings, president; William McKie, vice-president; W W Moore, secretary-treasurer. Two new members were elected, and several applications for membership were held over until the next meeting.

Hand Torn Off.—Joseph Bourque, of Scadouc, near Shediac, was the victim of a painful accident on Friday last. It seems that Mr. Bourque was at work with a threshing machine when the feeder became clogged. He put his right hand in to remove the obstruction, when the drum started, catching his hand and mangling the arm fearfully up to the elbow, at which place the injured member had to be amputated.

Good Templars.—A Lodge of Good Templars was recently organized at Clifton, New London, by L W Fowler, Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge. The officers are: Wm Montgomery, L D; Geo F Found, P C T; John Jardine, C T; Mrs M J Nicholson, V T; Dr D T McKay, R S; Bertha Lamont, A S; James D McLeod, F S; David Whitehead, Treas; Daniel Riley, Chap; Miss Annie R McKay, S J T; James McKay, Mar; Geo McKay, Guard; S Dunn, Sent.

Market Prices. — The market to-day was well attended and well supplied. Produce was in good supply and demand, and pork moved quickly with no change in price. Hay for pressing brought 35c. Other prices were: Butter, (fresh) 22 to 23c; butter, (tub) 18 to 20c; eggs, 18 to 20c; ducks, per pair, 50 to 55c; chickens, 35 to 45c; fowl, 35 to 45c; lamb, per quarter, 40 to 60c; beef, per quarter, 6 to 7c; turkeys, 80c to $1; carrots, 25 to 30c; turnips, 10 to 12 cents; hay, 30 to 35c; oats, 33c, and potatoes, 25c. The farmers report the roads in fine condition for hauling, and sufficient snow for light sleighs.

Who is This Man?—The Boston correspondent of the St. John Sun writes: Several petitions are in circulation in New Bedford and vicinity favoring the commutation of the death sentence of Daniel Robertson, who is under sentence to hang December 14 for murdering his wife. Robertson's home is in Prince Edward Island, where his father, a well-to-do farmer and a former local politician, still resides. The latter wrote that his health would not allow him to be present at the funeral, but the funeral expenses will be forwarded to a brother-in-law of the doomed man. Gov. Greenhalge will also be asked to revoke the death sentence, as it is claimed Robertson is thoroughly repentant.

ST. ANDREW'S DINNER.

This annual event took place at the Queen Hotel last evening, and was in every way worthy of that excellent hostelry and of the Caledonian Club under whose auspices it was given. The President of the Club, James Paton, Esq., occupied the chair. At his right were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. David Laird, Hon. Premier Peters, and Rev. Mr. Campbell. On his left were Hon. Senator Macdonald, His Worship the Mayor, the Consul of the United States, and Rev. Mr. Fullerton. Mr. John McPhee, First Vice-President of the Club, occupied the vice-chair. Among the guests we noticed the Rev. David Sutherland, of Zion Church, Peter McCourt, Esq., President of the Benevolent Irish Society. Lieutenant-Colonel Moore, D. A. G., John S. McDonald, Esq., Revising Barrister, Archibald McNeill, Esq., ex-President of the club, and many other citizens. The Bishop of Charlottetown, the Chief-Justice, the Master of the Rolls, the Vice-Chancellor, Rev. Father Reid, Capt. Weeks, John W. Morrison, Esq., and Lieut.-Colonel Irving sent letters expressing regret that they were unable to attend. We regret that, of necessity, we are unable to obtain space for reports of the many able and eloquent addresses that were delivered. The following is the toast list:

The Queen.
The Day and a' Wha Honor It—Hon. D. Laird.
The President of the United States—Consul Kane.
Song—Jock O' Hazeldean—Mr. Wm. McKay.
The Governor-General of Canada—Senator Macdonald.
The Parliament of Canada—Jas. McIsaac, Esq.
The Lieutenant-Governor—Lieut.-Governor Howlan.
The Land O' The Heather—Rev. Mr. Fullerton.
Song—Mr. G. I. Foster.
The Local Legislature—Premier Peters.
The Land We Live In—Rev. J.M. Campbell.
Our Guests—His Worship Mayor Dawson.
The Bench and Bar — Mr. Jas. H. Good.
Song—Mr. Louis Whear.
The Naval and Military Forces of the Empire—Lieut.-Col Moore.
Sister Societies—Peter McCourt, Esq.
The Press—Messrs. W. L. Cotton and M. J. McDonald.
The Lassies O!—Messrs. M. J. McDonald and Aarthur Mellish.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS

The Chief of the Club (Hon. A. A. McDonald)—proposed by D. O'M. Reddin, jr.
The President—proposed by Mr. John McPhee.
Absent friends, with particular reference to Lieutenant-Colonel Irving, D. A. G., Nova Scotia—proposed by Hon. D. Laird and responded to by A. McNeill, Esq.
The Managing Committee—proposed by Mr. J. S. McDonald and responded to by Mr. John McPhee.
Our Host and Hostess—proposed by Mr. McPhee and responded to by Mr. Archibald.
Auld Lang Syne.

Mr. George I. Foster presided at the piano and led the music, which was lively and inspiriting. Mr. Webster recited Burns' Address to the Haggis in splendid form; and the songs sung by Messrs. McKay, Foster and Whear were capital. Altogether, an exceedingly pleasant evening was passed; and the Canada Temperance Act was honored in the spirit as well as in the letter.

A friend of The Examiner sends the following clipping from the Colonial Herald of the 10th December, 1842:

Highland Society.—The members of this Society celebrated the anniversary of their Patron Saint by supping together on Wednesday, the 30th ult., at the Prince Edward Island Hotel. Among the numerous toasts that were drunk were: "The Day and all who honor it;" "The Queen, Her Royal Consort and Royal Offspring;" "His Excellency Sir Henry Vere Huntley, the worthy and respected Chief of the Society;" "Lady Huntley and the fair daughters of Prince Edward Island;" "The Parent Society of London;" "The Branch Societies all over the world;" and many other loyal and patriotic toasts.

WE SELL COAL

Prices Right.

WHAT WE HAVE.—A well assorted stock of LUMBER.

WHAT WE WANT.—We are not grasping. We only want enough trade to keep us working. We would rather sell our stock cheap than rust for want of something to do.

If you will just give us a call and look over our stock you will be just "tickled to death" with satisfaction.

WHAT WE CAN'T GET.—As we intend making a change in our business we are going to let the Court collect those old accounts that "we can't get." We've asked for them often. But the polite invitation to "call again" is monotonous to our ears. So don't be surprised, for WE MUST HAVE MONEY.

All That We Know About Furs

IS AT YOUR DISPOSAL.

There is no class of goods more difficult to judge than Furs. The size of the discount we offer you is no proof of the size of the bargain. Large discounts generally mean something wrong with the goods. (1) Is the quality first, second or third rate? (2) Is the style of garment right? (3) Is the fur going out of style? (4) Was the article marked too high at first? These and a dozen other questions want answering. We do a very large Fur business—probably the largest on the Island.

Charlottetown, December 4, 1894—dy

There's been a constant and rapid disappearance from our Mantle and Jacket Department and our Fur Department ever since the goods were opened. Value tells—every time.

We've still a good assortment in both departments. We don't want to see any left until stock-taking, and if low prices will do it there won't be any left.

REMEMBER !—We will sell everything in these two departments at a big discount to clear them out.

Call early while the assortment is complete. It won't be complete long—at our prices.
