

THEY'RE ENGAGED

Engagement of Frank Sinatra, 50, and Mia Farrow, 21, was announced in New York yesterday by her mother, actress Maureen O'Sullivan. They are shown aboard the yacht Southern Breeze off Edgartown, Mass., last year in the early days of an ill-starred cruise. No wedding date has been set but they are expected to be married between Thanksgiving and Christmas. (CP Wirephoto)

Negotiations Break Down In U.S. Airlines Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peace talks in the U.S. airline strike broke off recently. Joseph W. Ramsey, chief negotiator for the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists, accused Northwest Airlines of violating an understanding that both sides would maintain the status quo during current negotiations. Assistant Labor Secretary James J. Reynolds said he will try to restore relations. TERMED SERIOUS Reynolds described the development as a serious impediment in the effort to end the walkout, which has halted 60 per cent of the United States air transportation since it began last Friday. The airlines stopped by the strike are Eastern, Northwest, Trans-World, United and National. Ramsey walked out of the conference room saying, "Northwest has fouled up the status quo at Tokyo, and we are taking the same position the airlines took at San Juan." Reynolds said this was a reference to a situation that developed shortly before the strike began. The airlines said union employees of Eastern Airlines at San Juan, Puerto Rico, quit work in violation of a status quo agreement. They refused to negotiate with the union until the machinists returned to work. MUST PAY RENT In Tuesday's flareup, Ramsey said Northwest notified its employees in Tokyo that they will have to pay rent in advance if they continue to occupy quarters in a company-owned compound. Normally their rent is deducted from living allowances and salaries. Ramsey contended this violates a 1965 agreement that neither side would take any discriminatory action against the other. The union's chief demand is for a 53-cent-an-hour wage increase. The airlines originally offered 30 cents an hour and then accepted the 44-cent increase recommended by a presidential emergency board. Present pay scales range from $2.25 to $3.52 an hour.

Big Basic Industries Lead Manufacturers Boom

OTTAWA (CP) — The big basic industries led a job boom among manufacturers in 1965, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports. Employment shot up 7.8 per cent during the year in companies turning out wood products, iron and steel, cars and trucks, aluminum, electrical supplies and such products as asbestos and concrete. Producers of such non-durable goods as beverages, tobacco, textiles, clothing and petroleum, improved labor strength by 3.7 per cent. The over-all increase in employment for manufacturing was 5.7 per cent. The bureau's report is based on questions put to 11,500 persons in a sector of the economy that accounts for about 40 per cent of the 3,400,000 industrial workers in Canada. Within that sector the survey covers establishments employing 15 or more persons in October, 1965. The big producers of durable goods kept employees on the job 1 1/2 hours a week longer than non-durable producers, paying an average of $8.68 a week more to wage earners and $10.54 more to salaried employees. In manufacturing as a whole, the average wage-earner's work week was 41.8 hours. It was 38.6 for salaried employees. The big wage-earners in the durable goods area were in the auto industry, where the male worker draws an average of $114 a week. There were notable exceptions to the generally lower scales prevailing among producers of non-durable goods. The petroleum industry was one, with hourly-paid men drawing an average $126 and salaried men $175. The printing industry pays an average $115 and paper products manufacturers an average $111.

LEATHER AT BOTTOM Lowest average weekly wage for men is $71.24, occurring in leather products. The national average for hourly-paid men was $89.32, 5.9 per cent higher than in 1964. The highest wages were paid in Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. But among salaried employees, who showed a 4.1-per-cent gain to $120.27, the sharpest gain was 7.6 per cent in New Brunswick. Highest salaries still occurred in British Columbia, averaging $130.49 for both sexes, and in Ontario, averaging $123.13.

TUNNEL MOVES SLOWLY LONDON (CP) — The Channel Tunnel decision will be made within a year, Transport Minister Barbara Castle told Parliament. But even if the British decide to build the "tunnel," it will probably be 1969 before the site is chosen and five more years before construction begins.
