LIGHTER, FLUFFIER, RICHER-FLAVORED PANCAKES

Sounds like the dream of every homemaker who knows how her family love pancakes... and how wonderfully economical pancakes are! We're just one little change in your way of making, will give you pancakes that are heavenly light—more tender and digestible.

- Use your favorite Pancake Ready Mix, and follow package directions EXCEPT...
- In place of bottled milk use Carnation mixed with an equal amount of water.
- Stir lightly. Pancakes made this Carnation way are the lightest ever. But remember to get Carnation for lighter, better flavored pancakes. Nooker form of milk will do so well.

HEARTY SOUPS make a satisfying, nourishing beginning for a meal. And you love them! Make the soup hearty enough, and you'll need nothing but dessert to round out a good luncheon or supper. And doesn't that mean a thrifty meal! Of course, I'm constantly talking about my quickest, easiest way to make exciting, nourishing, satisfying soup—just mix equal parts of your favorite canned soup, and undiluted Carnation. By using Carnation instead of water, or bottled milk, you get the creamiest, most delectable soup ever. And think of the food value! Of course, if you like home-made soup, why not try my—

CORN CHOWDER
(7 & 8 cups)

1/2 cup diced salt pork (or bacon)
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 cups diced potatoes
2 cups boiling water
2 cups canned corn
Salt and pepper to taste
1 tbsp. butter
2 1/2 cups Carnation Milk
1 tsp. chopped parsley

Fry pork until deep brown. Remove to paper towel. Cook onions in the dripping until clear but not brown. Put potatoes, onions, pork drippings, and hot water in saucepan. Cover; cook 15 minutes, until potatoes are tender but not soft. Add corn, season; simmer 5 minutes. Add butter, undiluted Carnation Milk, parsley, and if desired 1/2 tsp. nutmeg. Heat; add pork; serve.

"MY MOTHER TAUGHT ME to use Carnation Evaporated Milk." You know, we have a lot of interviews every year with housewives and mothers who use Carnation Milk. And it's surprising how many times when we ask "How did you first come to use Carnation Milk?" we get the answer, "Oh, my mother always used it." Yes, Carnation is being used by a second generation of good cooks—and in some cases a third generation. It takes real cooking quality to earn that kind of loyalty.

WOULD YOU LIKE 10 brand new ways to serve pancakes? We prepared a recipe leaflet containing 10 of my favorites, to help you put extra glamour in low-cost Carnation Pancake meals. Your grocer has a copy of the leaflet for you. Look for the big colorful display with its photograph of Carnation Pancakes and recipes so you can help yourself. Or ask your grocer for a copy.

Best way I know to end an economy meal (or any other kind) is to top it off with coffee "creamed" with Carnation. The velvet smoothness, and creamy color, and rich flavor, of coffee'n'Carnation sends everybody from the table happy. And Carnation—the milk that whips—costs only half as much as cream.

CAN APPEALING DESSERTS BE THRIFTY? Indeed they can! Make your simplest dessert—rice or tapioca pudding, cottage pudding, chocolate pudding—with Carnation Milk, and you'll find it really thrilling. Pour undiluted Carnation on sliced bananas, baked apples, canned peaches or a jelly dessert—and your family will feel really cherished! Yes, appealing desserts can be economical... with Carnation.

To extinguish small grease fires quickly and safely, use salt or baking soda.
