NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—Rails went to new highs and more issues rose than fell in the stock market Friday but profit - taking made a scrambled - attern among leading stocks.

Volume was a lively 8,190,000 shares compared with 9,810,000 Thursday.

The ragged performance by many key stocks led to contradictions in the averages. The Dow Jnes industrial average fell 1.78 to 989.03 and Standard and Poor's 500-stock index edged down .02 to 93.81.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks posted a gain of .8 to 367.9.

The rails gave the list whatever group leadership there was. Analysts said investors were attracted anew to the rails by President Johnson's food - for-freedom roposals which, if adopted, would lead to a big increase in rail freight revenues.

SANTA FE ADVANCES

Santa Fe rose 3¼ to 40½ on 121,400 shares.

Chrysler recouped ⅝ from Thursday's 3-point loss.

Among Canadian issues, Canadian Pacific gained a point. International Nickel finished ¾ higher on the dy. Distillers Seagrams was up ⅜ and Dome Mines ⅝. McIntyre Porcupine fell 1½ points as did Hudson Bay Mining.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American exchange. Canadian Javelin fell ⅜ and Scurry Rainbow Oil ¼.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—Stocks reflected some improvement as prices settled into a narrowly mixed pattern Friday on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges.

HUNTER'S

appeal fell on deaf ears . . . the season was open till December 21st. Last year 1965 still no conservation move even though our local black ducks were down to mere skeleton numbers. The big hearted hunting fraternity, and the boys who set the 1965 season, cut 5 days off the end of the December and thought they were real conservationists. In 1966 we hear of a move to tax our hunters with a hunting license when there is nothing to hunt. Our wildlife experts state the money is to be used to purchase wet land sites . . . for WHAT? Unless its a bonus to some land owners for services rendered . . . its definitely not for the birds . . . or is it? Its this columnists guess there'll be some headaches before this wildlife mess is cleared up.
